Crown Appeal Upheld In Casford Theft Case

A COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS has upheld the conviction of a man charged with the theft of a crown from a church in Casford, North Carolina. The man, who was found guilty of the crime, had appealed his conviction to the court. The court found that the evidence against him was sufficient to sustain the conviction.

LEAF FLAGS ARE ON SALE BUT ALL THREE INCORRECT

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT has announced that it has decided to discontinue the sale of leaf flags. The flags, which were sold in three different colors, were found to be incorrect in design and color. The government has decided to stop selling them and to replace them with a new design.

Construction Ass'n Requests Corporation Income Tax Cut

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BUILDERS has requested that the U.S. Congress pass a law to reduce the income tax rate for corporations. The association argues that the current tax rate is too high and that a reduction would help to stimulate the economy and create more jobs.

De Gaulle Gold Move Annoys U.S. Officials

PARIS, Feb. 5 (AP)—The move by French President Charles de Gaulle to transfer gold reserves to France has caused a sharp reaction in Washington. U.S. officials are concerned that the move will weaken the dollar and destabilize the international financial system. They are also worried that it will lead to a loss of confidence in the U.S. economy.
