Donald McLean.
Wm. McEwen.
John Neill.
Joseph Hennessey.
Wellington Murphy.
Emerson Shledow.
John J. Mobbs.
James Murray.
Wm. J. McEachern.
Byron Brown.

Mr. Farmer in reviewing the case for the Crown remarked that the charge is an unusual one.

Miss Ruth Vinnicombe, the first witness, testified that she is a clerk in the Department of Agriculture where part of her duties consists of the registration of births, deaths and marriages. She produced copies of the official marriage licenses, Harry Nicolle to Annie Louise Davey dated 29th Sept. 1921, registered 8th day of October. The officiating clergyman was Rev. M. The next license was dated 19th Sept. 1934, Ephriam E. Clow to Annie Louise Nicolle. Witness identified both original licenses. The second license gave the name of the officiating clergyman as Rev. Frank E. Boothroyd, Hunter River.

Both ceremonies were performed under a license.

Harry Nicolle on being sworn testified that he is the husband of Annie Nicolle. They were married on 29th Sept. 1921, by Rev. M. J. McDonald. His wife's maiden name was Annie Louise Davey. Lived together as husband and wife six months and a half, then she wanted to go home. Witness took her home and two weeks later a child was born. They never lived together after that. Witness did not think child was his. Saw his wife in spring of 1934 on Grafton St. She spoke to him. Saw her in the fall of 1933. Met her on Queen Street with her sister. The latter said "there he is with glasses on." They were both looking at him. Met her in the fall of 1927 on the Murray Harbor train from Charlottetown to Murray Harbor. She came in and sat down in the seat with him. Asked him what "he was going to do." Could not remember what reply he made.
