PEK UP YOUR APPETITE!

Appetites can rejoice again, for the rich, red fruit of Canada's sun-drenched tomato fields has come in another glorious harvest . . . and Heinz, famous in two hemispheres for a special magic with tomatoes, has again packed the pick of the crop.

Ask for Heinz Tomato Juice . . . the tangiest of appetizers. Your grocer should have a plentiful supply just now, in handy, economical 20 oz. tins.

LONDON - (CP) — Col. J. J. Llewellin, Britain's food minister, predicted in a speech that within the next few years Britain would attempt to build refrigerated air lockers. He added that every home would have a refrigerator and that "the Americans are far ahead of us there.

ONE TEAM
One Purpose

Nearly a million Canadian men and women in the armed services of the Dominion, more than a million in war industry, and all the others on the home front—have one goal in sight, a complete and speedy victory.

Teamwork counts as never before, for now the game is in its final, crucial stages. We must all put forth extra effort, use even more of our resources, to make the finish swift and sure.

It is urgent that in this Seventh Victory Loan we each buy at least one more bond than we bought before. It is our duty to our team-mates; our duty to our children who will enjoy the fruits of victory. Let us do our duty gladly, that we may earn our place on our winning team.

Adams—Frizzell Wedding

A very pretty fall wedding took place at the home of the bride in West Royalty on Wednesday evening Sept. 27, at eight o'clock, when Irene Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Frizzell became the bride of George Nelson Adams, Charlottetown, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Montague.

Reverend Thomas Constable performed the ceremony.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mr. Newton Large who also played several selections during the evening.

The young bride looked winsome in her floor length gown of white sheer over taffeta with shoulder length veil, and carried an arm bouquet of Better Time roses. She wore silver slippers. Her only ornament was a gold locket, gift of the bridegroom.

She was attended by her sister, Birdena, as bridesmaid, who looked lovely in a floor length gown of blue point d'esprey over taffeta and wore a halo of flowers in her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother Jack.

The mother of the bride chose for the occasion, a two-piece dress of black crepe with sequin trimming and wore a corsage of red roses.

During the signing of the register Mr. J. A. Moore sang "O Perfect Love."

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to a large number of guests, the bride's table being centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mrs. J. T. Ferguson, aunt of the bride, presided over the tea cups and Mrs. Gordon Stetson cut the ices. Mrs. J. Russell Bell, Mrs. Fred Gates and Mrs. W. McKay replenished and girl friends of the bride assisted in serving.

Later in the evening a merry crowd of serenaders arrived and after receiving their good wishes and a hearty bouncing the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride chose a navy tailored suit with matching accessories.

Before her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home where she received many lovely gifts.

Letter of Sympathy

Following is a letter received by Mrs. Duncan MacKinnon, Riverdale, with regard to her son's death on active service in Italy.

LLOYD MacKINNON

C Coy. W.N.S. Reg.
C.A. C.M.F.

Dear Mrs. MacKinnon: On behalf of myself the N.C.O.'s and men of 14 platoon, I wish to convey our deepest sympathy in the loss of your son Lloyd who was killed in action while serving in my platoon. Lloyd was killed Sept. 15, 1944, while fighting in the Gothic line.

Lloyd was one of the best liked men in the platoon and his death caused us all to stop for a moment and offer a short prayer for him.

He will always be remembered by those of us who are left and his bravery will be an inspiration and example for us to follow. In closing once again we extend our heart-felt sympathy to you and the family.

Yours sincerely,
F-49761 Sgt. B. B. Carmichael

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacKinnon and family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent sad sereavement and also to those who sent cards and letters of sympathy.

Suggestion That King Rule Personally Over Each Dominion

OTTAWA, Oct. 30 — (CP) — Government sources said today they had heard nothing of a suggestion that King George should rule his dominions personally instead of through a govenor-general.

The Sydney, Australia, Daily Telegraph today carried a despatch from Theo Moody, a correspondent who covered the Montreal Commonwealth Air Conference last week, that a group of leading Canadians had suggested to Prime Minister MacKenzie King that King George should establish His court in each Dominion or Colony for two months of each year.

The Prime Minister's office said that nothing was known of the proposal there.

Fisheries Council To Coordinate Peet-War Policies

OTTAWA, Nov. 2,—(CP)—Post-War plans for Canada's fishing industry will be co-ordinated though a new national body to be called, the Fisheries Council of Canada, it was disclosed today.

Establishment of the Council, to have Headquarters here, was decided at a recent meeting of Representatives of Commercial Fish Processing and Distributing Organisations.

Main purpose of the council will be to enable various divisions of the fishing industry to maintain closer contact with the Government Departments, particularly during the readjustment period, and to co-ordinate generally the activities of local fisheries Associations with national interests of the industry.

Appointed to complete arrangements for the setting up of the council were C. J. Morrow, Lunenberg, N. S., Frank James, Toronto, H. Welham, Montreal, J. W. Nicholls, Prince Rupert, B. C., T. A. Raza, Montreal, C. C. Dungan, Winnipeg, J. Martin, Quebec, Fletcher Smith, Halifax, and J.

Part Time Civil Jobs For Zombies

OTTAWA, NOV. 1, — (CP) — Passage of a recent order-in-council providing for the placement of army personnel not immediately required for military duty in civilian jobs, has opened the way for the return of members of the Home Defence Army to civilian employment and still remain in the army.

While the order applies to both the Home Defence and the Active Armies there was speculation that it might be used as the solution to differences of opinion, now being considered by the cabinet, as to the use of Canada's 70,000 Home Defence Troops.

Under the terms of the order these men could be placed in jobs considered necessary in the public interest and at the same time they would not actually be demobilized but would be subject to recall at any time for military service. In effect, they would be on leave from the Home Defence Army.
