LONDON, October 30.—Sir George Henry Lewis, acting as solicitor for the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, says he is authorized to state that no deed of separation between the duke and duchess has been signed and that the children of the couple are not in the custody of the duchess, but are with their father at Blenheim Castle.

Diamond Dyes

Are Used By All Wise and Economical Canadian Women.

Failures in home dyeing are caused by the use of imitation add adulterated package dyes which are ruinous to good materials and dangerous to handle. Ladies who value their garments and materials should never risk imitatation and worthless package dyes. The colors of such dyes are always muddy, blotchy and lifeless. Storekeepers sell such trashy dyes simply because of the large profits they bring, and care little for the trouble and vexation these common dyes cause to the women who use them. DIAMOND DYES are the only successful, pure, fast and brilliant dyes sold. The DIAMOND DYES have a wonderful recoad of triumph and successes, and have no equals in the world for easy and profitable home coloring.

As there are merchants who sell inferior and adulterated package dyes, insist each time you buy that you are served with the DIAMOND DYES. See that each package bears the words, DIAMOND PACKAGE DYES.

UNCLE GOT HIS NEPHEW A BRIDE

Geneva, Oct. 27.—An amusing abduction recently occurred at Huningue. A wealthy retired merchant, named Felix, was arrested on a charge of carrying off a girl, but was liberated as soon as the facts of the case became known to the police.

The old man's nephew, a shy young man of twenty-three years fell in love with a girl while on a visit to Neuchatel, and his sentiments were reciprocated by the girl. The girl's parents, however, refused to allow their daughter to marry on the ground that she was too young.

When the lovesick young man told his troubles to his uncle, the old man upbraided him for his lack of enterprise, and promised to bring the girl to Huningue within forty-eight hours. Hiring a powerful motor-car, and taking a couple of men with him, Felix left for Neuchatel, abducted the girl from near her home, and returned within the allotted time. The marriage took place next day.

The girl's parents have forgiven their daughter, who was not in the plot, and everything has ended well.

DEAD TAKEN FROM THE SUBMARINE

BIZERTA, Tunis, Oct. 30.—Six bodies of the crew of the French submarine boat Lutin were removed from the vessel today. The Lutin sank off this port Oct. 16 with 14 men and two officers on board. The work of removing the dead probably will not be completed before Monday.

The bodies of Lieutenant Fepoux, the vessel's commander, and four men were found clustered amidships, six bodies were found in the stern and the others in the bow.

All were in a horrible condition, owing to the action of acids. The only means of identification was by means of objects found on the corpses.

Most of the men were barefooted. The indications are that they met their death instantly.

The opinion prevails that the Lutin tried to come to the surface too rapidly and that her stern consequently struck on the bottom. This caused rivets to start and plates to burst. Six leaks were found in the hull.

When people consider buying rugs and linoleums they naturally think first of this store.
