Giants Take Three-Game Lead In National League

By The Associated Press

Six runs in the eighth inning gave the New York Giants an 8-5 victory over the Chicago Cubs yesterday and a clean sweep of a four - day Polo Grounds series, boosting their National League lead to three full games.

Mel Ott started the big frame by drawing a walk and when Joe Medwick, Phil Weintraub and Ernie Lombardi followed driving in two runs with one-basers, Charley Grimm waved Passeau to the showers and summoned Hy Vandenberg. After Buddy Kerr sacrificed, Nap Reyes walked to load the bases.

When Ott sent Danny Gardella in to hit for Adams Grimm called in Lefty Bob Chipman. Ott countered by subbing Billy Jurges for Gardella and he walked on four straight balls, forcing in the tying run.

Rucker bounced to Don Johnson but the attempt at a double play was late when Roy Hughes and Jurges crashed, letting pinch runner Johnny Hudson score to make it 6-5. After Mack Stewart replaced Chipman George Hausmann's infield single tallied Reyes and Ott drove home Rucker with the final counter.

Brooklyn's spectacular 11-game winning streak came to an end at Ebbets Field as the Pittsburgh Pirates blasted four Dodger pitchers for 15 hits to win 12-3.

Despite four errors behind him, Nick Strincevich went the route for his third victory, limiting the Brooks to six hits.

At Boston, Ken O'Dea's fifth inning double with three men on put a game on ice for St. Louis Cardinals as they took the Braves 7-4.

Stan Partenheimer opened on the mound for St. Louis but after Dick Culler singled and Tommy Holmes walked, Ken Burkhardt took over for the visitors.

Butch Nieman hit Buckhardt's first offering for a homer, scoring three runs, but the Cards pitcher settled down after that and the only other Boston run of the game was in the third when Garden Gillenwater's single brought in Holmes.

At Philadelphia, Cincinnati Reds aided by the five-hit pitching of 40-year-old Walter Beck, defeated the Phillies 4-2.

Frank McCormick drove in what proved to be the winning runs when he hit a homer with one on in the eighth inning.

Sportsman At Ottawa Plans Hockey Shrine

HULL, QUE., May 17—(CP) — T.P. (Tommy) Gorman of Montreal, head of a group of sportsmen which took over control and ownership of the Ottawa Auditorium this week, said today plans were under way to establish a hockey "shrine" in the building.

Addressing a service club (Rotary) luncheon, Mr. Gorman said, such celebrities as P.D. Ross, the late "Sherriff" Sweetland and William Foran, Stanley Cup trustees, should "not be overlooked in a hockey hall of fame."

"The same goes for the great hockey players Ottawa has produced, the late Frank McGee, the late Harvey Pulford and Harry (Rat) Westwick (of old Ottawa Silver Seven) to name only a few, and since the hall of fame has been established in Kingston (Ont.) we'll find a place for a hockey shrine in the auditorium."

Among guests at the luncheon were six members of Montreal Canadiens — Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Emile Bouchard, Toe Blake, Bill Durnan, Elmer Lach and Wilf Cude, old-time gaolkeeping star who now is a coach and scout in the Canadien organization.

May Settle Dispute With Mort Cooper

ST. LOUIS, May 17 — (AP)— An agreement over salary differences, which prompted pitcher Mort Cooper for the third time this spring to leave the St. Louis Cardinals, appeared brighter tonight.

His attorney, Lee J. Havener, conferred with Cardinal president Sam Breadon in Rochester, N. Y., by telephone and announced a meeting here for next Tuesday or Wednesday of all parties, including manager Billy Southworth.

"My talk with Breadon was cordial and we are near an agreement," Havener said. "I'm confident we can get together."

Havener said Cooper had received a telegram from Southworth advising the big righthander he had been fined $500 and suspended indefinitely for leaving the team yesterday morning.

Cooper returned to St. Louis today from Boston.

The salary dispute came into the open at the beginning of the National League season. Cooper and his brother, Walker, the Redbird catcher, signed 1945 contracts for $12,000 but quit the club when they learned shortstop Marty Marion would receive $13,000 subject to War Stabilization Board approval. They countered Breadon's offer for $13,000 with demands for $15,000 and rejoined the club only at Havener's request.

Walker Cooper now is in the Navy.

German Prisoners Begin To Work

PARIS, May 17—(AP) — German prisoners of war by the thousand have begun paying in hard work and sweat the first installment of their country's huge debt to the world, and one of their first tasks is aimed squarely at the defeat of their former ally, Japan.

As fast as they can be processed the captives are being put to work under the eyes of guards to speed the tremendous job of transferring American troops and supplies to the Pacific.

Skilled German workers are being used to recondition and prepare millions of items of equipment for the great change-over, while thousands of others are preparing roads over which the American armies will flow to embarkation ports.

One of the biggest jobs to which prisoners will be turned as speedily as possible is farming, which holds a priority second only to that of getting American forces on the move toward the Pacific. It will be a close race against starvation in middle Europe this winter.

Russia and Britain are using prisoners for reconstruction purposes, and the French are requesting thousands for the task of rebuilding their ruined towns and cities.

Japs Fishing For Peace Signs

WASHINGTON, May 17 —(AP) —Individual Japanese in neutral countries are fishing for signs of peace short of unconditional surrender, but thus far no official peace bid has been received from Japan, it was learned today.

Particularly since the fall of Manila, a number of Japanese have urged neutrals to learn the "real American attitude" but these Japanese specify only that unconditional surrender is impossible for Japan and suggest no definite terms.

Asked about reports that the Office of Strategic Services had received a definite Japanese peace bid, officials here familiar with Japanese affairs said they knew of nothing of that kind.

They stressed the futility of informal, personal peace feelers, representing as they do no authority from the militarists who control Japan's destiny. All the evidence in American hands indicates that this element has no self-interest in facing the prospect of unconditional surrender and probably will not face it until Japanese military pride has been brought considerably lower.

Strict Military Control For Germany

PARIS, May 17 — (AP) — A program of sweat and discipline under which Germany will have to earn her way back into the community of nations under strict military control was laid by the Allies today.

The so-called German government of Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz was declared officially to be only a temporary stop-gap, "fully controlled" by the Allies while it fulfills a useful purpose.

An Allied supreme headquarters statement said Doenitz "and certain other selected German officers" were being used only temporarily as an instrument for facilitating the surrender and disarmament of German forces and were acting under complete Allied control.

The formal statement made clear that there was no thought of recognizing Doenitz and his "Flensburg group" as a German government. So far as the Allies are concerned, Count Ludwig Schwerin von Krosigk "does not exist" as Doenitz' foreign minister.

This was underscored by Lt.-Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Gen. Eisenhower's deputy for the occupation of Germany. "The Allied government of Germany is going to be military, and the Germans are going to know it is military," declared Gen. Clay.

starved."

Canadian prisoners were "far and away" the best looked after of all prisoners due to the Red Cross, Canadian Legion, Y.M.C.A., Canada House in London, and the regimental associations.

Col. Merritt had been wounded in the shoulder at Dieppe, but he has since recovered. German medical services were "very good," and he had no complaint on that score.

Escaped Once

He escaped once during his imprisonment and was free for three days before being recaptured. Sixty-five others were recaptured at the same time and they were all confined in one room for a period of two weeks as punishment. During his captivity, he was shackled for about eight months.

They were permitted to hear certain news while in camp, but the main story of the war in Europe was not known until he had been released. Sports and sweepstakes on the end of the war, helped the officers in the camp from getting bored, with "home by Christmas," the usual guess as to the end of the war.

The Liberator which brought Col. Merritt to Canada, was piloted by Capt. LVM. (Buddy) Messenger of the British Overseas Airway Corporation, and flew from Britain via Goose Bay, Labrador, a distance of 3,280 miles in 14 hours and 10 minutes.

Hitler Threw Fit Over F. D. R's Death

PARIS, May 17 — (AP) —Adolf Hitler went into a fit of hysteria when the news of President Roosevelt's death reached him in his underground chamber of the chancellery in Berlin at midnight, April 12, his former secretary said in an interview with the daily Liberation.

The secretary, Gerhardt Herrgesell, said Hitler had presided over the usual night conference and stretched out on a divan after the other German leaders had departed.

"Suddenly Lorenz, one of the press chiefs, burst into the chamber without knocking and ran across the room," Herrgesell said. "He held a D.N.B. bulletin in his hand and cried out: 'Fuehrer, great news. Roosevelt is dead.'

"Hitler leaped to his feet, grabbed the bulletin from Lorenz's hands violently and suddenly flamed with a queer fire. His expression was maniacal. Then he began to laugh. It was hideous. He walked up and down the room waving his arms and laughing. The room echoed with crazy laughter.

"Suddenly he stopped laughing. Then a spasm of laughter gripped him again and he threw himself around the room, laughing and repeating, 'I knew it, I knew it.'"

Nobody ever saw Hitler smile again, the secretary said.

Says All Canadian NavalLossesRevealed

OTTAWA, May 17—(CP) — A Navy spokesman said here today that with announcement Wednesday of the loss of the destroyer Skeena all Canadian naval losses to date now have been disclosed.

The Navy also has no further announcements of sea successes against U-boats to be announced—unless there are more surrenders.

Both losses and successes were usually held up for security purposes for some weeks.

In the case of a loss, this plan was followed to force the lurking U-boat to report its success and thus get a line on its location. In the case of a success against a U-boat, the primary motive for withholding the news was to prevent the location of the attacking ship from being given to the enemy.

Probe Status Of Doenitz As War Criminal

By ALEX SINGLETON

LONDON, May 17—(AP) — Foreign Secretary Eden disclosed today that Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz—Hitler's successor branded by Moscow as a war criminal—was "under investigation" and "according to newspaper reports" had been arrested.

His statement came in the House of Commons as both the British and Russian press were clamoring for swift trial of war criminals and demanding that either individually or collectively the German General Staff be tried along with Nazi gangsters.

A War Crimes Commission official said a decision on what to do with the German military hierarchy probably would be reached at the Commission's conference here May 31.

As history's biggest manhunt for notorious Nazis was pressed from Norway to the Bavarian Alps, the official said the United Nations blacklist of major German war criminals was just about complete.

Mr. Eden also told Commons he hoped swift justice would be meted out to Hermann Goering — described by a questioner as "that loathsome criminal."

Ribbentrop, Heinrich Himmler and jew-baiter Julius Streicher were the objects of a search in southern Bavaria and Austria so intense that even American generals of divisions were taking a personal part.

The territory is considered promising since it has yielded up such top-rung Nazis as Goering and the notorious Dr. Robert Ley, German Labor Czar and organizer of the "Werewolf Movement" whose capture was announced only Wednesday.

Today the hunters flushed from that mountainous region Lt.-Col. Otto Skorzeny, six foot, four-inch S.S. trooper who led the German raiding party that freed Mussolini in 1943 after he was arrested in Rome following the fall of his government.

Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion, was reported arrested by British forces in Hamburg for his activities as a Nazi.

Almost 1,000 Lost When Bomb Hits U. S. Carrier

Alvin S. McCoy of the Kansas City Star, only correspondent aboard the United States aircraft carrier Franklin, describes how it made port after being damaged by Japanese air attack March 19, 63 miles off the coast of Japan.)

By ALVIN S. McCOY

Distributed by the Canadian Press

SOMEWHERE IN THE PACIFIC, March 19 — (Delayed) — Japanese bombs struck the huge Essex class carrier, the U.S.S. Franklin, March 19 off the southern coast of Japan causing one of the most appalling losses of lives in American naval history when the carrier's own bombs and 100 octane gasoline blasted the ship for hours.

(The Navy announced in Washington that the repair job is being done at the Brooklyn, N.Y., Navy Yard, and broke down the casualties into 341 dead, 431 missing and more than 300 wounded).

Scenes of indescribable horror took place on the flat top, a ship almost as long as three city blocks. Men were blown off the flight deck into the sea, burned to a crisp in a searing, white-hot flash of flame that swept the hangar deck, or trapped in compartments below and suffocated by smoke. Scores drowned in the sea.

I was the only war correspondent aboard, a dazed survivor of the holocaust because I was below decks at breakfast at the time in an area that was unhit.

A Naval Epic

The rescue of the crippled carrier, towed flaming and smoking from the very shores of Japan, and the saving of more than 800 men, fished out of the sea by protecting cruisers and destroyers will be an epic of naval warfare.

The carrier was all but abandoned, although the "abandon ship" order never was given. The air group and about 1,500 of the crew were sent to the U.S.S. Santa Fe, a light cruiser, which came alongside or were picked out of the sea. A skeleton crew of some 690 remained aboard to try to save the ship, as it listed nearly 20 degrees. The Franklin's planes already aloft alighted safely on other carriers.

Own Bombs Cause Havoc

It was her own destructive bombs and rockets, loaded on planes and decks for a strike against Japan that created havoc. The Jap plane sneaked in, swept across the deck, and launched its bombs at the precise moment when they could cause the most destruction.

The bombs crashed through the flight deck forward of the "island" and exploded on the hangar deck below, and wrecking the forward elevator. Another big hole was just aft of the "island" structure.

The initial blast set fire to gasoline and some 22 more planes on the hangar deck below, each gassed and armed with bombs and rockets. Instantly the hangar deck became a raging inferno, snuffing out the lives of virtually every man on the planes. Bombs and rockets exploded with shattering blasts.

Fifteen minutes after there was another series of heavy explosions that jarred the carrier to her keel. Planes on the flight deck blew up some minutes after the bomb hit, sending rockets arching off the deck like a giant fireworks display.

Below decks hundreds of crew members were locked in watertight compartments, the doors being slammed shut instantly when the ship was hit. Dense suffocating smoke filled many compartments. Many died from want of air. A great many more were led to safety by courageous members of the crew wearing rescue breathers. Lines of men crawled on hands and knees through smoke filled compartments below decks to find egress at some welcome scuttle.

Probe Killing By Nine Dogs

MIAMI, Fla., May 17 — (AP) — Federal, state and county investigations were launched today into the death of Mrs. Doretta Zinke, 39-year-old lecturer, explorer and war plant worker, who died within 90 minutes after a mass attack by nine bull terriers.

Joe Munn, 43, of Hialeah, owner of the dogs, was subjected to lengthy questioning in the Dade County jail where he is being held on a charge of manslaughter.

Mrs. Zinke, whose husband is said to live on Long Island, N.Y. retained consciousness long enough to dictate a will leaving everything to her son, Sgt. R.M. Zinke, stationed at Mitchell Field, N.Y. Constable W.M. Hudson of Dade County said he had found stocks and bonds worth at least $20,000 among the woman's possession.

Moneybag "Catch" Game Has Sequel

NEW YORK, May 17 — (CP)— Andrew Fox, 52, was rushing to catch a train when an unidentified girl thrust upon him a cashbag containing $1,050.

"I'm in a hurry," the girl told him. "You take care of this. See that the owner gets it back."

The cashbag had been thrown from the sixth-floor window of a Brooklyn finance company where two girl clerks were playing "catch" with it. The girl on the street caught the bag as it hurtled through the air, gave it to Fox and disappeared.

Fox took the money to his Montauk, N.Y., home, telephoned a bank and it was safely deposited late today.
