THE RIGHT THING.

A New Caterrh Cure, Which is Rapidly Coming to the Front.

For several years, Eucalypol, Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together, with other antiseptic into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N Y., says: When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50c. box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and I am glad to say that they have done wonders for me and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing.

Mr. Geo. J. Casonova of hotel Griffon West 9th street, New York City writes: I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they have given me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried.

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drug.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50c. for full sized package and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of catarrh.

Sign of the Big Watch

DEDICATED TO COMPANY G.

(By Mrs. D. McLean.)

Sound the cymbals, beat the drum,
Our boys are coming one by one,
They responded nobly to duty's call,
They were ready, each one, to stand or fall.

When we bade farewell to Company G
We believed they'd never flinch nor flee,
And that trust in our boys was never betrayed;
To the front, first and last, our boys they stayed.

On the long, weary marches o'er Africa's veldt,
They proved themselves equal to the best trained Celt,
And the second best march on record, we're told,
Was the march to Paardeberg by our heroes bold.

On that famous march we rejoiced to see
Not a man fell out of Company G.
Why wonder then that these men should
March boldly where Africa's "Lion" stood.

And perform such a deed; future story will tell
To unborn generations how our boys did well,
Of their coolness, their bravery, under leaden rain,
Then, why wonder, we welcome them back again?
While ws raise the flags for the heroes returned,
Let us leave some half-mast for the heroes mourned,
For some of the bravest who went that day
Now sleep their last sleep on the veldt far away.
They fought like heroes, they died like men;
Their memories, ever green, in our hearts will remain.
Over yonder, they're waiting comrade, for thee,
To be re-united to Company G.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.

Prince Edward's Isle! Prince Edward's Isle,
Becalmed and "anchored on the wave,"
Thou did'st a roamer's heart beguile,
Return affection we do crave!

Jacques Cartier named the Isle St. Jean
While voyaging from his sunny France;
But courted first by bold Champlain,
Who broke for thee the Micmac lance.

Still later Britain wooed thee fast
With cruel sword by land and sea,
And made thee wed a lonely past!
To present weal so blithe and free.

In this fair garden of the Straits—
Northumberland—thy hardy sons
Have planted homes where fortune waits
To crown the most industrious ones.

Where man and wife may till the ground
That red, like blood, will feed the veins
'Till teeming multitudes abound,
Midst common wealth and rip'ning grains.

Sons prodigal—and loath to wean—
Afar descry their mother land,
As robed in light and evergreen.
She waits to clasp the filial hand.

What landscapes greet the loving eye
Where undulating meadows roll,
And memories that never die
Come back to people earth and soul!

And those who never leave the nest
May well content themselves in peace;
No country gives the mind such rest,
Your Island home is life's release!
