P.E. ISLAND SEALING

An Exciting Time at Park Corner.

100 SEALS SECURED.

Ice Drifted Seaward And on it an Innumerable Number of Seals.

Last Wednesday night and Thursday morning was an exciting time at New London and Park Corner. The ice had drifted shoreward and on it seals innumerable. The inhabitants turned out to give the seals a reception and succeeded in capturing about 100 in all. There was a fierce gale blowing at the time otherwise many more would have been caught. Some of those taken were good ones, many of them weighing 300 lbs each.
