THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all. This is St Valentine's Day.

Dr. Allison, Sackville, has been ill for the past few days.

The Wesleyan in the Mission Room receipts acknowledges $30 from Cornwall, P. E. I.

R. I. Brown, City, returns this afternoon after spending Sunday in Stanley Bridge.

Rev J. W. Aikens has contributed to The Wesleyan an article on the work of Herbert Booth while in America.

All readers, when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

The Guardian did not receive its usual telegram regarding the New York Stock Quotations and Chicago Markets this morning.

During January Dr Heartz, Halifax, formerly of this City assisted in Methodist Circles in Digby, and different parts of Nova Scotia.

Saturday's storm did not seriously interfere with the movements of the trains. The incoming freight from Summerside was slightly delayed but otherwise there was no inconvenience.

A lively robin was observed Saturday on a tree in front of the Misses Fennessy's residence on Fitzroy Street. Unmindful of the storm the bird was chirping gaily but it is doubtful whether the height of its spirits could be judged by the high key of its tune.

The funeral of the late Mrs James Pickard, Royalty, took place Friday afternoon to the People's Cemetery. Rev W. Harrison officiated at the house and grave. The following were the pallbearers: George Simmonds, John Enman, L. McCallum, Maurice Blake, A. Dollar, A. E. McDougall.

The Earl Grey Saturday left this port for Picton, and on the way over met with considerable ice and was delayed a great deal by thick weather. She arrived in Picton at 1.15. The Minto crossed to Georgetown and arrived there at ten o'clock. The special train arrived in this city at one-twenty.

Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 134 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further inquiries can be made by ringing as above.

On Wednesday evening, Feb 9th, Kingston Star Division S. of T. paid a fraternal visit to Triumph Division, North Wiltshire. There were a goodly number present and the hall was packed. After the business of the evening was transacted by the members of Triumph, which included the initiation of five candidates. Geo Crews W. P. of Kingston Star took the chair and the members of Kingston entertained the meeting with the following excellent program. Chorus by choir, reading—Fidess, White; recitation—Ida McDougall, Music—Preston Warren (encored); recitation—Helen Newson, recitation—Clara Newson (encored); song—Everett Stevenson, (encored); dialogue—Entertaining Sister's Beau; instrumental music—Oliver Tremere; recitation—Charlie Larter (encored); dialogue, duet and chorus. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the visiting members. The sisters of Triumph then treated the visitors with refreshments, and were rewarded by a vote of thanks also, a wish was expressed that Triumph Division should repay the visit at some future time.
