NICHOLS STICKS TO CONFESSION.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 4—Seth T. Nichols, the sailor who insists that he killed Dr. Helen Knabe of Indianapolis on October 24 by cutting her throat, declared today that he would give the police still further details of the tragedy after he had "a good sleep."

"What have you to tell?" asked the sheriff.

"I will go to your office and tell you something that nobody has heard," he replied. "I have not given you half of it. I will tell you who was there and just who took part in the murder."

The sheriff says that Nichols talks as rationally as any man. County Solicitor Ernest L. Guptill says in case the police at Indianapolis do not take Nichols he will not interfere with the Boston police in the matter of taking him to Massachusetts and that Inspector Watts can have him any time, as there is no serious charge hanging over him there.

Captain Holz of the detective force at Indianapolis, in a long letter to the chief of police of this city today, requests that the officers here continue the case of Nichols.

"We are still holding the warrant charging John Doe with the crime and want every detail in connection with the life of Nichols," says the Indianapolis captain. "If anything he says will connect him in the least way with this crime, we want him."

When told that the commanding officer of the U. S. S. Dixie, now at Pensacola, said his story was false about being away from the vessel on that date, he said:

"The officer has no way of telling whether I was away or not, as the ship's writer had me marked on board the fifteen days I was absent."

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 4—Seth Nichols, merely imagined that he murdered Helen Knabe at Indianapolis last October, according to his own admission to the jailer at the Rockingham county jail here today. Nichols said that he had been laboring under a great mental strain, due to the death of his wife. He had read all the details of Dr. Knabe's death and was so familiar with the story of the crime that he honestly believed that he had slain the woman and was sincere when he made his sensational but untrue confession to the local police last Monday.

MRS. GRACE FEARS LOSS OF HER MIND.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 4—Daisy Opie Grace is suffering a pain more keen than a knife blade can inflict and it is wearing her away, according to statements made by her in an interview today.

Every second she is waiting for the news that the man she loved has passed to the beyond, and the man who brings the tidings will also bring the command that she must once more enter a prison cell accused as his assassin.

She granted an interview in her room in the secluded house in an Atlanta suburb to which she was taken from the hotel. Her room is simply furnished. Books and magazines are piled about her, but she cannot read. A Bible is by her elbow. She was robed in a dark blue kimono, relieved with white embroidery. Her dark, wavy hair was carefully dressed. A massive gold bracelet on her shapely left arm was the only jewel she wore.

"I have never believed that Mr. Grace would die," she said, "but now the doctors seem so certain that every second the dread is with me. I have not known a moment's peace since the day I came from Neuman to hear that I had been accused. It's too terrible to speak of. It's killing me. I can't read. I can't talk. I can't even listen. I can't even sleep. I'm sick—oh, so sick!

"I believe I will lose my mind. In fact, I believe I am losing it. I can think of but one thing. I can read only of my case, and then I have to lie here and think, think, think.

"'Tis better to be here than in a hotel or in the Tower. I guess I'll be in the Tower by this time next week.

"Sunshine is what I need now. I believe if I could get plenty of it I would get well, but I can't get it even out here, people stare at me so. You see how pale I am?" she asked. "Well I used to have a fine color, but it's all gone now. It's from being kept close in this room. Oh, I wish people would let me alone so that I could go out once more."

As her visitor left Mrs. Grace almost sobbed: "I suppose you will next see me in the Tower, but I will not live long there. Death will be relief."

Advices from Neuman report Grace growing weaker. Doctors say death may come at any moment.

LABORERS WANTED IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, April 6—Montreal is at present in the throes of an unskilled laborer's famine, according to a statement made by the Road Department Officials yesterday.

The fear is expressed that it will be difficulty to secure men to carry on the extensive road making program mapped out for the coming summer. In spite of the of the fact that the wages paid by the City for unskilled labor is 21 cents per hour, men to earn the wage do not seem to be forthcoming and City Surveyor Barlow's advertisements, repeatedly inserted in the press, have been almost useless.

MORSE HOPES TO SAVE RICHESON.

BOSTON, April 4—Attorney William A. Morse announced today that the petition he is to present to Governor Foss asking for the commutation of the sentence of Clarence V.T. Richeson, condemned to die during the week beginning May 19 for the murder of Avis Linnell, would be submitted to the Governor the latter part of this month.

Attorney John L. Lee of Virginia, senior counsel for Richeson, is expected to reach Boston within the next few days to assist in the fight to save Richeson's life. Both Morse and Lee are confident Governor Foss will never permit Richeson to die in the electric chair.

Richeson has improved in health during the past month. He has grown stouter. It is believed he is resigned to his fate, for he has stopped talking about his case to Butts, his cell mate. Richeson's gain in health is a surprise to his jailers, who expected he would brood over his impending fate until he wasted into a physical wreck.

ALLAN LINE STEWARD ARRESTED AT HALIFAX, CHARGED WITH THEFT

HALIFAX, N. S., April 4—John Henderson, second steward of the Allan steamship Scandinavian, was arrested today on suspicion of stealing over 92,000 from the ship's passengers. It is alleged he obtained money under false pretences, saying the purser had commissioned him to collect English currency from the passengers to be exchanged for Canadian money. When arrested Henderson was in Dartmouth disguised. He admitted that he had stolen the money.

286 IN JUST ONE WOMAN'S FAMILY.

BOSTON, April 3—Mrs. Rhoda J. Swift, aged 70, of Cedarville, has so many relatives that she cannot count them. She took a pencil and pad and tried to figure them out. She got up to 270 and then found she had forgotten some. Again she took up the task and this time figured up about 280, but was not satisfied, and another version brings the figures up to 286.

Mrs. Swift still believes that she has a few more relatives somewhere in New England, but is content to leave 286 as a certainty.

According to her figures Mrs. Swift is aunt of 139, great-aunt of 79, great great-aunt of 52, grandmother of 6, sister of 4, mother of 3 and sister-in-law of three.

"Can I remember the names of all of them? Well hardly," she said. "I cannot even remember the number of children in the families of my own brothers and sisters and the brothers and sisters of my husband, to say nothing of calling them by name. They live all over New England and of course, with so many relatives it is impossible to keep in touch.

"When you consider that I was one of eighteen children and that the eleven who lived to attain their majority all married, and that my husband was one of eleven children, all of whom married and had children, twenty-two couples in all, you can easily see the magnitude of the proposition to keep in mind all the names.

"No," continued Mrs. Swift, "I do not attempt to remember them all at Christmas or on their birthdays. It is hard enough to remember my own children and their children and my four brothers."

Mrs. Swift married at the age of seventeen. At the time of the civil war her seven living brothers, one of whom is Prez Vaughn, of this city, entered the Union army, as did two of her husband's brothers. None were killed and only one injured.

The families were so large on both her own side and that of her husband's, practically all of them living in the same town, that marriages came pretty fast, Mrs. Swift says, but there was never any conflict of dates.

"SALT RHEUM"

Had It On Hands For Two Years.

ITCHED SO DID NOT KNOW WHAT TO DO.

Tried Three Doctors and Went to Hospital.

All skin diseases are more or less occasioned by a bad state of the blood, and no one can expect to be free from some form or other of skin trouble unless the blood is kept in good shape. All skin diseases can be very easily cured by the wonderful blood cleansing properties of Burdock Blood Bitters.

This is due to the unrivalled purifying action of Burdock Blood Bitters on the blood, coupled with the thorough manner in which it cleanses and expels the impurities from the body.

Mrs. Richard Coutine, White Head, Que., writes:—"I have been bothered with salt rheum, on my hands, for two years, and it itched so I did not know what to do. I tried three doctors, and even went to Montreal to the hospital without getting any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got three bottles, and before I had the second used I found a big change, and now to-day I am cured."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for about 35 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

MILLS HARD HIT BY POPULAR "TUBE" SKIRT

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Twelve yards of cotton goods for every woman in the civilized world is the price the cotton interests of the world have paid for the "tube" skirt and its accompanying lack of undergarments, according to George W. Neville, president of the New York Cotton Exchange, who addressed the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association. Mr. Neville was applauded when he announced that the "moulders" of feminine fashions have now decreed that the ladies shall wear more yards of cloth in their garments.

"One of my friends of a mathematical mind figured the scanty attire of the fair sex cut out at least twelve yards of finished goods per adult female inhabitant of the civilized world," said Mr. Neville, "and this scant attire cut a very large figure and was a contributing factor to the small demand for finished goods the past two years."

I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. MANY IMMIGRANTS ARRIVE AT HALIFAX

HALIFAX, April 2—The new steamship Caithness arrived tonight from Glasgow from which point she sailed twenty-six days ago for Philadelphia and the River Platte. Her trip was very stormy and the steamship put in short of coal.

The Russian-East Asiatic steamship Estonia arrived this evening from Libau with 1,000 passengers, of these 220 are for Canada, who disembarked here, the remainder proceeding with the steamer to New York.

The Allan liner Scandinavian brought 988 passengers today from Glasgow, of whom 736 are for Canada, and landed here. The others proceed with the steamer to Boston. The Scandinavian was formerly the Romanic, of the White Star line, and previously to that was the New England, of the Dominion line.

FOX NOTES.

Nicholas Arsenault, Duvar Road, is a lucky man. Last Tuesday morning on visiting his traps, he found in one a fine lady fox. Now a fox, especially one of the feminine variety whether she be black, red, green or pink, is a prize to gladden the heart of man. Consequently Mr. Arsenault was highly elated at his piece of good fortune. Taking her home he gave her a position of honor in a dry goods box. Thursday morning on going to feed his fox what was his surprise to find that "Her Ladyship," probably actuated by philanthropic motives toward her new owner, had brought to the light of day three young ones. That evening along came two more, making a litter of five. Up to the present we do not know whether her gift of gratitude has been fully paid. If she is well used perhaps she may present one or two more. Isn't it too bad we cannot all buy twenty-five cent traps and run up against something like that?—Pioneer.
