meeting of the Ladies' College Alumnae Society. Various business matters were transacted, and a Board of Representatives was elected to the Board of Regents as follows: Mrs. Andrews, wife of Professor Andrews, was elected President of the Society for the ensuing year, with Mrs. Crowell, of Halifax, and Mrs. Clifford Robinson first and second Vice Presidents respectively. Miss Annie Treman was made Auditor. Mrs. Ralph Brecken and Mrs. Howard Sprague were elected a Board of Representatives to the Board of Regents, and other matters of business were transacted. Members of the Society were present from different parts of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. The social event of the season took place this evening when the entire ground floor to the Ladies' College was thrown open for a grand reception. About four hundred guests were present and the gathering was a brilliant one. Many of the ladies wore elaborate toilettes, and the contrast of these with the simple garments of the bright young girls was very effective and of equal advantage to both matron and maid. The entire evening was one of great pleasure to the students of this and those of former years, who enjoyed a reunion with old class mates. Dr. and Mrs. Borden filled the position of host and hostess in their usual happy manner. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Sackville band. The following are present from P. E. I. Misses Moore and Mellish, Mrs. and Miss Poole, Mrs. Goff, Mrs. and Miss Lodge of Charlottetown; Misses Rice and Matthew, from Souris, and Miss Strong from Summerside. SACKVILLE, N. B., May 27.—At the Methodist Church this morning Rev. W. A. Langille, of Horton, N.S., preached the annual sermon before the Theological Union. The choir, under the able direction of Miss Sprague, rendered special anthems, and Miss Jennie Hamilton, of Pictou, whose fine voice is known in both Provinces, sang "A Dream of Paradise" in a remarkable manner. A farewell meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was conducted in Memorial Hall in the afternoon, but the chief service of the day was held at the Methodist Church this evening, when the Rev. Wm. Dobson, of Halifax, delivered the Baccalaureate sermon. The reverend gentleman's discourse was one of intense interest to all his hearers, and every word went straight to the hearts of the students.
