OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

Mr. Gus Flynn, Sydney, C. B., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Strickland. It is ten years since Mr. Flynn visited here.

—It is pleasing to report that Miss Ethel Irving of Alberton is doing nicely after her recent operation in the Prince County Hospital.—S.

Private C. W. Pat DeRoche of the R.C.A.M.C., is confined to the hospital at Camp Borden, suffering from a severe foot affliction. Pte. DeRoche is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeRoche, Wheatley River.

—DOING NICELY — The St. Eleanors friends of Miss Louise Compton are delighted to know that her operation in P. E. Island Hospital was a success. She is now at home on Prince Street, Charlottetown and is tenderly cared for by her mother, Mrs. Frederick Compton.

—ENJOYABLE DANCE — The weekly Legion Dance was held on Friday and was most enjoyable. Mrs. George Callbeck and Mrs. Bert Johnson were the hostesses. Miss Areta Gamble and Miss Nora Enman furnished the music. A number of the visitors from Charlottetown were in and enjoyed the dance.—S.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN ALBERTON CITIZEN — The death occurred at the home of his son, Arthur, Alberton, on Saturday, February 21st, 1942, of Mr. Christopher Wright, in his 86th year. He leaves to mourn his son, Arthur, with whom he lived, two daughters, Ethel, Mrs. Arthur Hardy, Montrose, and Mabel, Mrs. J. Lester Douglas, of Charlottetown, also several grandchildren.

FIRE YESTERDAY —Fire, which broke out shortly after five o'clock last evening, badly damaged a shack on the old Connolly Wharf. The firemen were on the scene a few minutes after receiving the alarm and were able to extinguish the blaze before it had destroyed the small building. Chief Angus McEachern said last night that the origin of the fire had not been determined but it is believed to have been caused by some children playing with matches.

At 7 p. m. January 22nd, 1942, as a beautiful day was ebbing to its close, a faithful soul had taken its flight heavenward. After several months of declining health at home and at the Montague hospital, and despite all that medical skill could devise and tender nursing achieve death had removed one of Peter's Road residents, in the person of Mrs. Samuel Davidson.

The late Mrs. Davidson had been twice married. In the year 1893, she was united in wedlock to Mr. Fulford Griffith, of Montague, P. E. I. Of this union there were three sons and one daughter, namely: Ivan, Arthur, Alfred and Mae. Alfred predeceased her in 1939.

The second marriage occurred in 1924, when she became the wife of Mr. Samuel Davidson of Peter's Road.

R.C.A.F. RECRUITING —Over 75 inquiries were received during the visit of the Royal Canadian Air Force mobile recruiting unit to this province Thursday, Friday and Saturday. In addition to this there were many inquiries for admittance to the Air Force from "R" recruits of No. 62 C.A.B.T. at Beach Grove. In this group many were found suitable for training as aero engine and airframe mechanics and wireless operators, ground. Sixteen applications for admittance to the Women's Division of the R.C.A.F. were received from 25 inquiries. About 40 men were interviewed, most of whom submitted applications. Flying Officer T.A.K. Fletcher, Moncton, says there is still a great need for men with Grade nine education to undergo pre-enlistment training in science and mathematics to fit them for aircrew enlistment.

Paardeberg Sunday was fittingly observed in Charlottetown yesterday when members of the South African War Veteran's Association paraded in a body to St. Peter's Cathedral and attended a memorial service conducted by Canon E. M. Malone. Only half the remaining 14 veterans of the Boer War in the province turned out for the parade.

Members of the Canadian Legion and a detachment of soldiers from No. 62 C.A.B.T.C. accompanied by their band, also took part in the parade which was in charge of Mr. William Warren, one of the South African veterans.

A monument on Queen's Square commemorates the battle of Paardeberg and bears the names of two Charlottetown boys who sacrificed their lives in the Boer War. Roland Taylor was killed in action on Feb. 18, the opening day of this decisive battle and his comrade, Alfred Riggs, on the closing day. A delegation of the veterans attending yesterday's service proceeded to the monument immediately after and with appropriate ceremony placed a wreath in honor of their fallen comrades.

His second wife, (nee Mary Doiron) and three children, Louise, Andre and Urbain at home, survive him.

OTTAWA, Feb. 23—(CP)—Salvage of the car ferry Charlottetown which sank June 18, 1941, is not considered practical, Conservative House leader Hanson was informed today in a return tabled in the House of Commons in an answer to a question.

Insurance amounting to $995,000 was turned over to the Dominion Government, less $11,193 paid the Canadian National Railways for capital expenditures on the vessel, the return said.

Consideration was being given the building of a new ferry to replace the Charlottetown but the diversion of steel and labor from wartime industry was said to be "a matter requiring most careful consideration."

COURT AT GEORGETOWN — The February term of the Supreme Court is scheduled to be held in Georgetown today. There are no criminal cases before the Court nor are there any civil Jury or other cases to be tried. Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault will preside. ENDORSE FERRY RESOLUTION — The Eastern Board of Trade, with headquarters at Souris, recently sent a letter to Prime Minister King endorsing the resolution of the Charlottetown Board re the need of replacing or salvaging the car ferry S.S. "Charlottetown." The Eastern Board told the Prime Minister of its "increasing uneasiness concerning the car ferry service" and pointed out "with ordinary water transportation to and from this province suspended—owing to ice and weather conditions—between the last half of December and the last half of April all traffic is bottle-necked at Borden and Tormentine during this period and the ferry services are, this winter, being proven entirely inadequate." The letter also said that the present service, in operation for seven months, is still without her boilers converted from coal to oil. "It is also generally conceded that, owing to age and the severe work done in the previous seasons by this steamer, it is unsafe to force her too strenuously through the ice." In conclusion it urged "immediate action be taken to provide a suitable steamer."

—Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Lockhart were recent visitors to Moncton, N. B.—S.

Mr. Norman Jay who recently returned from Halifax is spending some time at his home here.

MRS. PATRICK MOONEY

There passed away at the Sacred Heart Home on January 25th, Mrs. May A. Mooney, beloved wife of Patrick Mooney, Peakes Station. The late Mrs. Mooney was born on Sparrow's Road, the daughter of the late Michael Evens and May Byrne, where she spent her girlhood days until her marriage to Patrick Mooney, of Peakes Station, St. Teresas.

There passed peacefully away in the early hours of December 4, 1941, Mrs. John J. Stewart of High Bank, aged 64 years.

Although the deceased had been in failing health for the past four years her sudden death came as a great shock to her family and friends.

The late Mrs. Stewart was formerly Mary A. MacLeod. She was born in Glen William, September 10th, 1877, daughter of the late Sarah Bruce and Roderick MacLeod.

The people of Cumberland Hill and surrounding districts were greatly saddened when they learned of the sudden passing on December 4th ,1941 of Sara MacLeod at the early age of 28 years. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. MacLeod, and two and a half years ago she became ill and was taken to the P. E. I. Hospital where she remained for two and a half months, where all that medical skill was done for her and she returned home and her many friends thought she was well on the road to recovery but two weeks before her passing she became critically ill and on the above date her gentle spirit took its flight to her God who gave it.

ADDRESSES Y'S MEN — Lt. Col. F. I. Andrew, M. M., Officer Commanding No. 62 Canadian Army Basic Training Centre, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Charlottetown Y's Men's Club last evening. He gave an interesting outline of the life of the ordinary soldier and the work carried on at the Training Centre. The speaker referred to the large number of young men who had left Beach Grove for service elsewhere in Canada. About 50 per cent of these were from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and Colonel Andrew regretted that not many of these boys had been invited to the homes of citizens during their stay here. At the conclusion of the address, a vote of thanks moved by Mr. Reuel LePage and seconded by Mr. G. Avard, was tendered the speaker. Lt. Col. E. W. Johnston was the chairman.

—SAD NEWS RECEIVED —Mr. N. J. MacNeill received a telegram on Wednesday morning stating that his sister, Mary, Mrs. Daniel Sullivan had passed away the night before, February 24th at her home in Allston, Mass. Mrs. Sullivan had resided for many years in the United States. She had not been in good health for some time and had suffered from heart trouble. She was married twice. Her first husband was the late Michael McGurk of Clinton, P.E.I. From this marriage six sons are left to mourn, Leon, William, Harold, Emmett and Gordon all residing near Allston, Mass., and Rev. E. S. McGurk, C.S.S.R. of the Mission Church at Roxbury, Mass. Her second husband survives her. Also two sisters, Mrs. Joseph McInnis of Franklin, Mass., and Mrs. Annie Baker of Kensington, P. E. I. and one brother, Mr. N. J. MacNeill, New Annan. The late Mrs. Sullivan will be kindly remembered by her many Island friends who will learn with much regret of her passing.—S.

Mr. Alexander Deegan, one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of Cape Traverse, passed away on Thursday afternoon February 26th, at the age of 85 years. A member of one of the pioneer families of the district, his passing severs a link with the past. He lived all his life in Cape Traverse, where he was respected for his sterling worth and fine principles.

A gentleman of the old school, his word was his bond and the influence of his personality will be greatly missed in the community. Although of a retiring nature, he figured in all endeavors for the good of the community being active until shortly before his death. It can truly be said of him that he never harmed his neighbor by word or deed and he never missed an opportunity to assist a friend.

In his passing Cape Traverse and the county loses one of its finest citizens. Besides his sorrowing wife, the following children are left to mourn: John, of Carleton; Frank, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. James A. Murphy, Emerald; Mrs. Andrew Hughes, Summerfield; Mrs. J P. MacInnis, Summerside; Mrs. John Lawless, Saint John, N. B.; Alice and Edward at home. One son Patrick was killed in action in the last Great War. A sister, Mrs. Charles Cameron, Albany, also survives. The funeral takes place on Saturday morning at nine o'clock from his late residence to Seven Mile Bay Church.—S

The death occurred at the General Hospital in Powell River, B. C., on February 23, of Robert Henry Campbell. Born at Montague, P. E. I. in 1863, he took, for many years, a prominent place in the educational, military and fraternal activities of his native province. For ten years he was principal of the Summerside High School, then for a similar period, of West Kent School in Charlottetown, leaving that position in 1913 to become Superintendent of Education for the province. He was granted leave of absence during the first World War, raised, and as the commanding officer, took overseas the 105th. Highlanders. When this unit was turned into a re-inforcing battalion he reverted to the rank of Captain and served throughout the rest of the war with the Royal Canadian Engineers.

His wife, the former Ella J. Bulpitt of Roseneath P. E. I. predeceased him by over a year.

Surviving are one brother, Mr. Josiah Campbell of Montague, P. E. I.; two sons, George at Ladner B. C. and Ernest of Powell River; four daughters, Mrs. W. R. Wiggins of Red Willow, Alberta, Mrs. R. A. Baker, Mrs. E. Profitt and Mrs. N. Cary all of Powell River, also six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
