Clee used up

Miss Ella Wood, of Brownsville, near Woodstock, says:—"I have to thank PSYCHINE for my present health. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I could not sweep the carpet. If I went for a drive I had to lie down when I came back; if I went for a mile or two on my wheel I was too weak to lift it through the gateway, and just time I came in from having a spin I dropped utterly helpless from fatigue. My father gave me no peace until I procured PSYCHINE, knowing it was excellent for debility or weakness. I must say the results are wonderful and people remarked my improvement."

Instead of a little, pale, hollow cheeked, listless, melancholy girl, I am to-day full of life, ready for a sleigh-ride, a skating match, or an evening party with anyone, and a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 40 rods from my home. I have never had the slight symptom to fear any return of the disease." If you are "All used up" and run down you can be built up in a short time by PSYCHINE. It creates rich red blood, revives the appetite and transforms the weak into strong healthy beings.

Send to DR. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, Sorauren Ave., Toronto, for a FREE SAMPLE of the Greatest of Tonics, PSYCHINE, to-day. Sold by druggists at $1.00 and $1.

WE MUST HAVE THE TUNNEL.

From Ottawa comes forth the news;
A new ice-breaker soon we'll use,
Than former ones of larger size;
No better could man's brain devise,
This shows attention has been paid
To our demands for justice made,
And disposition to comply
Somewhat our needs to satisfy.

Needless to say we may expect
A marked improvement in effect
Upon the service that has been
When this new boat comes on the scene,
Yet some may go so far to say;
No longer need we fret a day,
For with this one we need not fean
An interrupted service near;
Our freight not now need be delayed,
No mails nor passengers be stayed.

To such we say: Your memory revive,
Consider winter nineteen five.
What happened then too well we know,
On that should all some thought bestow.
From such experience we believe,
Despite what may this boat achieve,
Yea more, with reason we aver
Another failure will occur.

Suppose success we shall allow
Or ere 'tis proved the like avow,
How stand we then? our freight you know
Three hauls it still must undergo,
And still excessive rates be paid
For privilege of foreign trade.
Of profits made a portion large
Is eaten up to pay the charge;
And hence without a lessened rate
Would last dissatisfaction great.

Behold a transformation grand
Would be produced you understand,
If once the Tunnel we but had;
'Tis this would makes us all feel glad.
We never shall be satisfied
Until this favor is supplied
Our right to it gainsay will none,
Nor that of justice would be done

A simple act to grant the boon,
And that it should be granted soon.
Then placed upon equality,
And having same facility,
Our natural products to export,
The better foreign trade to court,
To do as good a business
As that of sister provinces,
We'd have no reason to complain;
And satisfaction then would reign.
So friends if such we must secure,
And also prosperity ensure,
'Tis not the present system then
That can we know attain that end.
But ah! the Tunnel would direct
The only means of all whereby
We confidently could rely,
Must surely have desired effect.
A means that can accomplished be
With moderate cost exceedingly.
Yet friends the Tunnel have must we.

GRANNIE'S GIRLHOOD.

When Grannie was a' girl like me her frocks she never tore,
And never spilt the ink all down her clean white pinafore;
She never minded going to bed, and never got up late,
And never made grimaces at the food upon her plate;
Her hair was always neatly brushed, and never out of curl—
I'm very glad I wasn't born when Grannie was a girl!

In Grannie's time the little girls were seen, but never heard,
And never dared to interrupt their elders by a word;
They always did as they were told and never murmured "Why?"
They never hid round corners and jumped out at passers-by;
They couldn't field at cricket, and a tree they mustn't climb,
Such things were most unladylike, they said in Grannie's time!

But when I'm old like Grannie, just to make it night and fair,
When my grandchildren ask for tales and gather round my chair,
I'll put my glasses on like this, and shake my head, you know,
And tell them all how good I was in days of long ago;
And when they're cross and naughty, and the nursery's in a whirl,
I'll say, "How different children were when Grannie was a girl!"

Mother Gave Her Child Away.

Had Given up all Hope of Living. Heart Trouble was Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Sawyer, Gretton's, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905 I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling my better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well, and have not been sick since then.

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."

Price 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A TRIBUTE TO FATHER.

Nobody knows of the money it takes
To keep the home together;
Nobody knows of the debt it makes,
Nobody knows but father.

Nobody's told that the boys need shoes
And girls hats with a feather:
Nobody else old clothes must choose,
Nobody—only father,

Nobody hears that the coal and wood
And flour's out together;
Nobody else must make them good,
Nobody—only father.

Nobody's hand in the pocket goes
So often, wondering whether
There's any end to the want of those
Dependent—only father.

Nobody thinks where the money will come,
To pay the bills that gather:
Nobody feels so blue and glum;
Nobody—but father.

Nobody tries so hard to lay
Up something for bad weather,
And runs behind, do what he may,
Nobody—only father.

Nobody comes from the world's cruel storm,
To meet dear ones who gather
Around with loving welcome warm,
Nobody does but father.

Nobody knows of the home life pure,
Watched over by a mother,
Where rest and bliss are all secure,
Nobody can—but father.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any Agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section along side his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties. Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

Excellent materials, careful construction

Sunshine Furnace is designed for extremely low setting, thus giving good elevation to the warm air pipes, which facilitates the egress of heated air through the correct pipes.

Sunshine Furnace has maximum heating capacity so that every unit of strength is extracted from the coal, wood or coke and fully utilized.

Sunshine Furnace has maximum weight, so that as the furnace is set in cement this weight makes it absolutely secure in position.

Sunshine Furnace

is designed to be operated at the front for the simplicity and convenience of the householder, as the following illustrates:—Coal goes in through the main front door (D and C), ash pan comes out the lower front door (G), water is placed in the pan at the top front door (B), direct draft is operated near the water pan door (A), the dust damper near the ash door (F), shaker at lower front door (E).
