BOYS' CLOTHING.

The boys' clothing walks the bargain plank and the low prices have set a lively pace. It does not take much argument on our part to convince mothers of the savings to be made when they once get a look at the goods and learn how little it costs to own them. Our clothes for boys are as good as our clothes for men and that fact speaks volumes as far as quality and style goes. Present prices clinch argument:—Pants for little fellows, 65c, 75c, and 95c. Suits—One table full, half price. Norfolk suits from $2.50 to $5.00. Jas Paton & Co. 5-3dtf.

EDITOR'S MAIL

NOT A SQUARE DEAL.

Sir, it is very strange that fishermen cannot sell a few barrels of fresh herring around the houses, or on the market square without paying toll. Our Mayor and City Councillors will allow the farmers to retail potatoes by the peck, and oats by the bag, without paying toll.

A miller having a few bags of cracked feed as a sample, will go to the market house and take orders for one bag, two bags, or any amount, to be delivered in a few days. He pays toll for the sample bag or two, but not a cent on the loads and loads he delivers around the houses whereas grocers and feed-stores have to pay their tax to the last cent. This is unfair and should be looked into.
