A THRILLING PAGE IN THE LIFE STORY OF A CHORUS GIRL

"They Call It Fate" Shows Behind Curtain Scenes On Broadway

"They Call It Fate" which is now showing at the Capitol Theatre, takes spectators behind the scenes of the Broadway theatrical world and reveals the struggles of the beautiful girl players for success in the face of temptations.

Loretta Young plays the role of a small town Western girl with considerable talent, who is thrown into this glamorous atmosphere of bright lights and night life, not only of the theatre, but of the swanky clubs. How she escapes the nets set for her, and wins fame and love, is one of the most unusual tales presented on the screen this year. It was adapted from the novel by Alberta Sedman Eagan.

George Brent, the popular young Irish actor, plays the featured masculine role. Others in the cast include Una Merkel, David Manners, Helen Vinson, Louise Calhern, Joseph Cawthorne, Nella Walker, Elizabeth Patterson and Erville Alderson.

Three song hits are featured "Where Are You", "You'll Never Lose me", and "Along Came Love."

"Blondie Of The Follies" Sparkling Etertainment

When authors like Frances, Marion and Anita Loos put their resourceful minds together, some sparkling entertainment is bound to result. "Blondie of the Follies," with Marion Davies and Robert Montgomery, which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre, more than sparkles. It scintillates.

It is colorful, it contains moments of comedy that are hilarious, and moments of pathos which are poignant and heart-tugging.

Marion Davies is at her best as the girl from the New York tenements who rises to luxury as a Broadway show girl. Her acting covers a wide range from comedy to emotional drama, and in the latter she reveals surprising talent. Robert Montgomery is the suave ingratiating New York playboy, and invests his role with a touch of irony.

Funny Jimmy Durante

Much should be said, too, for Billie Dove's portrayal of the selfish, vain showgirl who seeks to gloss her East Side origin beneath a Park Avenue affectation. The inimitable Jimmy Durante, James Gleason Zasu Pitts, Sidney Toler, Douglas Dumbrille, Sarah Padden, Louise Carter and Clyde Cook, also deserve particular mention.

CITY SCHOOL CLINICS—That the number of children who turned out to be immunized against diphtheria at the clinics held last week at Rochford Square and West Kent Schools was quite encouraging, is reported by the Department of Health. At West Kent twenty-two school children and thirteen preschools received their first inoculation and at Rochford Square the splendid number of ninety-six pupils and eleven preschools. At the latter clinic two pupils attending Prince Street school and one from Queen Square also reported, and to show how anxious some of the parents and children were to be protected against diphtheria one small girl at the Convent after being inoculated herself hurried home to return with a brother and sister aged one and two years. As three inoculations are necessary, the second one will be given at West Kent the first Friday in January and at Rochford Square the second Friday. It is expected that a clinic also will be started in Queen Square School in January.

The many friends of Mr. Austin Cameron, Augustine Cove, will be pleased to know that he is recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. McCready is being welcomed home from Toronto where she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bearisto for the past several weeks.

SUMMERSIDE and Prince County

—SIGNALLING EXAMS — The signalling examination for the Summerside branch of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders closed last week. Twenty-five signallers took the exams and they all did well, although the results will not be published until the papers are returned from Halifax. —S'SIDE POLICE COURT — Monday was a busy day in the Summerside Police Court. On Monday morning, two prohibition cases were heard, one was dismissed, the other party was fined $200 and costs or 3 months in jail. One drunk was fined $5 and costs or ten days. Three vagrants were before the Court, one, a local man, was given one month in jail and the others, one from Britsih Columbia and one from Saskatchewan, were handed over to the Mounted Police to be sent back to their homes.—S.

—DEATH OF MRS. JAMES RAYNER — The community of Greenmount were grieved to learn of the sudden death last Wednesday at her home there of Mrs. James Rayner, as it was quite unexpected. Mrs. Rayner was a member of the Christian Church and most highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, several sons and daughters, namely, Mrs. Wm. Getson, Kildare Capes; Mrs. Willett Read, Coleman; Mrs. Benj. Thomas, Cascumpec; Mrs. Ephraim Read, in Saskatchewan; Russell and Marshal of Greenmount and Wallace and Miss Helen at home; also two sisters, one in the States and Mrs. B. I. Rayner and one brother, Edward Baker, in South Dakota, to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Saturday from her late residence to the Christian Church burial ground at Greenmount. Rev. W. H. Harding, of Summerside, conducted the service, which was largely attended.—S.

—BRIDE AND GROOM HONORED—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tanton entertained last Friday at their spacious home in St. Eleanors in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Cannon, who were recently married and have taken up their residence in St. Eleanors. The mail carriers of the surrounding districts were guests at the party and presented the happy couple with a lovely chair, a case of silver and a serving tray. Mr. Edward Lockhart was chairman and spoke a few words of congratulation before Dr. Hillard Clark read the address on behalf of the mail carriers and presented the gifts. Mr. Cannon acknowledged the gifts on behalf of himself and his bride. Other useful and dainty articles were received from other guests present. Bridge and music made the evening pass all too quickly until the hostess served a dainty lunch. Mr. Cannon is the very efficient mail carrier for Route R. R. 1 and he and his bride are very popular and are receiving a warm welcome from the St. Eleanors people.—S.
