INFLATION AFFECTS JURYMEN

MONTREAL — (CP) — Because money isn't worth as much as it was a few years ago, absent jurymen were warned by Chief Justice O. S. Tyndale that they might be fined $20 instead of the usual $10.

ARTISTIC INDIVIDUALITY

MONTREAL — (CP) — "The artist is an individual and always will be," Sir Osbert Sitwell, British poet, critic and novelist said here during an interview. The tendency in today's world "for us to be made into ants; the attempt to have everything standardized" is not congenial to the production of good art, he said.

COMBAT POTATO BLIGHT

KENTVILLE, N. S. —(CP) — Tests conducted to produce a variety of blight resistant potato are reported to be satisfactory in Nova Scotia. Some of the test varieties produced from 400 to 600 bushels an acre.

EASY DISHWASHING

In a home when dinner, the heavy meal of the day, has to be served at night for several people, the mother of the family can find washing the dishes rather a tiresome job, coming as it does at the end of her day's work. One such family solved this co-operatively All members of the family carry their dishes to the kitchen after dinner. The youngest member, a son, then finishes clearing the dining-room table and sweeps up crumbs from the floor. Mother goes to the kitchen and scrapes, then stacks the dishes. She also puts away leftovers. The two daughters of the household then take over and wash and dry the dishes. Done in this way, no one feels it much of a chore and it is quickly over. The girls go at it without delay or complaining and the three youngsters are ready for their homework. All have worked together and all can spend the evening in each other's company. — Wilma Grant.
