A generous display of gentlemen's lined winter gloves in kid and mocha at 50 cts 75 cts, $1, $1.25 and $1.75. Fur lined at $2 and $2.25. Driving gauntlet at $1.25 $1.75 and up to $5. Also nice lot of new neckwear for the Xmas trade at Sinclair & Stewart's.

YESTERDAY the harbor was as clear as the summer. The soft weather during the past week has kept navigation open and caused what little snow and ice their was to disappear. There is no sleighing and the roads are so muddy as to be unfit for driving in waggons. A cold wave set in last evening, however, which probably means winter.

Mr. John Jelly, Linkletter Road, met with a severe loss yesterday morning. About 4 o'clock he and his two sons were aroused by the neighbors, who discovered that his barn was in flames. Eight head of cattle and all their hens, besides hay, grain, etc., were destroyed. They had time only to save the horses. The cause of the fire is believed to be of an incendiary origin. Suspicion rests on a man named Daniel Loder who was arrested yesterday evening and placed in Summerside jail.

On Friday evening last, a very enjoyable time was spent at the Rectory, Kensington. The people of St. Mark's church gathered in full force and tendered a surprise party to the Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Winfield. The tables were soon covered with good things. Apart from a sumptuous repast that was spread, Mrs. Winfield's table was not forgotten, geese, chickens, ducks, beef, pork, vegetables, butter, etc., being given. Mrs. Winfield was presented with very fine pieces of china and other articles such as fruit, dishes, etc. Mr. Winfield was also the recipient of useful things; even the stable was not forgotten, as the contents of the oat bin swelled considerably. Games, etc. were indulged in until a late hour. One of the most pleasant evenings was brought to a close by an address from Mr. Winfield who on the behalf of Mrs. Winfield and himself thanked his people for the many acts of kindness shown to them during the past year. He also commended the people of St. Mark's Church on the splendid work done by them this year, also for the love and unity that existed between them and their minister, and earnestly hoped that the spirit of love would ever animate them as now. He also spoke of the glorious history of the church to which they belonged, a church of which they were proud. He warned them not to be carried about by every wind of doctrine as it came from many quarters. Mr. H. Leslie enlivened the evening by an entertainment with his Gramophone. Warden Thompson was very energetic in making things pleasant. The Rev. Mr. Winfield's ministry is much appreciated by the people of the New London Parish.
