MARKET REVIEW FOR JUNE 18, 1931

BRAZILIAN TRACTION LIGHT AND POWER

Shareholders of Brazilian Traction, Light and Power Company, are naturally deeply interested in the present economic position of the Republic of Brazil, where their company operates. Reports from Brazil continue to suggest more favorable financial and business developments in the country that are bound to help the position of this big traction and power organization, in which Canadians are chiefly interested.

There are three big factors where improvements are indicated for Brazil: (1) The Budget has been balanced by the process of cutting down expenditures between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000 from last year, together with increased taxation; (2) For the first three months of the current fiscal year the country showed a favorable balance of trade amounting to, roughly £4,000,000; (3) The report of the economic investigation committee headed by Sir Otto Niemeyer.

It seems clear that arrangements are being made through Sir Otto's committee to continue payment of interest on Brazilian bonds, but to omit sinking fund payments for the present. As the latter are unusually heavy such a move would react as a great relief. It is thought that Brazil will from now on be in a position to gradually build up its heavily depleted gold reserve. According to atest available figures Brazi is practically devoid of god holdings which were estimated on a preliminary basis at only $8,000,000 at the end of January as compared with $15,000,000 in December, $23,000,000 in November, $37,000,000 in October, $65,000,000 in September, $69,000,000 in August, and $80,000,000 in July. The reserve was shown at $139,000,000 in January, 1930, but was reduced to $127,000,000 for the succeeding two months, and to around $90,000,000 in April, May and June of last year. Opinion continues doubtful with regard to possible stabilization of Brazilian exchange, but quotations seem likely to hold up better from now on. A most interesting plan now under discussion is the establishment of a new central reserve bank for Brazil, financed by foreign capital, and representing a rather unique experiment, but one designed to maintain the country's financial policy undisturbed by domestic political changes or conditions.

As for Brazilian Traction Company, its milreis receipts are being remitted almost daily to New York and Canada, and exchanged into dollars. Net earnings of the company for May, as in April, will show a heavy decline in dollars as compared with last year, but the June figures, helped by higher milreis quotations, should make a better showing.

BEDEQUE

The evening service of the Central Bedeque Baptist Church was attended by a very large congregation, the church and vestry having been filled to capacity. The regular sing song opened this service. Rev. A. G. Crowe, pastor, delivered as his text, 4th chapter of Luke, verse 27th. Music and singing were very nicely rendered by the choir. Mr. J. B. Lewis, of Freetown, rendered very beautifully "Why Not Tonight?" accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Earle Leard. Rev. A. G. Crowe pronounced the Benediction, which brought this service to a close. Mrs. Earle Leard, organist and choir director.

The community was deeply saddened over the death of Mr. George M. Wright, one of Central Bedeque's most highly esteemed residents.

The Peach of Willowfarm, a three-year-old Holstein heifer, bred by Mr. R. A. Profitt, of Freetown and now owned by Mr. Wilbert Wright, of North Carleton, P. E. I., has just finished a yearly record in the R. O. P. with a production in 365 days, totalling 12931 lbs. of milk containing 631.25 pounds butter, giving her an average test of 3.91% fat. It is worthy of note that this heifer made her record on twice a day milking and that during one month of her lactation period, she produced 1766 pounds of milk, containing 44.17 pounds of fat. A record quite hard to beat on P. E. I.

Miss Ruth Carruthers, of Lower Carleton, and Miss Jean MacKay, of Centreville Bedeque, were visitors to Lot 16 on Sunday, the guests of Miss Lillian Millar.

The many friends of Miss Minerva Curley regret her illness in the Charlottetown Hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. (Hon.) Horace Wright, of Lower Bedeque, attended the annual meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held in the Summerside Baptist Hall on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Wright was one of the speakers at this important meeting. Mrs. Rev. A. J. Reynolds spoke on Temperance Education and Mrs. John Frizzell also spoke.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frizzell, of Wilmot Valley, were visitors to Central Bedeque on Sunday.

Morning Stock Letter

Wall Street Mirror Says:—
Special to Johnston & Ward

(Special to Johnston &Ward)

The statement of the I. C. C. that maintenance expenditures by the railroads has been reduced some $111,300,000 during the first four months of this year so that earnings may be considered as actually even worse than reported, apparently was the excuse for the selling of the rails.

Substantial losses were incurred by the leaders in this group as a thin market was revealed. Balance of the list gradually sod off during the greater part of the day with some slight recovery at the close.

The market seems to find a base around 132 in the Dow Jones industrial average from which to attempt to break through the previous highs. The drying up of volume on this reaction to the 132 level may mean another temporary recovery, provided volume does not pick up today on further weakness.

Such short selling on low volume are of relatively little importance, however, and the market must suffer prices or break through recent highs, preferrably the former, before any real significant indications are given.

Wall Street Mirror Says—

With trading at its lowest point since October 1928, there is very little that can be said regarding the market other than that it is still purely professional and is subject to the whims of those operators who figure that they must be doing something. The market is still forced to contend in addition to its dullness with poor business news although constructive factors are in the making. In such a market as we are now witnessing it is rather useless for the trader to attempt anything and it is advisable that nothing be done on either side until the market itself shows which way it is going to break out of its trading area.

A very successful Women's Institute meeting was hedld at the home of Mrs. J. Sutherland Wright of Middleton, when Mrs. Wright entertained the Women's Institute of Middleton on Friday evening, May 5th. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada," followed by the Institute Creed in unison. The roll call was responded to by fifteen members, each giving a hint on the garden of poultry. Three new members were welcomed, four visitors were also present. School committee reported school needed scrubbing, also a water pail and drinking cup for the Principal's room. The visiting committee reported a number of visits made to the sick. New committees were then appointed: School, Mrs. William Reid and Mrs. Wilfred Craig; Visiting, Mrs. Clifford Wright and Mrs. Edison Wright. Arrangements were made for Mr. Reid to give a talk on his trip to the Toronto Fair, the admission by measuring of height. A talk on Gooseberries and Currants was given by Mrs. John MacCardle, and a chorus parody on "In the Gloaming," brought to a close the programme. The closing number of the evening meeting was the singing of "God Save the King." A lunch of ice cream and cake was then served by the hostess, after which all adjourned to meet next month with Mrs. John MacCardle. Collection amounted to $1.11.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sherry, Miss Lettie Hagen and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ranahan and son, Master Ivan Sherry, motored to Charlottetown on Sunday and were the welcome guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawlor.

A very quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized in the St. James Church, Summerside, on Wednesday morning, May 27th, when Miss Margaret Lillian McEntee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McEntee, of Emerald, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Augustus Murphy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Murphy, of Emerald. The couple were attended by Miss Leona McEntee, sister of the bride and Mr. Victor Allen, of Emerald. Rev. Francis MacDonald performed the ceremony. The bride looked very winsome in a gown of white georgette and veil, carrying a bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern, while the bridesmaid wore a rose taffeta dress. The girls choir of St. James Church rendered some beautiful singing, during the Nuptial Mass. After a very dainty wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, where the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present, the bridal party left on a honeymoon trip to Charlottetown and other Eastern centres, and where a very enjoyable day was spent. The bride's travelling dress was of yellow crepe with a fawn coat and accessories to correspond. The young couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable gifts. The pall bearers were six grandsons of the deceased, all sons of Mr. Benjamin Bridges. Among the floral offerings, none were more beautiful than the pink and white apple blossoms from the orchard of the old homestead. After a short service at the house, a large concourse followed the remains to the church, which was filled to capacity. The service was conducted by Rev. A. S. Weir, assisted by Rev. Mr. Baker, of O'Leary and Rev. Mr. Loring, of West Cape. The hymns were "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "Asleep in Jesus," also a solo, "My Mother's Prayer," which was very feelingly rendered by Mr. Russell Leard. Mr. Weir took as his text, "At eventide it shall be light," and among other things, touched on the various blessings which attended the last days of the deceased, her measure of health, the devotion of her children and grandchildren, and the strong faith which had upheld her all through her life. The late Mrs. Bridges was a woman of strong character, active in body and mind and possessed a keen sense of humor. She took a lively interest in everything around her, despite her four-score years and will be greatly missed by an unusually large circle of friends. She leaves to mourn three sons: Winfred, Professor of Psychology at McGill University; Benjamin, of Inverness and Gilbert at home; also seven daughters, Mrs. McKendrick, of Port Hill; Mrs. Le Pelletier, of Old Orchard; Mrs. Florence Webster, of Rossburn, Man.; Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Wilcox, all of Brookline, Mass. Her husband predeceased her some years ago; also one daughter, Mabel and two sons, Jabez and George.

The United Church at Bloomfield was the scene of a pretty June wedding at high noon on the 10th inst., when Miss Ruth Metherall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Metherall, was united in marriage to Mr. Reginald McAusland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McAusland. The church was tastefully decorated with evergreens, lilacs and apple blossoms and was filled to capacity. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chene with veil and carried a bouquet of lilies and fern. She was attended by Miss Irma Palmer as maid of honour and Miss Pearl Craig as bridesmaid, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Eddie McAusland. The ushers were Mr. Heber Profitt, Mr. Donald McAusland and Mr. Alton Webb. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Baker and immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple motored to the home of the bride and received the congratulations of their friends, after which a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Later in the day, Mr. and Mrs. McAusland left by car on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. The wedding gifts were many and varied and testified to the high esteem in which these popular young people are held in this community. Many friends join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.—C.
