England in Africa.

The London Chronicle's Berlin correspondent says he is able to state, on good authority, that Germany does not claim Uganda and Unyoro, but that she will insist upon the thirtieth degree of longitude east of Greenwich, as the western limit of the territory. The southern limits she allows to be matter for debate and therefore that question is left open for the present. The Chronicle, in an editorial proceeding on the basis that England has already conceded the foregoing claims, says, "No wonder Germany assured the world that negotiations are going on amicably. We would rather Lord Salisbury had ceded Ireland to Germany, than thus meekly to surrender vital strategic points in Africa upon the keeping of which our imperial position in two continents depends. The cession of home rule to Ireland would be a trivial matter, so far as the future of England is concerned, compared with this surrender.

Divorce in France.

Married couples in France seem to be taking full advantage of the divorce laws since their re-establsihment six years ago. Since that time no fewer than 15,521 divorces have been pronounced, four-fifths of which have been in Paris and the large towns, and one-fifth in the rural districts. Statistics just issued from a government bureau show that in Paris alone there are rather more than 10 divorces to one in the country, and in the other large cities five to one. It would thus appear that Paris, if it has the distinction of being the heart and brain of France enjoys a distinction of a much less enviable kind. This is perhaps not to be wondered at, considering that the principal business of more than one leading Parisian writer is to ridicule the sanctity of the family tie. In France divorce is granted for ill-treatment, and the statistics show that the proportion of divorces on this ground is larger than on the ground of infidelity. This, no doubt accounts for the fact that during the six years mentioned 8621 women have sought divorce as compared with 6900 men. Many separations are granted at an extremely early age, and the records showing that 10 men and 165 women sought divorce while under 20 years of age.

All Right, 5817.

THIS SPLENDID HORSE is too well known to the breeders of Prince Edward Island to need any puffing. They all know what he is, and what a grand family of trotters and roadsters he has built up in the Maritime Provinces, where his stock have taken high rank, and are every year coming to the front. He is one of the very few horses in the provinces that contributed a representative to the 2 30 list in 1889, his son Charlie Mitchell having made a record, in a contested race, of 2.28¼.

ALL RIGHT, 5817, is the sire of

Charlie Mitchell	2 28¼
Black Pilot	2 30½
Black Bird	2.36¼

Lucy Derrick (4 yr. old)	2 44½
Nellie T. (trial)	2 35

Nellie	2.45½

and many other speedy and well-known trotters.

ALL RIGHT will stand at the Stables of Patrick Connolly, in Charlottetown, every week from Tuesday morning to Saturday morning at R Y. McCoubrey's, New Glasgow Bridge, every Monday afternoon; and in Summerside every Saturday from noon till Monday at noon.
