JOHN MACGOWAN, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, King's County, June 2d, 1842.

To the Electors of the Town and Royalty of Charlotte-Town.

GENTLEMEN;—Being on the eve of proceeding to England, on behalf of the Prince Edward Island Steam Navigation Company, as well as on private business, and, as the Election of Members to represent your interests in General Assembly may take place during my absence from the Island, I am induced thus early to offer myself as a Candidate, for the high honor of again being one of the Representatives of this my native Town.

My conduct in the present House of Assembly is before you, on which I have only to rest my claims for your further confidence; and if it has been such as to meet with your approval, and again obtain for me your suffrages, it shall be my most ardent desire, by an independent and conscientious discharge of the duties of a Representative of the People, to merit a continuance of your favour and support.

Your obedient [illegible]

FRANCIS LONGWORTH, Jun.

Charlottetown, May 14th, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTETOWN AND ROYALTY.

GENTLEMEN; Having no reason to believe that your confidence in me as one of your Representatives in General Assembly has been withdrawn, I beg leave to offer myself again as a Candidate for that honor.

The advantages which the experience of more than eight Sessions is likely to confer on a Member, will, I trust, in some measure, supply what I may be wanting in those abilities requisite for a Representative of an independent and enlightened Constituency; and the prospect of some change for the better taking place in that inveterate opposition towards the interests of Charlottetown and Royalty, manifested throughout by the majority of the late House of Assembly, including even nearly all the members for Queen's County, leads me to hope that the efforts of its Representatives may in future be found more availing.

With a determination, therefore, should I succeed in your choice, of pursuing more devotedly the interests of this my native Town, and feeling grateful for the support lately tendered me, unsolicited, by many of yourselves, I beg to subscribe myself,

Gentlemen,
Your faithful and humble Servant,
EDWARD PALMER.

Charlottetown, 9th June, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF QUEEN'S COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN; In adding another unit to the list of Candidates for this District, I beg to state, that my political ambition being very small, I had no intention whatever of entering the list for your suffrages with any of the popular members of the late House of Assembly, until an overwhelming majority of a very large meeting at the Western end of the District, in my favour, when nominated in competition with "an old and tried servant," has left me little choice in the matter. That majority was, I doubt not, partly influenced by that gentleman laying himself open to the suspicion of an intention to rat, by declaring that he would pledge himself to nothing—not even to the broad principle of the only measure which can deliver you and your children from a slavery worse than Egyptian bondage, and redeem this fair and fertile Colony from present discord and future revolution. I, of course, mean a conversion of the leasehold tenure into fee simple, at a price which will enable the tenant to become an unfettered proprietor in the course of a very few years. Take the advice of a person who is, at least, as well versed in Colonial politics as any man on this Island, and return no member who refuses to pledge himself—heart and brain—to support and carry out that principle to the utmost of his abilities. Adopt this course, and you will certainly obtain your object at last. Suffer yourselves to be amused with any of the minor considerations which are so profusely drawn before you, like straws before a kitten, and you will remain the willing and despised slaves at whom the finger of scorn will be pointed from every State and Province in North America. Regard not the pretended rights of the land speculators. The Grants have been violated by them, both in letter and spirit, and must fall. Heed not the opinion of your new Governor, so rashly expressed in his last speech—it is merely a melancholy record of the most unsound politics and worst English that ever emanated from the Governor of a British Colony.

It has been absurdly said, that I am a runaway Canadian rebel. I am in a condition to prove, not only that the accusation is totally false, but that my most strenuous exertions were on the opposite side, during a very critical period of that rebellion. The man who insinuates that I am a rebel, is himself guilty of misprision of treason if he does not use every endeavour to have me apprehended and secured forthwith.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obt. servant,
D. MACLEAN.

New London, 9th June, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF QUEEN'S COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN; I am aware that there may be prejudices existing against the Relation of a Proprietor, or the Heir of a Proprietor, to represent the people in Parliament; but I cannot believe that this prejudice can bear examination, because, if the Proprietor has done his duty towards his Tenants, he may us rely challange all the world to say whether or not there is any body who can be more interested either in their individual welfare or in the general prosperity of this Island, both in circumstances and position, than he is.

Whilst there are many who may have been deluded with the belief that, by the intervention of certain parties in the late House of Assembly, they had a chance of possessing themselves of the same Land as Freeholds which they had occupied as Leaseholds, I venture to think, that these delusions have been dissipated, not only by the reason of the thing, but by the declared will of the Queen, conveyed in the Despatch of Lord John Russell, her Colonial Minister, and the reiteration of such will by the Lieut. Governor of this Island.

I therefore stand before you as a future Proprietor, feeling that your interests and mine are bound up together. If any one attempts to tax your produce (as the last Assembly had attempted), who more interested than myself in resisting such an innovation? If any thing can be done to better your condition—to open to you better or more extended Markets, who so interested as I am? In effect, with whose interests can yours be more entirely blended than with my own?

The attempt that is daily made by ignorant, needy and disloyal individuals, to separate you from me, will indeed be futile, if there is that mutual confidence which, I trust, neither I nor any member of my family have done any thing to forfeit. It is, therefore, under the belief that our interests are mutual, that I venture thus to offer myself to your indulgence, as a Candidate to represent you in the ensuing Assembly; and I believe that the same relations which, I trust, exist between myself and my own Tenants may be such, that they will not deprive me of the support of all others who deem it necessary to return a Representative who will consider that he cannot neglect the interests of the Farmer without diminishing the value of his own property.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient humble servant,
ROBERT MONTGOMERY.

Charlottetown, April 22, 1842.

TO THE FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF THE FIRST ELECTORAL DISTRICT OF QUEEN'S COUNTY,

Comprising Townships Numbers 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 33, 34, and 67.

GENTLEMEN; being solicited by a number of the most influential Farmers of the District, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the next General Election for Members to represent you in Colonial Parliament. Convinced that no one can be more interested in the Agricultural prosperity of the Island than myself, (and being a native, and personally known to the most of you), I feel persuaded, that with a desire of serving you, to receive your support; and if returned, be assured that no exertion on my part shall be wanting to advance your best interests, which are inseparably connected with my own.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, a Native,
and your obedient servant,
GEORGE COLES.

Charlottetown, 6th May, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE SECOND DISTRICT OF PRINCE COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN; [illegible] days were passed [illegible] ful period in its Military history, and that since the war, I have been uninterruptedly employed in my own County in England, in the duties of the Magistracy, which are there of so high and responsible a nature.

Having come to this Island with a large family, whose future fortunes must depend on its prosperity, I conceive that none can be more interested in its well-being.

Independent of all influence, connection or party, if I should be honoured as the object of your choice, I will, to the best of my judgment, decide dispassionately on all subjects of discussion, and use every diligence to advocate as well your local interests as the general improvement of this Island, so blessed by nature, but whose Trade and Agriculture, if duly fostered by prudent Legislation, are yet capable of so much extension.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen, your obedient Servant,
WILLIAM SWABEY.

AUX ELECTEURS FRANCOIS DE LA DEUXIEME DIVISION DE PRINCE COUNTY.

MESSIEURS;

AYANT reçu permission de S. E. Le Lieutenant Gouverneur de me demettre de ma place au Conseil Legislatif, j'ai decidé vous offrir mes services dans l'Assemblée à venir.

J'ai une confiance raisonnable que cette determination de ma part sera considerée en garantie de ma preférence d'etre Representatif du peuple.

J'ai passé ma jeunesse au service de ma patrie, pendant une époque interessante dans son historie militaire—et depuis la guerre j'ai travaillé sans cesse dans ses affaires civiles, en Magistrat—une charge en Angleterre d une importance et responsibilité beaucoup plus considerable qu'ici.

Etabli dans cette Isle, et louant surtout des terres dans votre propre comté, j'ai une famille nombreuse des enfans, dont les esperances pour l'avenir dependent entièrement sur sa prosperité, j'ose penser qu'il n'y a personne plus interessé à son bonheur.

Je suis independant de toute liaison et de tout partie, ou propriétaire ou quelconque, en conséquence, si j'aurois l'honneur d'etre l'objet de votre choix, je pourrai decider sur tout sujet de deliberation sans peur et sans préjugé, et surtout avancer vos interêts locales et ceux de l'Isle entière, une terre si favorisée par le Bon Dieu, mais dont le commerce et l'Agriculture sont si capables d'amelioration par une legislation sage et prudente.

J'ai l'honneur rester,
Messieurs,
Votre tres humble serviteur,
WILLIAM SWABEY.

Bedeque, Avril 19, 1842.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN; Grateful for the successful support you afforded meat the last General Election, and conscious that I have dischrged my duty towards you with fidelity, I am induced to take th liberty of offering myself as a Candidate for the honor of represeting you in the next House of Assembly; and should I be so higly honored as to be again the object of your choice, you may rely that my best efforts shall be directed towards the advancemot of the general interests of the Colony, and particularly that of his District, my native place, reserving to myself perfect freedom of deliberation and judgment.

I hav the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,
JOHN S. MACDONALD.

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County

GENTLEMEN; At the earnest request of many of you, I have been induced to offer myself a Candidate at the ensuing Election for the honor of representing you in the next House of Assembly, and should you deem me worthy of your confidence, nothing shall be wanting, on my part, which my limited abilities are capable of obtaining for your District—more especially those local claims which it is fairly entitled to, in common with the other parts of the Colony.

I am a native of this District, and in it live the greater number of my friends and relatives; and there is not a District in this Island with which I am so well acquainted, both with regard to its inhabitants and their local necessities—circumstances which, I am sure, you will not everlook. My principles and conduct in the House of Assembly, during the eight years in which I have had the honor of a seat in that House, are pretty well known to the most of you; and as I can see no reason to change sides, or to desert the cause of the poor inhabitants, to support that of a proprietary faction, I think you have a sufficient guarantee that I will continue to advocate the rights of the Agriculturists of the Colony with such abilities as I may possess—which I will do against any odds that may be opposed to me. As I have nothing to hope for, and as little to fear, from the whole host of proprietary oppressors and their coadjutors, I am free to support any constitutional measure with which (if returned) you may think proper to entrust me.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
WILLIAM CLARK, Senr.

Darnley, June 14th, 1842.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE FIRST DISTRICT OF PRINCE COUNTY.

MY FRIENDS; On the Eleventh day of next month, you are called upon to exercise the highest privilege of subjects—that of sending persons from amongst yourselves who MUST BE consulted on every legislative act that affects your rights or your liberties; and on the proper use of this right depends not only your own, but your children's welfare. Fully sensible of the importance of this trust—unprejudiced and unbiased by any interest but YOURS—(with which my own is inseparably connected)—feeling how much your means of communication, Roads, Bridges, Wharves, &c., stand in need of a person interested to to obtain their PROPER SHARE of the public expenditure, and fully resolved (should I be honored with your confidence,) carefully to watch over your rights and interests, I beg to offer myself as a Candidate for the honor of being your Representative; and should this important trust be confided to me, I hope I shall ever be found the strenuous advocate of your interests, and the unwearied supporter of all that can advance the prosperity of this my adopted Country.

I have the honor to be,
my Friends,
your devoted servant,
NICHOLAS CONROY.
