Montreal Exchange

MONTREAL, Oct. 3 —(CP) — Trading today on the stock market resulted in a stalemate between gains and losses, with both narrow.

Niagara Wire headed firmer industrials with a point gain and following with fractional lifts were Asbestos, Dominion Bridge, International Bronze and National Steel Car. Massey-Harris (old) was a winner and the new recovered a slip. Losers were the Canadian Cement issues, Canadian Car and Dominion Coal Preferred.

Bell Telephone was ahead in utilities but Power Corporation and Shawinigan were behind. Brazilian was active at a fractional loss. In carriers both Canada Steamship stocks were behind minor fractions while in metals Consolidated Smelters was up and Noranda in the hole. International Nickel recovered an early loss. International Petroleum dipped slightly in oils.

Howard Smith common was higher in papers and the preferred deleted a drop. St. Lawrence Corporation was firmer and Price Brothers softer.

In miscellaneous beverage issues were pointed back, National Breweries and Associated Breweries each posting a slight recession. Among others appearing Celanese Preferred, Ogilvie and Simon and Sons moved up and Imperial Tobacco sagged.

Grain

CHICAGO, Oct. 3 —(AP) —Soybeans futures tumbled 8 cents a bushel today, the maximum loss permitted in one session, upsetting the entire grain market. Wheat and other grains skidded a cent a bushel or more.

Some selling of wheat was based on reports of scattered sales of 1940 grain held by the government.

Wheat closed 3-4—1 1-4 lower than yesterday, Dec. 1.21 1-2—3-8, May 1.26 3-8—1-8; Corn 3-4— 1 1-8 down, Dec. 80 7-8—3-4, May 86—85 7-8; Oats 1-2—1 down; rye 1—1 1-4 off and soybeans 5 3-4—7 1-4 lower.

Soybeans rallied after the extreme break had carried December contracts down to $11.70 and that delivery closed at $1.71 1-2—1.72.

Toronto Exchange

TORONTO, Oct. 3. —(CP) —After a dull start both prices and volume picked up on the Toronto stock exchange today and at the finish most values were at or close to the day's best figures. Golds were most prominent in the upswing while volume totalled 274,000 shares.

Queenston continued its strong display of yesterday and ran up 8 1-2 cents to 60, a new high for the year. Upper Canada was active in late trade and touched 187 and then eased to close at 183, up 5. Chesterville was strong and active and held a 12-cent advance at 1.84, the year's high.

Base metals and western oils were dull. Calgary and Edmonton advanced 5 cents among the junior oils.

Industrials were irregularly higher, with Fanny Farmer touching a new low for the year at 21 1-8 before closing 1-8 lower at 21 1-4. Oils, rails and liquors were firmer. Laura Secord eased a bit. Brazilian was active but unchanged.

Currencies

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 —(CP) — The Canadian dollar and the pound sterling finished higher in relation to United States currency in today's foreign exchange dealings. Sterling advanced 1-4 cent to $4.03-3-4 while the Canadian currency was 1-16 cent higher at a discount of 11 1-8 per cent. (Ottawa foreign exchange control board rate 9.09-9.91 per cent discount.)

Finance

By Bernard S. O'Hara
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 —(AP) — Many stock market leaders inclined to limp in today's session but sufficient bidding came in for motors, rails, oils, utilities and specialties to keep the list on a moderately even keel.

Canadian stocks were generally higher. Bell Telephone led the gainers up 2 1-2 ponts to 113 1-2 while Hollinger, Lake Shore Mines and Brazilian Traction each gained 1-8 and International Nickel 1-4. Dome Mines lost 1-8 and Walkers 1-4 while Distillers Seagram and Imperial Oil were unchanged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged at 43. Transfers of 423,350 shares compared with 464,927 Thursday.

Best prices for the year were posted for Goodrich, Western Union and Skelly Oil.

General Motors and Chrysler edged forward despite a slight dip in the week's automotive output. Estimated record sales for the former in the first nine months of this year were a bolstering factor.

Westinghouse dropped a point at a new year's low as additional layoffs of workers due to material shortages was reported.

The WEEK at S.D.U.

Public Speaking Classes: The debating societies of the college have been organized during the week and officers for the year have been elected.

St. Thomas Debating Society: President, Jos. McCleod; Vice-president, Olestes McGuigan; Secretary, George MacDonald; Councillors, Hubert O'Hanley and Allan Callaghan.

St. John Debating Society: Moderator, Rev. J. P. E. O'Hanley; President, Joseph MacIsaac; Secretary, Henry O'Shea; Councillors, Rod MacDougall, Deforest Delano, Andre Casgrain.

St. Augustine Debating Society (Section A.): Moderator, Rev. F. L. Cass; President, Charles MacIvor; Vice President, William McGuigan; Secretary, Ernest Hemphill; Councillors: Edouard Caron, James Morris. (Section B.) Moderator: Rev. Parnell Wood; President, Robert Donahue; Vice President, Jas. Murphy; Secretary, Jos. Martin; Councillors, Charles Sexton, L. P. Boulay, and Jos. Whalen.

The students of the college assembled last Monday evening to bid farewell to Father Oswald Murphy who has been named as parish priest of Grand River. Representatives of the various college years spoke a few words of appreciation for all that Father Murphy has done for the boys in the past few years, and wished him every success in his new work. A smoking stand, gift of the student body, was presented to Father Murphy by George McKenna. Frank Aylward presided at the meeting.

The St. Dunstans unit of the C. F.C.C.S. held its first meeting of the year Thursday evening. Arrangements were made for the appointment of delegates to the Annual Convention which is to be held this year at St. F.X. University on November 7, 8, and 9.

The meeting decided to observe the first Sunday of the month as a day of special prayer and good works for peace. George MacDonald and Allan MacDonald were appointed to supervise arrangements. The meeting also resolved to perform some positive work in the Legion of Decency field.

L.A.C. Francis MacAulay, R. C. A F. Radio Technician was a visitor at St. Dunstans during the week. L.A.C. MacAulay left S.D.U. in 1939 to join the armed forces.

Sympathy of the students is extended to Reverend R. G. Ellsworth on the death of his father.

Parachutist in Perilous position On mountain crest

SUNDANCE, Wyo., Oct. 2—(AP) —A 30 year old daredevil who once flew with the Royal Air Force shivered atop a skyscraping rock formation today, after a day and a night as a prisoner of its heights because of the gambling spirit which led him to parachute to its disc-like summit.

The lone occupant of the geological freak, called Devil's Tower, was George Hopkins of Rapid City, S. D. He faced a perilous three-hour descent to the rolling hills below, down the sheer walls of the pinnacle which rises like a huge tree stump a quarter of a mile into the sky—higher than the Empire State building.

On a wager with Earl Brockelsby of Rapid City, Hopkins bailed out of a plane flown by Joe Quinn of Rapid City at 8.11 a. m. yesterday, and dropped 600 feet to a safe landing on the barren top.

Quinn dropped him a long coil of rope for the descent—but it slithered down one of the sides of the basalt tower, which rises 1280 feet above the Belle Fourche River valley between Carlile and Moorcroft, Wyo.

The rope landed on a ledge part way down the circular cliff. Another rope was dropped last night along with provisions by another flyer, Clyde Ice of Rapid City. But Hopkins apparently decided to wait for daylight before trying to descend.

Only 40 persons are known to have scaled the fantastic monolith, with permits from the Devil's Tower National Monument Office. Hopkins was the first to reach its crest from the sky—and without a permit.

Macdonald-Smith Nuptials

A wedding of widespread interest was that of Miss Margaret Mary Smith, daughter of Mrs. Richard C. Smith, East Chezzetcook, to Captain John Augustine Macdonald, Adjutant of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders (A.F.), son of Senator and Mrs. John A. Macdonald, Cardigan, P.E.I., which took place in St. Mary's Cathedral at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Rev. George McCormack, Army chaplain and former college mate of the groom officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Rev. Joseph Mills played the organ and sang. The church was decorated with gladioli and other fall flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Gerald Smith. She wore an imported model gown of ivory satin with slight train, fashioned on fitted, classical lines, a long veil with coronet and carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Isabel O'Reilly, R. N., Halifax, who wore a gown of yellow chiffon made with fitted bodice and long full skirt, a juliet cap of the same material and a cascade bouquet of pale pink flowers.

Captain C. J. Macdonald, R. C. A.M.C., Halifax, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Captain W. W. Beckett, a former adjutant of the Prince Edward Island Highlanders, Halifax, but now on staff of Halifax Fortress Headquarters and Captain R. G. Lea, R.C.A.M.C., son of the late Premier Lea. The band of the Pictou Highlanders piped the couple out of the church at the close of the ceremony.

The reception was held in the lounge of the Lord Nelson Hotel which had been beautifully decorated with Fall flowers, varied colored gladioli predominating. Senator and Mrs. Macdonald of Cardigan, the groom's parents were present, the latter wearing a navy blue street length dress with black felt hat and a silver fox cape. Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, was attired in a street length black lace dress with black hat and accessories, a corsage of pale pink roses and a silver fox fur. The bride's table was centred with a bouquet of pink roses, and bore the decorated wedding cake. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. D. K. McDermaid, Manager Maritime Agencies, Ltd., where the bride has been employed. It was responded to by the groom.

Following the reception, Captain Macdonald and his bride left on a motor trip in the Maritime Provinces, and on their return will take up residence in Halifax.

"Fighting names" For U. S. planes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2—(AP)— The United States navy gave fighting names today to its planes, supplanting the letter-numeral designations with such colorful names as "Wildcat", "Devastator" and "Avenger."

Two of the names are adopted from British titles given American-built craft. The Brewster F2A fighter will be called the "Buffalo", and the Consolidated FBY patrol bomber "Catalina".

Dive bombers will be dubbed as follows: The Curtiss, SB2-C, the "Helldiver"; the Douglas SBD, the "Dauntless"; and the Vought 2B20 the "Vindicator."

The Brewster 2B2A scout bomber will be called "Buccaneer."

Other original designations and their new names:—

Fighters: Grumman F4F, "Wildcat"; Vought F4U, "Corsair."

Observation scouts: Curtiss SO3C, "Seagull"; the navy PS2N and the Vought OS2U, both to be called "Kingfishers."

Patrol bombers: Boeing PBB, "Sea Ranger"; Martin PBM, "Mariner"; Consolidated PB2Y, "Coronado."

Torpedo bomber: Douglas TBD, "Devastator"; Grumman TBF, "Avenger."

Fishermen's Union Executive meeting

A meeting of the Executive of the Fishermen's Union of P. E. I. was held at Charlottetown on Wednesday October 1st. Those in attendance were C. P. McCarthy of Tignish, President, Austin B. Bell of White Sands, Vice President, Jerome Chapman of Red Point, Director for King's County, James B MacDonald of West St. Peter's Director for Queen's County, and Miss Noreen Johnston, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Sylvain Gallant Director for Prince County was unavoidably absent.

A brief report of the activities of the Central office for the past six months was given by the President, who explained that owing to the necessity of conserving the funds of the Association field work had not been continued as actively as in previous years.

Miss Johnston submitted an interim report of the financial standing of the Association from the time of her taking office and the accounts were placed before the Executive for inspection. It was announced that the collective purchasing of fishing supplies for next season is in contemplation and each station would shortly be requested to send in an estimate of its various requirements to the Central Office

Matters generally affecting the welfare of the fishermen were discussed and those of prior importance were passed on for discussion and review at the annual meeting. This meeting will be held at Charlottetown on Tuesday, November 4th next. Due notice of the place and hour of meeting will be given the different stations.
