THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

A. A. Johnstone, Editor and Proprietor. Sophia Morris, Manager

...The latest news, first of all.

...It is spoken with pleasure the return to Peters Road of Peter Morrison late of Malpeque Mass and Allan Morrison and Joseph McLeod from the West. Mr. McLean in company with his brother carries on an extensive mercantile business in Battenburg, Alta. The Guardian wishes them a joyous holiday season and on their nativity.

...The Christmas Tree Festival held in the Presbyterian Church, at Peters Road on the 24th inst was highly successful and reflects credit on the children who took part in the concert and upon those who had charge of the work. Rev. Mr. Gray the pastor, is an adept with children and presided on the occasion. It can be said twhat the Sunday School has the support of the people in this section.

...A farewell party and dance was held at Whim Road East on Xmas night previous to the departure of Mrs. E. J. Rourke and Albert Rourke for California. A large number were present, including several from Valleyfield, Commercial Cross, Montague, and Milltown Cross. Excellent violin selections were rendered by the following well-known experts: Wm. Peckbert, Ronald Stuart, Donald Nicholson, Albert Rourke, and Alexander Stuart. Murdoch MacLeod, (Whim Road East,) and Alexander MacLeod, (of Valleyfield) sang Gaelic and other songs to the enjoyment of all. The well laden table showed plainly that the "Department of the Interior" had not been forgotten, and the company did justice to the good things provided. During the evening the chairman, J. W. Davey, called on R. G. MacDonald to read the following kind words, which had been neatly typewritten by an accomplished lassie of Montague, to Mrs. E. J. Rourke and son and signed by the following committee, Russel G. McDonald, Ronald Stuart, Wendal H. Gordon, John W. Davey, John W. Campbell. As we are informed that you are about to leave us for far-off California, we the undersigned, on behalf of the community of Whim Road, wish to take this opportunity of expressing our regret at your departure. Feeling that we are losing two of the most respected and highly esteemed residents of Whim Road, we desire to express our appreciation of you as friends and neighbors by asking you to accept these small tokens of our regard. Though we now regretfully bid you farewell, we hope to welcome you on your return in the near future to this beautiful Garden of the Gulf. In conclusion we wish you a "Happy New Year" and a pleasant trip to the City of the Golden Gate. The presentation of a gold watch chain to Mrs. Rourke and a gentleman's toilet set to Mr. Rourke was then made by J. W. Campbell, to which the recipients replied suitably. In the wee small hours, the party came to a close and those assembled dispersed to their homes after an enjoyable evening. Patriot and Examiner please copy.

...The following are the Montague market prices, butter per lb. 22 to 24 cents, eggs per doz, 29 cents, chickens per lb. 8 cents, ducks and geese per lb. 10 cents, turkeys per lb 12 cents, hay per ton $6 to $8, oats per bus. 40 cents and potatoes per bus. 20 cents.

...A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by the members of the Adult Bible Class in the manse, Dundas, on Christmas Day. Mr. McLeod, not knowing their intention, invited the class and Sabbath school teachers to the manse to dinner. When they arrived they beseiged him in the study and the following laconic address was read by Allan J. MacDonald, Mt. Hope, on behalf of the class. We the undersigned members of the Adult Bible Class of the Presbyterian Church, Dundas beg leave to present you with this Morris chair in token of our appreciation of your unwearied interest in us as our teacher, expounding to us the gospel of Christ; and our attachment to you as pastor of this congergation. Allan J. McDonald, President; Maggie Nicholson, Secretary. Mr. McLeod was taken by surprise and was for a while overcome when emotion but recovering himself he thanked the doners for their kindly address and gift. He assured them that he appreciated their kindness more than words could express, not so much for the intrinsic value of the gift itself as for the fact that it revealed to him what he did not know before, that his services as a teacher was so much appreciated by the class. He expressed the hope that they would continue more and more to enjoy and appreciate the work of the class, and that finally they would all be found among the happy number saved through the power of the gospel. This was not, he said, the first time the people of Dundas Presbyterians, Baptists, and Methodists expressed their kindness to him. Not a year since he came amongst them but he received gifts of hay, oats, potatoes, apples, eggs, butter, &c, &c., for all which he expressed gratitude to God who put it into their hearts and to them who responded to the impulse. The afternoon was spent in social fellowship and in vocal and instrumental music until the time to disperse had come when the pastor called the class together, and, after few remarks, called for the report of the treasurer and secretary, both of which were satisfactory. The officers and committee for the ensuing year were appointed after which the superintendent of the S. School, Stewart Hunter, led in prayer. The singing of "God be with you till we meet again" and the benediction ended the program, and all felt that it was a Xmas well spent.

...The schooner Jennie has finished loading produce at Souris for Nova Scotia.

...The session of the Montague Presbyterian Church in New York right on behalf of the congregation presented Miss Alice Knott with a purse containing $25 as a token of valuable services as organist. James Jay (elder) made the presentation.

...An event of more than ordinary interest occurred at the home of John and Mrs. Mills, Bay Fortune on Xmas Eve when their daughter Mabel was united in marriage to William H. Underhay of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. McLeod in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The rooms were beautifully decorated, particularly noticeable being the magnificent arch of Evergreen under which the bridal party stood during the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many valuable wedding gifts. Both bride and groom enjoy to a marked degree the esteem of a large circle of friends.
