Budget Bride Must List Her Linens

If you, like so many brides, must watch your budget closely in buying your bed linens, don't skimp on quality or size and think that's the smart way too manage. To buy good quality percale sheets and cases is much smarter — they're cheaper to launder and their life will be much longer and stronger than the cheaper qualities. You will undoubtedly find that plain white sheets will look better after a few years' washing so we recommend them. But if you want to indulge in some color, buy a guest set of pre-war colored sheets which will add a nice decorative note to the room.

Most of the brides are marking their linens with the maiden monogram in true traditional style but a few modern brides prefer to have their new monogram grace their linens.

Bedroom

For each bed:

6 sheets —plain hem or hemstitched
6 cases —(12 cases if double bed).
1 pr. Winter blankets
1 pr. Swimmer blankets
1 blanket cover.

Note: The best double bed sheet is size 90 x 108. The best single bed sheet size is 72 x 108. The most popular pillow case sizes is 45 x 36-1.2. Good sheets and cases are always worth monogramming. Any of the linen shops have many samples to show you. Choose your linens early enough to allow plenty of time to have them marked properly.

Bathroom

8 bath towels.
6 small turkish towels.
8 washcloths.
8 hand towels.
6 guest towels.
2 bath mats
1 bathroom rug.
1 shower curtain

Note: Choose towels, mats, rugs and shower curtains with your bathroom decorations in mind so as to make a complete ensemble

Dining Room

1 damask dinner cloth with 8 napkins.
1 cutwork or embroidered linen dinner cloth, 8 napkins
2 luncheon place-mat sets (17 pcs).
2 breakfast clothes, 4 napkins.
8 cocktail napkins.
2 bridge sets

Note: In choosing table linens be sure you know the exact size of your table as cloths should have a drop of from 12 to 15 inches.

Kitchen

12 dish towels
6 glass towels.
6 dish cloths.
6 hand towels.
