Common Assault Case Concludes At Montague

Mr. S. S. Hessian, K.C., Montague, was fined $1 and costs or 30 days and bound over to keep the peace for six months by Stipendiary Magistrate Joseph Macdonald at the conclusion of an assault case in Montague yesterday. He was charged with common assault on Dr. T. V. Grant, M. P., also of Montague.

When the judgment was given, Mr. Hessian, the defendant, served notice of appeal against it. He had previously taken objection to Magistrate Macdonald's jurisdiction, maintaining that the case should have come before Mr. L. B. Mellish, Magistrate for the Town of Montague. In the case of Mr. Mellish's illness, the latter's consent should have been obtained, the defendant contended.

The case arose out of an alleged assault on Dr. Grant which occurred on Friday, September 18. The complainant was enroute to the King's County Hospital to visit a patient when the incident occurred.

Mr. Hessian took the stand on his own behalf yesterday and submitted his version of what occurred between himself and Dr. Grant at that time. The latter was in conversation with Mr. Frank Murphy when the alleged assault took place.

The defendant pleaded his own case while the complainant was represented by Mr. Lester O'Donnell of Charlottetown.

Oct. 18 Victory Loan Sunday

Sunday, October 18, will be observed by churches of all denominations across Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific as "Victory Loan Sunday". This is a day for Canadians to manifest their determination to preserve freedom of religion and for all to dedicate themselves to the service of God and the Empire.

The occasion will have special significance in view of the fact that on the following day, Monday, October 19, the most challenging Victory Loan campaign yet launched will be officially inaugurated. This campaign appeal will give every citizen an opportunity to strike a blow for freedom by investing as largely as possible.

Clergymen of every religious faith have been invited to speak from their pulpits on "Victory Loan Sunday" in respect to Canada's call to her people to make the Loan an overwhelming success.

In Charlottetown, the day will be celebrated in an elaborate way by monster parades of the different branches of His Majesty's Forces and all allied establishments including the School Cadets, Girl Guides, Sea Cadets, Air Cadets, Red Cross and A.R.P. It is expected that this celebration wil be one of the most elaborate yet attempted in the city's history.

The celebration itself will take place at the Forum, which is being prepared for the reception of thousands of people. The decorations will be under the capable supervision of Mr. Ivan Y. Reddin and Mr. Don G. Gass. A suitable religious service will be held under the direction of two padres of His Majesty's Forces. Capt. (Rev.) J. W. McCardle and Rev. Canon E. M. Malone. At the same time the campaign will be officially dedicated with the symbolic Commando Dagger.

During the parade, through the courtesy of Group Captain F. R. Miller, Officer Commanding R.C.A.F. at Summerside, a number of planes will be overhead to give a more realistic effect to the celebration.

"That's two things Mike Herron doesn't know you are," Alice remarked pleasantly. "Miss Griswold and Miss Lockwood. Don't you think it's time you went home?" He might find it very enlightening, for example, to know what all your anxiety with Weston was about during dinner."

"It doesn't matter," said Paige. "I don't want his pity. And if anything comes of this, I certainly don't want his help."

"Ach! Ach! Ach! Such Angels rich Hungarian! Such!" "You want our help?"

Paige stared fiercely. "That's it. Alice, I want only this taxi, but I'm broke. Connie will have him lock, stock and barrel after this page is over."

"Did a do something about it?"

"You'll notice I'm not much of the worry Miss Griswold raise."

"Am I?" Alice set her lips. "Well, pride. There was a time long ago when I could have had all the happiness in life. I wanted or ever have want d, but I was afraid to grab it . . . stay down, or tell me to shut up and go home?"

Paige went to Alice and put her arms around her. "Because I don't feel that way about you. I wish you'd been my mother, Alice."

"So do I," said Alice huskily. She gave Paige a little push. "Crazy business washing your head at night. Don't sleep in a draft. Good night."

Do You Suffer From Headaches?

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

A headache need not be an illness in itself, but it may be a warning symptom that there is intestinal sluggishness within.

To help overcome the cause of headache it is necessary to eliminate the waste matter from the system. Burdock Blood Bitters helps to remove the cause of headaches by regulating the digestive and biliary organs, neutralizing acidity, regulating the constipated bowels and toning up the sluggish liver, and when this has been accomplished the headaches should disappear.
