P. E. I. HOSPITAL LADIES' AID SPONSOR "LADY FOR A DAY" AT PRINCE EDWARD

Distinctly in a class by itself as regards motion picture entertainment and possessing a story so universally appealing that it is impossible to predict anything but outstanding success for it, "Lady For A Day", the Columbia super production starring Warren William with May Robson, started its local run yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre and was greeted by the audience with enthusiasm. The Ladies Aid of the P. E. I. Hospital are to be congratulated on their selection of a picture to be sponsored.

"Lady For A Day" is like a fantastic fairy tale, yet it is real and human. Its appealing humor and touching dramatic scenes make the laughs and tears blend wholesomely with an emotionally agitating effect that is at once overpowering and heart-warming.

May Robson, "the grand old lady of the American stage" attains her greatest success in fifty years of trouping as the apple vendor in "Lady For A Day." It is her greatest characterization and one that will endear her to all.

The picture has a natural unforced comedy. The characterization of Ned Sparks, the drolleries of Guy Kibbee, the wise cracks of Glenda Farrell give the picture a light hearted buoyancy that will make the smiles chase the tears in numerous sequences.

The remainder of the cast is exceptionally well chosen. They include Jean Parker, Walter Connolly, Nat Pendleton, Barry Norton, Halliwell Hobbes, Hobart Bosworth and Wallis Clark.

"ARIZONA TO BROADWAY" PACKED WITH AMUSEMENT

James Dunn Shows Real Ability in Leading Role With Joan Bennett and Herbert Mundin Excellent In New Comedy

With James Dunn in the type of role he has never had before, "Arizona to Broadway," the new Fox comedy, opened at the Capitol Theatre yesterday. Dunn is seen as a confidence man operating at a western carnival, and who finally lands in New York to match wits and fists with the cream of big-time racketeers. What he does and the way in which he does it make for one of the most entertaining pictures of recent weeks.

The plot concerns the efforts of this young man to protect the interests of a lone and pretty girl against other confidences men who are after the little money she has. Lest his intentions be mistaken as honorable ones, let it be stated here and now that all he wants to do is to preserve that money for himself He succeeds in shielding her from the others, but ends up only to find that he himself has been working for love. The girl arouses a strange sort of feeling in him, and he decides that he doesn't want the money. It's romance he is now after.

There is a hilarious sequence in the picture that shows this western gambler pited against the methods of New York hijackers. How he puts things gently but firmly over on them forms the unusual climax of the film.

James Dunn's versatility as an actor goes up a lot of points through his performance in "Arizona to Broadway." He combines his unusual charm with a new element of force that is evidence of his real abilities. Joan Bennett is the girl, and she acquits herself beautifully. Herbert Mundin, in the role of proprietor of a medicine show, has what is by far the funniest part of his career. It gives him a grand opportunity to establish himself as a premier comedian of the screen.

AIR RELATIONS AT CONFERENCE

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov 8—Formalities brushed aside, President Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinoff drove straight toward the problem of Russian recognition today in a conference that lasted almost an hour.

A tea at the White House at which Litvinoff was guest of honor preceded his talk with the President. After his second talk with Secretary Hull, a joint communique was issued saying:

"The Secretary of State and Mr. Litvinoff continued their conversations this afternoon in the office of the Secretary of State. The conversations will be resumed tomorrow in the office of the Secretary of State."

In the discussions, numerous problems came up for consideration. These included debt claims against the Soviet, subversive propaganda, trade relations and other matters of lesser importance.

Western People More Careful Of Baggage

WINNIPEG, Ma., Nov 7—The people in Western Canada must be getting more mindful of their belongings, and the depression may have something to do with it, but for the first time in twenty-two years Winnipeg will be without its famous unclaimed baggage sale. This information was furnished by H. M. Spence, General Baggage and Mail Agent of the Canadian National Railways at Winnipeg. For many years the unclaimed baggage sale has been a feature in the City of Winnipeg and people have had the unique experience of bidding on a locked trunk or valise or club bag, entirely without knowledge of what they contained. "People must be losing some of their absent-mindedness, or else concentrating on the baggage check," says Mr. Spence. "Strange to say, for the first time in 27 years, we haven't enough unclaimed baggage to make a sale of."

BOY SENSELESS IN GASOLINE TANK

FOLKESTONE, Nov. 9—A 16-year-old youth, George John O'Brien, of Cheriton, near Folkestone was found unconscious in a petrol storage tank in a siding at Folkestone Junction railway station by an employe of the firm owning the tank.

The man, W. Barton, was walking through the yard when he heard a strange noise in the tank, which is six feet from the ground, and found the boy inside. He had to dive in to get O'Brien out.

After receiving oxygen O'Brien recovered consciousness, but has not yet been able to tell the police how he came to get into the tank.

Old Country Is Forging Ahead

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 9—Business conditions in Great Britain are showing a great improvement although taxation is fairly heavy, stated H. W. Harding, former European Secretary of the Canadian National Railways in London, England, and now retired, who with Mrs. Harding was a passenger on the Ocean Limited en route to Halifax where they took passage on the Canadian National liner "Lady Drake" for the round trip to British Guiana, following which they will sail from Halifax for the Old Country. Mr. Harding has been on a visit to a sister living in Wallaceburg, Ont. The railways in Great Britain, Mr. Harding said, have had to contend with severe competition from highway traffic, so much so that they have been compelled to undertake this form of transportation in some cases themselves. Questioned with regard to possibilities of armed conflict, Mr. Harding remarked that when he left England five weeks ago there was very little thought given to the matter and the general feeling is that the possibility of a war breaking out is very remote.

Farmer in India Has Prototype

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Que., Nov 8—The human animal, apparently, is the same all over the world. During the period of the world's prosperity states the Agricultural Department of the Canadian National Railways agriculture in India was a thriving industry with high prices prevailing for practically all agricultural commodities and the earnings of the farmer were increased accordingly. With more money to spend the Indian farmer indulged in his favorite pastime, lawsuits, and more money went into dress and expensive foodstuffs and very little into land improvements, better feeding of cattle and better housing, with the result that, with the arrival of the depression cycle, he was not in a position to meet it.

Following the depression cycle there was a lowering of prices of agricultural produce and consequent reduction in purchasing power of the rural population, which constitutes 90 per cent of the total.; It also led to serious maladjustments in transactions between landowners, tenants and laborers. Landowners who borrowed money for cultivation expenses found themselves in many cases without the means to repay. The evil was accentuated by the higher standard of living developed in years of prosperity, although, with regard to the poorer classes, the low prices for agricultural commodities has alleviated their situation.

The Imperial Council of Agricultural Research in India has been directing a great deal of their work towards the successful improvement of varieties of crops and this, in turn, is contributive towards further improvement in agricultural methods. The last fifteen or twenty years have been a period of remarkable progress in agricultural improvement in India, according to the biennial report of the council.

Virus Disease

The first discovery of a "virus disease" was made in 1892 by Iwanowski, a Russian botanist. He discovered that the juice from tobacco plant infected with mosaic disease still retained the power of infecting healthy tobacco plants after the juice had been passed through a filter the pores or holes of which were too fine to allow any microscopic organisms to pass.—Scottish Journal of Agriculture.

Simple Rules for LOSING FAT

Common sense will do far more for you than any so-called panacea for taking off unhealthy extra fat. Just live sensibly. You don't need to starve yourself. Eat enough to satisfy the demands of your body, but just be careful not to eat as many sweet, starchy foods, such as potatoes, sweet desserts, fat meats, etc. And, above all, be sure of complete elimination of body wastes.

Don't just take it for granted that there's nothing wrong with your eliminative system because your habits are regular. Regularity deceives thousands who, if they only realized it, could enjoy perfect health and proper weight all the time.

Once or twice each week enjoy a bracing, sparkling glass of Andrews Liver Salt. Andrews will help Nature to effect complete elimination, and so will help your body to throw off unwanted and unhealthful weight.

The occasional sparkling glass of Andrews Liver Salt will purify and invigorate your whole system and ward off the "little ills". It will prevent those days of heavy body weariness and periodic attacks of headaches and indigestion. And it will help Nature bring you down to your proper weight.

Try this common-sense way to get rid of surplus, body-wearying fat. Eat moderately and take Andrews occasionally. Ask your druggist for Andrews Liver Salt. In tins, 35c and 60c. New, large bottle, 75c. Sole Agents: John A. Huston Co., Ltd., Toronto. 6

GOLDEN JUBILEE SERVICES

Murray Harbor North Presbyterian Church celebrated on Oct. 25th its Golden Jubilee of its present edifice. The Murray Harbor North congregation came into being on July 6, 1806, when Rev. James MacGregor, D.D., landed at Murray Harbor North, coming from Pictou to (Three Rivers) now known as Georgetown and thence to Murray Harbor. On this occasion he preached two sermons in the home of Mrs James Irving, a Dumfreisshire Presbyterian. Rev. Neil MacKay mentions in the memoir of the Rev. James MacGregor that at the time of Mr. MacGregor's first visit to Murray Harbor there were only three actual settlers, besides a number of fishers employed in the fishing industry, established in 1805 by Mr. Cambridge. The fishers at that time were living in Mr. Cambridge's store. This point is now known as Murray Harbor North.

From Rev. James MacGregor's own notes we learn that he preached two sermons in Murray Harbor on July 6, 1806 and then proceeded to the home of Mr. William Graham, seven miles distant, where he preached one discourse and returned to Georgetown.

The original church was built about half a mile east of the Cambridge store, and was about five miles south of Mr. Graham's home. This original church, situated on the South East end of Prince Edward Island, served a large community until 1883, when the congregation divided and built two new churches to serve the same community.

At that time the Murray Harbor North new church was built two miles north east of the old sight. And the sister church was built about two miles north and two miles west of the old sight. This church is known as Peters Road Church.

From this small beginning of three permanent settlers in the Cambridge vicinity, and a similar number in the vicinity of the home of Mr. Graham, the Presbyterian cause has grown into two large congregations, consisting of ninety families, and one hundred and fifty-six communicants. The charge conducts three Sabbath Schools, the third being held in the Cambridge Hall, midway between the two churches. The three Sabbath Schools meet in Cambridge Hall once a year. That is on Rally Day. At the 1933 Sabbath School Rally Day service there were in attendance about three hundred and fifty children and adults.

The Murray Harbor North Manse, which is a modern twelve-roomed edifice, is beautifully situated among the Prince Edward Island evergreens, located about half a mile from the waterfront, with the church facing it on the opposite side of the highway, are built on a fifty acre lot which was donated to the congregation in 1849 by a Mr. Samuel Cunard, one of the original British landlords of Prince Edward Island.

The Golden Jubilee services have been a real inspiraion to the Presbyterian people of the congregation and vicinity. A large choir of thirty voices rendered most suitable music for the occasion and were the recipients of many sincere compliments.

On Monday evening the congregation and friends assembled at the church for a sumptuous supper, followed by a program of sacred vocal and instrumental music and congratulatory addresses from the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island.

A birthday cake with fifty lighted candles was in evidence as the opening of the program. The occasion was the largest and one of the most inspiring events in the history of the vicinity, and is the golden milestone gleaming on the path of Holy service of the long list of faithful ministers who have served the cause of Christ in this vicinity of whom the following are mentioned, Rev. James MacGregor, D.D., is mentioned as the first missionary and founder of the cause. Following him is mentioned Rev. Robert Douglas, as missionary previous to 1830. Rev. Daniel McCurdy is mentioned as the first settled minister from 1830 to 1833, Rev. Hugh Ross from 1840, Rev. Neil Bethune 1850 and earlier, Rev. Neil MacKay 1855, Rev. Hugh MacMillan to 1866, Rev. Stephen G. Lawson 1869 to 1874, Rev. Ernest S. Bayne 1876 to 1884, Rev. Alexander Roulston 1885 to 1891, Rev. Alexander King 1893 to 1894, Rev. John G. Cameron 1895 to 1897, Rev. John Gillis 1897 to 1900, Rev. D. J. MacDonald 1901 to 1902, Rev. Andrew Gray 1905 to 1913, Rev. Archibald Sutherland 1914 to 1920, Rev. J. S. McKay 1921 to 1923, Rev. Peter Watson Currie 1930 to 1931, Rev. J. H. Douglas 1933. The present minister and by whom the morning and evening service were conducted at the above anniversary.

Presbytery Of United Church Of Canada

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island of the United Church of Canada met in regular quarterly session in Heartz Hall, Charlottetown, on Tuesday, November 7th, with the Chairman, Mr. Horace Wright, presiding. There were thirty-four ministers and some twenty lay representatives in attendance. The minutes of last session were approved as printed. A lengthy docket of business was submitted by the Secretary for the consideration of the Court.

At twelve noon a half hour devotional period was led by the chairman. Rev. T. R. Goudge spoke on Christian Patriotism. Ill-guided patriotism is often the cause of a great deal of trouble. Our duty to God, our Church and our Country sometimes seems to conflict. Our task is to give expression to our patriotism in a christian way, first, by building up a spirit of world friendship, second, by building up a spirit of fairness in industrial life, and third by striving to build the Kingdom of God in all spheres of life.

Rev. G. N. Somers, Chairman of the Committee on the Examination of Students, submitted his report at the beginning of the afternoon session. The report contained a brief account of the summer work of the students and their present academic standing. The following were recommended, Elmer Ashley, Wilfred Boothroyd, Garland Brooks, Gordon Darrach, J. Austin Jardine, L. D. MacDonald, Norman N. Mitchell, Lewis M. Murray, W. C. Picketts, Alfred Seaman, Jack Sheen, Roy E. Webster, Harold K. Wright.

At 2.30 Miss Nora Bateson addressed the Court on the great advantages of the Carnegie libraries to our province. A unique opportunity is provided through the schools, Young People's Societies, Women's Institutes and other community groups for the securing of good books and the forming of study groups. The books consist chiefly of modern biography, travel, history, economics, practical books on farming, and fiction. At the branch recently opened at Montague an average of 250 books a week have been circulated, seventy of which are non-fiction. The thanks of the Presbytery was extended Miss Bateson for her excellent and informative address.

Rev. G. A. Christie reported on the remit re moderator's term of office. Four suggestions were submitted: 1. That two moderators be elected at each General Council; 2. That the term be extended eight years; 3. That the term of office be four years with the possibility of re-election for another four years, and 4, that the term be two years as at present with the possibility of re-election for another two years. The majority report of the committee favoured the first suggestion. A vote of the Presbytery revealed 14 for and 25 against the first proposition, none favored the second, 14 voted for the third, and 15 voted for and five against the last proposal.

Rev. F. E. Boothroyd presented the Home Missions report, with visitations as follows: Belle River, Rev. T. R. Goudge; Bradalbane, Rev. W. S. Loring; Covehead, Rev. Thos. Palethorpe; Georgetown, Rev. G. G. Pringle; Hampton, Rev. A. R. Wallis; Montrose, Rev. A. B. Weir; Richmond Bay East, Rev. L. B. Campbell; West Cape, Rev. J. A. Nicholson, and Winsloe, Rev. G. A. Christie. Rev. W. S. Loring submitted the Foreign Missions report.

The following recommendations were adopted: 1. That ministers be urged to preach a missionary sermon at least every three months. 2. That a systematic exchange of pulpits be arranged in behalf of the M. & M. Fund. 3. The Record in every home, and 4, the need for special study groups.

The Chairman spoke on the great need for relief for Western Canada and asked that all communications be addressed to Dr. McLaughlin, Wesley Bldgs., Toronto, stating date and place and free transportation will be provided for carload lots. Quite a number of cars have already gone forward from the Island. In many instances it was a community project. Rev. G. A. Christie reported for the M. & M. Fund and stated that the total amount sent by this Presbytery was $6,472.45 out of a $22,075 allocation. Some twenty charges have made some contribution, seven have not yet forwarded any amount for 1933.

An application for a change in the pastoral relations was received from Rev. C. N. Brown and was transmitted to the Settlement Committee.

Rev. D. M. Sinclair reported briefly for the Christian Education Committee. In a short time a letter from the Maritime executive re young people's work will be sent out to the ministers of Presbytery.

A committee of three was appointed to consider the needs of thePresbytery Fund and to revise the rules governing the fund.

Presbytery closed with the benediction by the Chairman, to meet again at the call of the executive.

"NEVER SCOLD EITHER A MAN OR A DOG," SAYS AGED WOMAN DOCTOR

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8— From experience acquired during three marriages and a long life—she says she's 109 years old—Dr. Charlotte Davenport philosophized today on love and diet.

Visiting the Philadelphia Board of Trade which is commemorating its 100th anniversary, the Russian philosopher talked rapidly, vivaciously and caustically of how happy marriages are made and about the necessity for simple eating.

"Happy marriages," she said, "aren't the result of accident, but the planning of a woman. Let a woman begin with a man's stomach, tickle his palate and then concentrate on praise of his hair—his greatest vanity."

Emphasizing her remarks by pounding on the arm of her chair, she warned:

'Never marry for money and never scold either a man or a dog. If he needs correction—and they usually do—accomplish this by little object lessons that make the whole incident ridiculous."

Dr. Davenport—she acquired her M. D. in Vienna—says she is as young as her 61-year old husband, a writer living in St. Louis.

Vicar—I hear you're going to marry Colonel Attom, Mrs. Watson. He's a fine, noble fellow, every inch a soldier, born to command.

Mrs. Watson—H'm. Well, we'll see about that, Padre, we'll see about that.

Goes on Retired List

LONDON, Nov. 8—Known as the "Tally-Ho V.C." and stated to have been the first British soldier to enter an enemy trench in the Great War near Mons, Col. John Vaughan Campbell, was today placed on the retired list under the age limit and granted the honorary rank of Brigadier.

Col. Campbell earned the soubriquet because he rallied his men under enemy machine gun fire by blowing a hunting horn and giving the traditional hunting-cry. Now 58 years of age, he served throughout the South African and the Great Wars. He was given the D.S.O. in 1900, the V.C. in 1916 and made a Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in 1918, as well as receiving mention in despatches and earning the Queen's Medal with six clasps and the King's Medal with two clasps.

He commanded the Coldstream Guards from 1923 to 1927

GIRL WRITER "CRASHES" MALE MAGAZINE

SEATTLE, Nov 8—A former Seattle girl has "crashed" the pages of a New York poetry magazine, which was to be run by men, written by men and read by men only.

The editors, going over manuscripts for their first issue liked one by A. Wurdemann, a masculine-sounding "virile" poem. After they had mailed a cheque and published it, they found it was written by Miss Audrey Wurdemann, who has been in New York the past six months.

And, after seeing her picture, they published that, too.
