DOUBLE OR NOTHING IS CLOTHES THEME

NEW YORK —"Double or nothing" was the theme and double duty the idea expressed by Mary Lewis and her college shop advisers at the fall opening.

Campus costumes displayed reflected these assets in back-to-school wardrobes.

A white-tweed blazer, worn with grey flannels, opened the show. Men's fabrics in women's styles, another Mary Lewis specialty, appeared as an essential in sport clothes of the college world.

A group of pinafores, worn with sport or dressy blouses, made a doubleup combination for a full day, at school. One of the most attractive, and certainly the most grown-up, was a bright red pinafore with peasant trim around the sleeve and neckline. It was shown with a white long sleeved blouse. The neck was gathered and high, edged with white narrow lace. The sleeves had the same treatment.

Wide-wale corduroys held their own amidst all the ruffy, ultra-young jumpers, and were shown in jacket-and-skirt and jacket-and-slack combinatons. A Daniel Boone suede jacket was brown fringed at the sleeve and across the bust-line. Worn with slacks or skirts, it, too, expressed the "double" idea.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOHN B. R. LEA

The passing of Mr. John B. R. Lea on Wednesday July 21st, brought to a close the life of an honored and respected citizen whose quiet, kindly personality made many friends for him in the various localities where he resided.

He was the son of the late William C. Lea and his wife, Rebecca Reid, and was born at the homestead on the Lower Tryon Road on April 1st, 1863. He spent the greater part of his life in Victoria where he was an up-to-date and progressive farmer, an expert breeder of live stock, specializing in Registered Holstein cattle..

He was a member of the Methodish Church and later, after union, of the United Church of Canada, and he loyally supported the work of the church as well as any movement for the betterment of the community. His sweet tenor voice enriched the music in the Victoria Church where he was always in his place in the choir. His upright, unassuming life was a quiet influence for good to all who were privileged to know him. He was a good neighbor, a true friend and a kind and loving husband, and father.

He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Hattie Collett of Victoria. To this union three sons were born: H. Rexford, with the firm of Simpson and Lea, in the Hide and Fur business in Calgary; Harry W., Director of the Wartime Bureau of Scientific and Technical Personnel in Ottawa; and Crilly B., a member of the firm of Lea and MacFarlane in Murray Harbor.

Mr. Lea's second wife was Miss Margaret Craswell of Rustico who died in 1921. After her death he made his home with his son Crilly and his wife, for a number of years in Summerside, and later in Murray Harbor where his death took place.

During his illness he was tenderly cared for by his son and daughter-in-law. He leaves to cherish his memory, besides his three sons four grand children and the following brothers and sisters W. S. and R. S. Lea, consulting engineers of Montreal, Mrs. Edward Boswell, Victoria, Mrs. E. B. Windsor, at present in Victoria, also a number of neices and nephews and a circle of relatives and friends to all of whom sincere sympathy is tendered. Three brothers predeceased him: Herbert, Harry and Hon Walter M. Lea, former premier of the Province.

His funeral, which was very largely attended took place on Friday, July 23rd. There was a short service at the home in Murray Harbor, conducted by Rev. W. C. Picketts. The hymn sung was Peace Perfect Peace. The pall bearers were Messrs Frank MacFarlane, R. P. Brooks, E. H. MacKinnon, and Lorne Buell.

In Victoria the service was held at 4 P. M. in the United Church which was filled with neighbors and friends from far and near. The pastor, Rev. R. Vessey, conducted the service and Rev. D. J. Morrison of Bradalbane delivered the address, bringing a message of comfort. The choir, assisted by friends of the deceased from Carleton, Tryon, Albany and Hampton led in the singing of hymns which he had loved, and sung many times—Unto The Hills, Jesus, The Very Thought Of Thee, and The Sands Of Time Are Sinking. An appropriate solo, Coming Home At Twilight, was sympathetically sung by Mrs. Helen Bell, with accompaniment softly played by Mrs. Vernon MacLeod.

Beautiful flowers testified to the loving rememberance of family and friends.

The pall bearers were Messrs Webster Boulter, William Lea, Brent Wood, Miner MacNevin, Henry Rogerson and H. R. Profit. Interment was in the cemetery of St. John's Anglican Church, Crapaud.

New Evidence Of Jap Haste In Quitting Kiska

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23 —(AP) —Canadian and American troops consolidating their conquest of the Aleutian Islands, are spreading out from Kiska to islands adjacent to that once front enemy air and submarine base.

The allied forces have landed on Segulawn Island of about 25 square miles, some 20 miles east of Kiska.

A Navy Department communique reported today that the landing was made "with no Japanese being found."

On Kiska itself the Canadian and American troops are taking over and improving the installations left by the enemy when they fled shortly before Allied troops landed a week ago.

Indications continued to be uncovered of hasty evacuation. On the Marine railway at the Japanese-constructed submarine base three midget submarines were found. There was evidence of efforts, only partially successful, to destroy them with demolition bombs.

Ultimately that submarine base as well as the Japanese-built airfield at Kiska will be turned against the enemy, used as stepping stones on the northern route to Japan through Paramushiro and the Kurile Islands. Already allied bombers flying out of the Aleutians have struck three times at Paramushiro, major Japanese base on the northern end of the Kurile Chain of which Japan itself is a part.

A Chinese call for new blows at Japan now was published today in the Chungking press. Saying that delay is dangerous, Ta Kung Pao suggested: "Let Attu and Kiska be the jumping boards for an offensive against the heart of Japan."
