the Hustings in crowds to vote for their feeders will be stigmatized as so many Esaus, selling the invaluable birthright of a Britain "Independence" for a mess of pottage.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—Few subjects more interested us than the very able lecture to which we, in common with a very large and respectable audience listened to, as delivered by the Rev. J. Brewster, in the Temperance Hall, on Thursday last. The subject chosen was the evils that beset our youth and the remedy provided by the merciful hand of a long suffering God. The lecturer was most happy in his illustrations and sound and scriptural in his exhortations; and the earnestness with which he pleaded with the young for their reception of the Gospel, that they might be a blessing to their homes, to their country, to the world, will we hope be long and prayerfully remembered.

It was announced that this concluded the winter's course of lectures, but that the Committee would endeavour occasionally to secure the services of lecturers, and of which due notice would be given.

We are indebted to COLONEL FAVOR for late Boston Papers.

We had the pleasure of hearing our friend Watson Duchemin's new Organ a few evenings since. It is a powerfully toned instrument and well suited for a Church or Chapel. Could it not be procured for the Temperance Hall. Its tones skilfully elicited, would attract many, and serve as an agreeable variation.

We saw fresh Herrings yesterday for the first time this season.
