Polish Members Draw Protest

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — President Ngo Dinh Diem has sent letters to 92 chiefs of state and Pope John of the Roman Catholic Church protesting the conduct of Polish representatives on the International Control Commission, the government announced Thursday.

Foreign Minister Vu Van Mau told a press conference the Polish delegation on the commission has been "discredited" because it never acted impartially but always in the interests of the Communist bloc.

Mau hinted South Viet Nam might boycott the three-nation commission which was created in 1954 to oversee the Geneva settlement of the Indochina war. India and Canada are the other two members

The commission maintains inspection teams in North and South Viet Nam which are supposed to report on infractions of the 1954 settlement
