OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

PROPERTY PURCHASED — Mr. A. K. MacPhee, merchant, has purchased the property corner of Prince and Dorchester streets where he conducted a grocery business for some years from Mr. A. A. Stewart, Southport.

MENTIONED IN DISPATCHES —In the list published Saturday reference to John William Armstrong, should have read "Armstrong, John William Sergeant Major, W.O. 1, step-son of Mr. Charles Stewart, 156 Kent Street, Charlottetown.

—CONDITION IMPROVES—Mr. James A. Morrison, who is a patient in the Prince County Hospital following an accident in Montreal, was reported much improved last night. Mr. Morrison arrived home on Wednesday night and later entered the hospital. He had been in Montreal on a business trip and had been hit by a taxi while crossing a street. He suffered a serious gash in his head necessitating thirteen stitches. He was taken to a hospital there and later released. S

L. OF C. SING SONG — Another enjoyable sing song was held at the Knights of Columbus Home last night, attended by large numbers of servicemen. Special numbers included vocal solos by Miss Maureen Brown, Lac. Curran, and Miss Mary Arsenault, and violin selections by Mr. Alfred McKearney. Music for the sing song was furnished by Mrs. Joseph Dougan, Miss Marion Dougan and Mr. McKearney. Mr. D.E. Noonan was master of ceremones. A dainty lunch was served by the young ladies.

—SOCIAL EVENING — On Jan. 20th a very enjoyable and sociable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gaudet, Richmond, when about 40 members and visitors of the Immaculate Conception sub-division of the C. W. L. were entertained. After a short discussion on subjects pertaining to the activities of the League, a game of auction was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The prizes were won by Mrs. Sank Praught, Mrs. Thomas Noonan, and Mr. Leslie McDougal. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. J. DesRoches, Misses Erma and Elna Gaudet. S

The death occurred at noon yesterday at the Charlottetown Hospital of Miss Minnie MacKenzie after an illness of several weeks. She was 69 years old.

The late Miss MacKenzie was born in Vernon River, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John G. MacKenzie. Surviving her are four brothers: Charles J. of Spokane, Wash., U.S.A.; Frank A., Bangor, Maine; the Rev. W. B. MacKenzie, Kelowna, B.C.; and the Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, rector of St. Dunstan's University. There is also a niece, Dorothy, who lived with the deceased at her home, 9 Rochford Street, City.

The funeral notice will appear later.

HAZELBROOK FARMER PASSES — Mr. James Monaghan, 78-year-old farmer died at his home, Hazelbrook, on Friday. He had been in failing health for some time. A brother, John Edward, who lived on an adjoining farm, passed away in December. He is survived by his widow and by a daughter and four sons. Mrs. R. E. Shreenan of Hazelbrook is the daughter, while Sub-Inspector W. J. Monaghan of the R.C.M.P., Ottawa; Cpl. Clifford Monaghan of the United States Army; Rev. Frederick Monaghan, Kimberley, B.C., and Pte. Arthur Monaghan of the Canadian Army in Italy are the sons. The funeral will be held from St. Dunstan's Basilica on Tuesday morning.

—53RD ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffrey, St. Eleanors, were receiving congratulations from their friends and neighbours on Saturday, Feb. 3rd, it being their fifty-third wedding anniversary. Mr. Jeffrey is eighty years of age and in excellent health. He does all his own work every day, which includes attending to his fox ranch. Mrs. Jeffrey is seventy-five years of age but has not enjoyed good health for some time. Many of their neighbors called on them and they received many letters and telegrams of felicitation. A daughter, Effie, lives at home and a son, Cpl. Roscoe is stationed near with the R.C.A.F. Six other children are living abroad. S

—BROTHER OF S'SIDE WOMAN KILLED — Word was received recently by Mrs. Neil Durant, Sr., of Summerside, of the death of her brother, William Mason Campbell, a miner of California. Few particulars were received, but it was learned he was in a train accident. The late Mr. Campbell was born at Graham's Road and was the son of the late Mr. William Campbell and his wife Christie Campbell. His sister, Miss Carrie Campbell, R.N., of Portland, Oregon, went to California to make the funeral arrangements. Besides this sister there are left to mourn the following brothers and sisters on the Island: James A., Kensington; Alan, Long River; Fred and Borden, Graham's Road; Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Charlottetown, and Mrs. Neil R. Durant Sr., Summerside. It is about twenty-two years since Mr. Campbell visited his old home. S

—PURCHASES BUILDING—Mr Robert Phillips, who recently purchased the large two and a half story dwelling house at the rear of the plant of the Hall Manufacturing Company, Ltd., has had the building moved from its former site to his own property where he purposes to convert it into an up-to-date, in every way, stable for his horses, stock, and extensive equipment used in his trucking contracts. Moving the dwelling from its former site to where it now stands was a highly difficult undertaking, especially at this season of the year. One of the chief difficulties encountered was to haul it up the steep incline at the rear of the Dehydration Plant during the coldest days this winter. Mr. Albert Clow, who had the contract of moving the building, is to be congratulated on his work of placing the large building on the new site under extremely difficult conditions. S

TUESDAY

His wife (nee Kathryn MacLean) and two little boys, Donnie and LeRoy, are staying at 221 Weymouth St., City.

—BREAKS HIP IN FALL—Mrs. Leonora Smith, who is more than 80 years old, broke her hip Sunday in a fall at her home at Victoria West. Because of the condition of roads she is being treated at her home, rather than attempt to move her the almost 20 miles to the Prince County Hospital at Summerside. S

PROPERTY CHANGES HANDS — It is understood that the property on Kent Street between Horne's Garage and Frost & Wood, now occupied by Whitlock Tire Service, a Cafe and MacDonald Radio Service, has been acquired by Mr. Maurice Block from Mrs. Henry Chandler through Mr. Willard Jordan.

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of Mrs. Edward Clarke was held Tuesday, Jan. 30th at 2 o'clock from the residence of her father, Wallace Pursey, North Rustico. Service was conducted by Rev. E. F. Coffin. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Quentin and Veard Court, William Toombs, Roy Doiron, Arch Hartling, Robert Woolner. Interment New Glasgow cemetery.

—FIRE AT SUMMERSIDE — The Summerside firemen responded at 12.15 p.m. yesterday to an alarm for fire at the home of Mr. J.E. Dalton, Prince Street. The fire caught among the lathes and plaster of the kitchen near the flue. The women of the house had the blaze pretty well extinguished when the firemen arrived and completed the job with the chemical. No damage to speak of was caused by the fire but the kitchen was left in a very dishevelled condition by water, etc.—S

—WEST PRINCE HOSPITAL — West Prince Hospital, Tignish, had its first patient Tuesday, Jan. 30th, when there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Doucette (nee Yevette Chiasson) of Tignish, a daughter. She is really the first patient to enter the hospital and is receiving many compliments on the event. The work is going full swing and it can truthfully be said that everything is magnificent. The Sisters deserve praise for the way in which they are managing the hospital so satisfactorily.

"V-DAY" ARRANGEMENTS — Coun. W. R. LePage, chairman of a special committee appointed by the City Council to make necessary arrangements for Victory Day when it comes, is calling a special meeting of all members appointed by the different service clubs, fraternal associations, the several Orders, Ministerial Association, Roman Catholic Clergy, Provincial Government, Principals of schools and school trustees, etc., to arrange a suitable "V-Day" celebration. The meeting is being held Friday evening in the City Hall.

STRESSES HOSPITAL NEEDS —Overcrowded conditions in local hospitals required more immediate bed accommodation in the opinion of Dr. J. P. Lantz who spoke on the subject at the Rotary luncheon yesterday. Premier J. Walter Jones, T. C. MacNabb, past district governor of Rotary, St. John, and Rotarian W. S. Grant also commented briefly on the subject of hospitalization. Messrs. R. D. Quigley and Edwin Johnstone were appointed to attend a meeting at the City Hall on Friday evening to discuss plans for V-Day observance. Dr. E. S. Giddings and Dr. J. A. Clark were co-chairmen at the meeting.

FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of Mrs. John B. McDonald was held yesterday morning from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Patrick Murnaghan, 28 Pownal to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. K. The remains were transferred yesterday afternoon to Millview station for interment in the Catholic cemetery at Vernon River.

—S. Y. C. I. MEETING — The regular monthly meeting of the Summerside Youth Centre Inc., was held on Friday evening with a good attendance of members. It was announced that arrangements have been made with Miss Nellie Morrison, music teacher at the Summerside High School, to teach the theory of music to the members of the S. Y. C. I. band. This band was formed last fall as a bugle and drum band under the direction of Mr. Leo Coyle and Mr. Earle Simmons. They made one or two public appearances and many approving comments were heard. The band plans to be able to appear in the spring as a complete band with a full complement of instruments. It was reported that the scheme of having a member of the S. Y. C. I. on duty at the school each night is working out satisfactorily. As there are eighteen members this works out at a night every three weeks per member. Some new gymnasium equipment has been added and this, with the outside slides and rinks, are being well patronized by the youngsters. The rinks are kept in good condition, being regularly flooded. — S.

B. I. S. PROPERTY — Alterations at the former Strathcona Hotel property, 175 Grafton Street, recently acquired by the Benevolent Irish Society, are nearing completion. It is understood that Mr. Albert Wilson will occupy one part of the ground floor for his barber shop and that the remaining and larger part will be divided into two rooms to be occupied professionally by Dr. J. D. McGuigan. The upper floors will be used as private apartments. The present location of Mr. Wilson's shop is part of the site purchased for the new Y.M.C.A. youth centre.

—TRUCK HORSE KILLED — A truck horse, belonging to Mr. W. B. MacNeill, was killed by a west-bound freight train about 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the siding of Joseph Read & Co. Ltd., Summerside. The driver, a young man named Raymond Clow, was loading coal and had driven the horse and sleigh between the siding where the coal car was and the main track. When he heard the train approaching he commenced to lead the horse across the main track to safety but the sleigh had not cleared the main track when the train struck it, swinging the horse around into the engine. It was killed instantly but the driver was unharmed. S

Friends throughout the city will learn with regret of the death at her home, 236 Euston Street, Tuesday night, of Mrs Frank L. Dillon. Taken ill several months ago she underwent treatment at the P. E. Island Hospital and also received medical attention at her home, but all efforts to restore her to her wonted health failed and she passed peacefully away at her home Tuesday night.

The late Mrs. Dillon, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston of this city, was a member of Zion Presbyterian Church, and an indefatigable worker in many of the societies in connection with church work. These interests did not prevent her from giving considerable of her time to the war effort and also work in connection with the Rebekahs, of which order she was a prominent member. In addition she was vice-president for Zion Church of the Charlottetown Auxiliary of the Protestant Orphanage and was regarded by fellow-workers as a wonderful and a tremendously effective worker for the good of that institution.

Of a kindly and most friendly disposition the late Mrs. Dillon made friends quickly, enjoying a large circle.

She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, one son, Reginald, R. C. A. F., now overseas, and a daughter, (Doris) Mrs. Wilfred Smith, city.

Also surviving are four brothers, Hibbert and Reginald, Summerside; Herbert and William, city. Also a sister, Margaret, of Wakefield, Mass., who was home on a visit to her sister a short time ago, and to whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 from Zion Presbyterian Church.

ART SOCIETY MEETING — "Early Christian Art" was the subject of study and discussion by the P. E. Island Art Society at its monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John A. Fraser, 89 Upper Prince Street. Mr. A. L. Wright, exhibition director, submitted his report which revealed that more than 600 people had viewed the recent art exhibition held in the Harris Memorial Gallery. It was also announced at the meeting that Professor Stanley Royale of Mount Allison University may visit the local society in the latter part of February and show some of his work.

—IN SUPREME COURT — At a sitting of the Supreme Court in Summerside yesterday Chief Justice Thane A Campbell presided at the case of the King (appellant) vs Alfred Yeo (respondent) which was brought before the court by way of stated case. The respondent had been convicted under the Excise Act for possession of a still. It being his second offence the appeal by the Crown was on the grounds that the sentence was not as set forth in the penal statute. Judgment was reserved. As the respondent had no counsel the Court assigned Mr. J. Watson MacNaught, K.C., to argue the case. J S. DesRoches represented the appellant. —S.

An odd and fatal coincidence occurred yesterday afternoon at Argyle Shore during the funeral of Mrs. Albert A. MacDougall who died suddenly in Toronto on Feb. 1. Mr. Alan Ferguson, respected farmer and life-long resident of Hampton, was attending the funeral of the late Mrs. MacDougall, when, just before the service at the house was concluded, he was suddenly stricken and died within a few minutes.

The late Mr. Ferguson was 75 years old. His wife predeceased him four years ago. He is survived by two sons and a daughter. The eldest son, Edwin, lives on the homestead and Lorne on an adjoining farm. The daughter, Janie (Mrs. Peter Murchison), lives in Massachusetts.

ATTENDED ANNUAL MEETING — The Summerside representatives who attended the Red Cross annual meetings in Charlottetown on Tuesday were Miss Gladys Holman, Mrs. Ernest Mills who is the Director of Women's War Work in Summerside; Mrs W. F. Strong, and Mrs. Major Small. They were called upon to bear a terrific shock on Wednesday morning when they found that Miss Eleanor Green who had accompanied them to the meetings had passed away during the night in her room at The Charlottetown Hotel. The sincere sympathy of the Prince Edward Island Red Cross goes out to the late Miss Green's family and to the Summerside ladies who were her companions. Other out-of-town representatives attending the Red Cross meetings were Mrs. Charles Profitt and Mrs. Lottie Callaghan of Alberton; Mrs. McQuarrie and Mrs. Matthews from Souris; Mrs. J. A. Murphy, Emerald, Diocesan President of the Catholic Women's League, and Mrs. George Martin of New Perth, president of the P. E. I. Women's Institutes.

Miss Eleanor E. Green of Summerside died unexpectedly yesterday at the Charlottetown Hotel where she had attended the annual meeting of the Provincial Red Cross Society the previous day. She was taken ill early in the morning and died before medical aid reached her.

The late Miss Green was 75 years of age. She was born in Summerside, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H.C. Green. She was a registered nurse and at one time held the position of matron of the Lebanon Hospital, Lebanon, Penn., U.S.A.

She was an active worker in many welfare societies, such as the Red Cross, the Ladies Aid of the Prince County Hospital, and the Children's Aid Society. She was also an untiring worker in the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Anglican Church and will be greatly missed for her active interest in all church activities.

She leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs. W.B. Mills, Summerside.
