U.S. Crime Rate Nips Population

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. crime rate continued to rise faster than the population growth, with a five-per-cent increase in 1965.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's annual crime report said Wednesday serious crimes occurred at a rate of five a minute last year, with more than 2,780,000 such crimes reported.

The increase was sharpest in the suburbs, eight per cent—and in the western states—10 per cent.

The five-per-cent gain in the crime rate reflected more than 14 crimes for every 100 inhabitants of the United States.

Since 1960, the FBI said, serious crimes have increased 46 per cent while the population has grown eight per cent.

Arrests of juveniles under 18 for serious crimes have increased by 47 per cent in the last five years — nearly three times the 17-per-cent increase in the population of that age group.

In determining the rate of serious crimes, the FBI and reporting law enforcement agencies measure murder, rape, assault, robbery, burglary, larceny, and auto theft.

The rape rate showed the sharpest gain among those crimes over 1964 with 22,140 forcible rapes, for a nine-per-cent increase.

Murder, robbery, assault and burglary each increased six per cent, larceny of $50 or more eight per cent and auto theft five per cent.

The FBI report also said more than 48 per cent of 6,000 criminals released in the first half of 1963 were arrested for new crimes within two years of their release.

Expresses Satisfaction

OTTAWA (CP) — External Affairs Minister Martin has expressed Canada's satisfaction at reports that North Viet Nam has decided not to try captured American pilots for war crimes.

A message saying this development will ease tensions in Viet Nam is being relayed to Hanoi through Canadian representatives on the International Control Commission.

A spokesman for the external affairs department also disclosed Thursday that Canada is relaying messages to Hanoi from two friendly countries, which he declined to name.

He said only that the messages involved an estimated 35 downed U.S. pilots held in North Viet Nam. The Canadian government interceded with Hanoi earlier on behalf of the United States, saying the pilots should not be tried or executed on humanitarian grounds and to avoid dangerous repercussions.

Church Council Given Pledge

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—The government of North Viet Nam has sent a cable to the World Council of Churches pledging humanitarian treatment for "enemies captured in war."

It was in reply to a cable from the council July 17 appealing to Hanoi not to bring captured United States flyers to trial. The message from North Viet Nam, signed by Bui-tan-linh, acting head of secretariat at the ministry of foreign affairs, said:

"With reference to your message is wish to inform you that policy of government of democratic republic of Viet Nam towards enemies captured in war is a humanitarian policy worthy of beings, for the minister of foreign affairs."

The cable did not define whether captured U.S. airmen were regarded by Hanoi as enemies captured in war. The North Viet Nam government has previously called them war criminals.

The World Council of Churches is made up of more than 200 Protestant, Anglican, Orthodox and Old Catholic Churches in some 90 countries.

FOLLOW THAN'T'S URGING

JERUSALEM (Reuters)—Israel Thursday agreed to postpone resumption of work on the cultivation of a disputed piece of land near its border with Syria, a foreign ministry spokesman said. United Nations Secretary General U Thant this week urged Israel to defer the proposed cultivation of the land in the southern part of the demilitarized zone in order to facilitate peace talks.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	2 ♥	Pass
4 ♥

Opening lead—nine of hearts.

This hand occurred in a duplicate pair game. The contract was usually four hearts played by South, and in every case except one the declarer made either ten or eleven tricks, depending on whether he decided to play East or West for the queen of clubs.

But at one table South went down one in four hearts as the result of rather unusual defense. Most of the West players selected the king of diamonds as the opening lead against four hearts, but the West at this table hit upon the ace of hearts for his opening lead.

This did not cause dreated a up going down one problem in trumps for the declarer which did not exist at other tables. He covered the nine with the ten and won the queen with the ace. He then played the A-10 of diamonds and ruffed the diamond return.

Declarer next played a spade to the queen, an returned a low trump from dummy. When East followed with the three, South finessed on the assumption that East had sared with he Q-J-3. As a result, he lost a trump trick to the jack.

Had West not led a trump originally, South would have had no chance to go wrong and he would have avoided a trump loser by simply cashing the A-K.

Upon winning the trump trick with the jack, West cashed the ace of spades, spearing South's king. West then made the excellent play of another spade, deliberately giving South a ruff in one hand and a discard in the other.

West, who could count declarer for 2-5-2-4 distribution, knew that the ruff-discard could not possibly help South. Declarer ruffed and still had to guess the location of the queen of clubs, and it turned out that he was not equal to the ask. He decided to play West for the queen, and when East showed up with the missing damsel, he would

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
