That Whoop!

Have you had it in your house? It's cough and cough and cough, and then that terrible whoop! Don't upset the stomach more by giving nauseous medicine. Just let the child breathe in the soothing vapor of Vapo-Cresolene. It goes right to the spot that's diseased. Relief is immediate, and in a very few days the cure is complete. You can't say the same of any other treatment. For asthma, catarrh, and colds it's equally good. 14

Vapo-Cresolene is sold by druggists everywhere. The Vaporizer and Lamp, which should last a lifetime, and a bottle of Cresolene complete, $1.50; extra supplies of Cresolene 25 cents and 50 cents. Illustrated booklet containing physicians' testimonials free upon request. VAPO-CRESOLENE CO., 180 Fulton St., New York, U.S.A.

Father Burke Answers Mr. Watson.

SIR,—That my friend Mr. Watson did not "go slow and be sure of his ground", either in accusing the Ragwort of what cannot be successfully brought home to it or in answering my last letter is evident to anyone who reads the newspapers and understands the value of language. I have had some difficulty to hunt up the letter I hurriedly read and freely criticized in your paper because it blamed without any positive proofs, this plant for inducing hay fever and also the cattle disease; and having found it, I think Mr. Watson himself will have to admit that either it means nothing or what I said it did. But my friend now protests that he never connected the Ragwort in any unqualified way with either the hay fever or the cattle disease. Well here are his words:

"I infer that you are under the wrong impression that we have not growing here the plant which you mention as inducing the distressing ailment in question, hence this letter. Last year I contributed to the November number of the Prince Edward Island Magazine an article, Wolves in Sheep's Clothing, intended as a warning note against one of the suspected plants.—the Ragwort (Senecio Jacobaea) has already secured a dangerous stronghold in Prince Edward Island. It abounds in King's County, is reported as wide spread around Alberton and westward of that place and I find it spreading into widely separated localities in Queen's County. This plant is held to be a serious irritant to patients liable to attacke of hay fever and I have proved that it is the cause of what appears to be the same disease in some of the lower animals. It should therefore be exterminated.

I have not the magazine article before me, but my impression is that it was just as positive in its assertions. The war is not to be made on the Ragwort, you will remark because it is a rank feeder on the valuable plant food of the soil and hence to be destroyed on economic principles, but because it is a "serious irritant to patients liable to attacks of hay fever" (what we avert has not been proved) and because he (Mr. Watson) "has proved that it is the cause of what appears to be the same disease in some of the lower animals," equally unproven.

Now then as to the advice given us to spod and never think of the dollars coming from summer boarders, I may say that since the Ragwart has as little to do with the fever and cattle disease as spodding with summer boarders' dollars, we may well engage in the one and hope for the other in the west as elsewhere without prejudice to our public spirit.

NEWFOUNDLAND AGREES.

At Once With Canada in its Opinion of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

FORTUNE HARBOR, Nfld, Oct. 7, (Special).—However this Island and the Dominion stand on political questions, there is only theme on which they are unanimous, and that is their opinion of Dodd's Kidney Pills. In Newfoundland Dodd's Kidney Pills have duplicated their Canadian reputation. On all sides they are spoken of as a really wonderful medicine by those that have tried them, whose number increases every day.

Richard Quirk of this place writes about Dodd's Pills in the universal time of high praise.

"No tongue can tell," he says, "the pleasure I feel in being able to say that I am indeed permanently cured of my Backache by Dodd's Kidney Pills. I never imagined that any medicine could cure me of so old a complaint and am high in the praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills to everybody that comes my way."

DANGER IN PROSPERITY.

While prosperity is to be sought after and cherished there is such a thing as being two prosperous. Prosperity is full of perils, and there are breakers ahead when the country capitalizes itself to fit the inflated measure of the present times.—Philadelphia Times.

Meeting OF Presbytery At Marshfield.

At Marshfield, and within the Presbyterian Church there on Thursday, Oct. 17th, and at the hour of 2.30 p. m. which place and time the Presbytery met and was constituted, T. W McKenzie, moderator, with whom were present Messrs. A McLean Sinclair, E. Gillis, D. B. McLeod. A. Craise, W. H. Spencer, G. C. Robertson, A.T. McNeill, T. F. Fullerton, Ministers.

The undesigned was appointed clerk pro tempore. The Presbtery proceeded to the induction of Mr. W. H. Spencer. The edict having been returned as duly read, it was again read for the last time, after which Mr. McLean Sinclair conducted Divine service, preaching from Matthew 12.50. The moderator narrated the steps, put the questions of the formula, to which satisfactory replies were given, and by prayer and the right hand of fellowship, induced Mr. Spencer into the pastoral charge of St. Peter's Road, Covehead.

Messrs. Gillis and Fullerton addressed the pastor and congregation in suitable terms.

The Presbytery then dealt with the resignation of Mr. G. Robertson, of the pastoral charge of Hampton, Tryon and Bonshaw. In response to the Presbytery's citation of the session, and congregation, Messrs. J. J. McLeod, Neil Shaw. D. J. Thompson and James Robertson, were present and spoke as commissioners. They strongly emphasized the good work being done by Mr. Robertson, and expressed the wish that the Presbytery would in the interests of the congregation decline to accept the resignation. Members of Presbytery also regretted the step Mr. Robertson had taken, and hoped he would withdraw. Mr. Robertson then with consent of the Presbytery withdrew his resignation.

Mr. Gunn's resignation of the pastoral charge of Bloomfield, O'Leary and Brae having been read the clerk was instructed to cite the congregation to appear for its interests at next regular meeting.

The Presbytery then adjourned to meet in Zion Church, Charlottetown, on Tuesday the fifth day of November next at the hour of 11 a m of which public intimation was made and the siderunt was closed with the benediction.

T. F. FULLERTON.
Clerk pro tempore.
