OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

Taking great interest in the exhibition at Alberton and also meeting old friends, was Mr. James E. Birch, 90 years young. Mr. Birch is still quite well and active and takes a keen interest in the business of Alberton, although retired for some years.

—VISITORS TO THE MAINLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Ormar McGough and son, Edward, Mrs. Hanford Reeves, Summerside and Mrs. Russell Reeves of Freetown; and Mr. MacCormack of Souris were recent visitors to the mainland. During their stay they visited at Tidal Bore View Cabins and also drove over the Magnetic hill outside Moncton. On their way home they visited LeBlanc Park and St. Joseph's University and Church and were kindly shown over the buildings by Rev. Fr. Gallant.—S.

—DEATH OF MRS. REUBEN HECKBERT—Mrs. Reuben Heckbert passed away on Friday afternoon at her home in Indian River after an illness of some months. Mrs. Heckbert was 73 years of age and had resided all her married life at Indian River and was most highly esteemed for her kindly Christian character. She was a devout member of St. Mary's Church and was visited constantly by her pastor during her illness. She leaves to mourn her husband and one son, John; and a number of grand children. The funeral is taking place this morning from her late residence to Indian River Church.—S.

SAVE YOUNG BOYS FROM HARBOR—Two young, unidentified boys were saved from almost certain drowning in the harbor here Saturday by Leon Doran and Joseph Palmer of Charlottetown. The boys, about 11 and 13 years of age, were playing with a makeshift raft on the shore. The two men on the schooner Hazel, of Murray Harbor, saw the boys drifting rapidly out the harbor with the wind behind them. They were up to their knees in water, as the raft, consisting of two boards, was rapidly sinking underneath them. Shouting to the boys to hang on, the men lowered a dory in an instant and soon had the boys safely aboard.

DR. MACLEAN'S VISIT — Dr. J. D. MacLean, Chairman of the Canadian Farm Loan Board and a native of Prince Edward Island, arrived in Charlottetown Friday from Ottawa, on a brief trip of inspection of the branch offices of the Board. Referring to the work of the Board, Dr. MacLean said, that the organization was making steady progress and the loaning operations, at present, amounted to more than $32,000,000. of which, nearly $6000,000. has been loaned to the farmers of Prince Edward Island. Saturday afternoon he left for Halifax and St. John. He is accompanied by Mrs. MacLean and his son, who are making their first trip to the Maritimes. They are travelling by motor and were greatly pleased with the beauty of the Island.

A joint memorial service for departed members of their organizations was held yesterday by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Rebekah's, the Knights of Pythias, the Pythian Sisters, the Loyal Orange Association and the Loyal Orange Benevolent Association.

Members of participating orders assembled at the I. O. O. F. Hall on Richmond Street and marched first to the Cenotaph in Queen Square where a beautiful wreath was deposited in memory of Great War dead. The procession then continued on to the People's Cemetery where a service was held, presided over by Mr. George S. Ryan of the Odd Fellow Order. Wreaths were placed and an address given by the Chaplain, the Rev. Canon M. E. Malone, incumbent at St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral.

Edwin Annan and Lloyd Webster, both of Stewiacke, N. S., were in the Summerside Hospital last night suffering from injuries received when their trucks collided Saturday near Tyne Valley. Both were operating gravel trucks for the highway building project being undertaken in this district.

The vehicle operated by Annan caught fire. While he was underneath locating the trouble the truck driven by Webster smashed into the rear of the stationary one.

The left rear wheel passed over Annan's body. He received severe internal injuries and was badly lacerated about the head.

Webster was stunned by the impact. He was injured about the chest and suffered two broken ribs.

First aid was rendered by trained nurse Mrs. Horace Lidstone who lives near the scene of the accident and the men were rushed to hospital.

Both trucks were badly damaged.

Prof. Herbert A. Tanton, 75, prominent in Charlottetown music circles for many years, died at the Prince Edward Island Hospital Saturday evening after a short illness. He was stricken Friday morning and never regained consciousness.

The late Prof. Tanton was born in Charlottetown and was the youngest son of the late Mr. John P. Tanton and Pamela (Duchemin) Tanton. In early life he became proficient in music and had a long and successful career. He first studied music in his native city and then while still a young man moved to Boston where he secured employment in Howards Store while in the evenings he attended the New England Conservatory of Music, taking advanced work. While there he composed words and music, "Wandering far from Home," published by the Oliver Ditson Co.

From the Conservatory of Music he became organist in the Church of Heavenly Rest, 5th Avenue, New York. From there he was appointed organist and choirmaster of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church at Irvington on the Hudson, New York. Here it was his privilege to conduct the choir services at the wedding of Count DeCastelane and Miss Gould, an international service. One of his pupils, Master Harry Anderson, a Charlottetown boy was soloist.

Surviving are a brother, Mr. Lewis P. Tanton and a sister, Mrs. B. L. Coombs, both of this city and a large circle of dear relatives. Prof. Tanton was unmarried.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE — The marriage of Kathleen Sarah Simons, daughter of the late David Simons and of Mrs. Simons, of Thetford Mines, Que., to Dr. J. Harold Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. H. Shaw of Charlottetown, P. E. I., will take place quietly on Tuesday afternoon, September 20, at two o'clock in the Church of St. John the Divine in Thetford Mines. —(Montreal Star.)

PRESENTATION — On the eve of the departure of Miss E. Jean MacEwen, B.Sc., for Montreal, on Tuesday 6th inst., to enter the Royal Victoria Hospital for training in the nursing profession, the Young People's Society of the Marie United Church gave a farewell party and presented Miss MacEwen with a beautiful Bible accompanied by the best wishes of all. Ernest Reid, Principal of Morell School in a very thoughtful and well-worded speech made the presentation.

INJURED BY FORK—They grow a hardy race of men on the north shore of Prince Edward Island. Two days ago Ivan Somers flung a pitchfork at a mouse on his farm, at Stanley River. The tines parted from the handle and struck Willard Riley, who was standing nearby, full in the throat. The prongs pierced his neck and came out back of his ear, missing the vital parts, however. Believe it or not, "Lucky Riley" was out again working in the fields over the weekend.

GUIDE SECRETARY HERE—Miss Elsa A. Riepert, General Secretary of the Canadian Girl Guides Association is at present in the province to confer on official Guide business with the Provincial Commissioner, Mrs. J. Y. Reay. Miss Reipert spoke yesterday afternoon to a meeting of the Provincial Council and members of the Guides local associations throughout the Province at the Canadian National Hotel. She also spoke Tuesday evening to a meeting of the Guiders of the Charlottetown Companies at the Canadian Legion building here.

WINS FREE HORSE—A contest of unusual interest came to a close on Saturday evening at 10:30 P.M., when Mr. H. Burt of North River was declared the winner of a fine four-year-old English Gelding. The contest was sponsored by Mr. W. A. Rix who issued free coupons to his customers, one coupon for each one dollar cash transaction. The lucky coupon was drawn at Rix's Queen Street Grocery Store and the drawing was done by Chief of Police Birthwhistle. Mr. Rix is thoroughly pleased with the advertising value of the contest and wishes to thank the large number who made it the success it was, and extends compliments to Mr. Burt, the lucky winner.

Rotary's twenty-first birthday was celebrated last night by a dinner and dance at the Canadian National Hotel. Rotarians and their Rotary Anns had as their guests the Gyros and Gyrettes, Kinsmen and Kinsmenettes, Y's Men and Y's Menettes. An elaborate and most entertaining programme was arranged by Rotarian Arthur Cooper who acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. Mr. Cooper recalled the fact that there are three charter members of Rotary still active in the Club two of whom Dr. J. A. Clark and Walter Grant were present last night, the third charter member is Rotarian Archie Irwin. Rotary's $25.000 bursary to the student making the highest marks in the P. W. C. Entrance examination for Rural Science was awarded during the evening to Mr. Earl C. MacRae of Heatherdale.

"The one thing we need today in Canada is an understanding of one another's problems in order that we may unite for what is best for our country as a whole," declared Lt. Colonel W. W. Foster, D. S. O., of Vancouver, Dominion President of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, in the course of an eloquent address at a largely attended meeting of war veterans and others at the Prince of Wales College hall last night.

Colonel Foster, who is making his first official tour of Canada, was accompanied by Major J. R. Bowler, general secretary of the Legion.

President J. P. Hillion of the Charlottetown branch, presided, Colonel Foster being introduced by Provincial President, B. W. Robinson, Summerside.

The meeting opened with observance of a minute's silence in tribute to fallen comrades, and the recital of Laurence Binyon's moving lines beginning "They shall grow not old", by Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, D. D.

A cordial welcome to the visitors was extended by Hon. M. R. McGuigan, Minister of Education, on behalf of the Provincial Government, and by Lt. Col. R. C. Chandler, representing the Mayor and City Council.

Also preceding the guest speakers was hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, who was loudly applauded when he declared his conviction that in the event of another war involving Great Britain, Canada would stand just as loyally behind her, in manpower and resources, as she did in 1914-18.

The district of Norboro and surrounding communities were shocked to hear of the passing of James W. Stewart on Sept. 9th., at the age of 69 years.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McMahon, Rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica and brother of the groom, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

During the Mass the Ave Maria and other suitable hymns were sung by Mr. Leo Doiron accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Dougan, organist of the Basilica.

The bride who was given in marriage by her brother Peter wore a gown of pink lace and pink velvet halo hat with shoulder veil and shoes to match and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary McMahon, sister of the groom, wore a gown of aqua blue satin, velvet juliet cap with veil and shoes to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groomsman was Dr. F. Charles Dougan.

After the wedding breakfast, served at the Canadian National Hotel, the happy couple left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

—DEATH OF MISS PATIENCE INMAN—There passed away on Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Frizzell Bedeque Miss Patience J. Inman after an illness of some months. Miss Inman was a native of Bedeque and was the daughter of the late Nelson Inman. She was a woman with many fine characteristics of heart and mind which endeared her to a large circle of friends. She resided with her parents, and tenderly cared for them until their death a few years ago. Of late years Miss Inman lived alone, but always welcomed visitors to her home. When she became ill she went to live with her sister. She was a member of the United Church and was devoted to her church and did much toward the lay activities in the church. She leaves to mourn one brother, Mr. T. G. Inman, Bedeque and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Teed of Northwilmington, Mass., and Mrs. John Frizzell Bedeque. The funeral took place from the United Church on Thursday afternoon and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. George Somers, assisted by Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson. The palbearers were Messrs. Calvin Leard, Horace Wright, Albert Wright, Leonard Schurman, Howard Schurman and Stirling Tucker. S.
