KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone Manager, and in Souris, Percy G. Seaman, Manager.

MISS PEARL VANIDESTINE, of Montague, left yesterday for Calgary, where a good position awaits her as typewriter and stenographer.

ADVERTISERS and subscribers in Souris and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for The Guardian to P. G. Seaman, the company's agent at that place.

LATE news from A. G. Cameron, of Montague, states that he is in charge of the Oxford Troop of Imperial Yeomanry in camp at Churn Berks, "The King's Colonial Camp". It is understood Mr. Cameron has been offered a commission in the King's Colonial Imperial Yeomanry; Congratulations, Art.

PRINCE Edward Lodge, No. 95, I. O. G. T., held a very enjoyable meeting on Tuesday evening Aug. 6, when the following officers were duly installed: Chief Templar, E. I. Chaffey; Past Chief Templar, M. B. Swallow; Vice Templar, Lelia Dingwell; Fin-Secy, Albert C. Myers; Treasurer, Lydia J. Chaffey; Chaplain, Matilda McDonald; Secretary, Joseph Chaffey; Asst-Secy, L. B. Swallow; Marshal, Sarah J. Swallow; Deputy Marshal, Elizabeth Chaffey; Guard, D. B. Swallow; Sentinel, Arthur McDonald.

WILLIAM McKie and family of East Boston, have been making a partial tour of the provinces in their beautiful automobile. They paid Souris a short visit and while there were the guests of J. G. and Mrs. Sterns, Heberdale. Mr. McKie carries on a large shipbuilding business and is also superintendent of the boats of the Eastern division of the Consolidated Steamship Co., which includes the line of new turbiners now plying between St. John and Boston. He may well be classed among the successful Islanders abroad.

THE Guardian's Eastern correspondent writes:—Haymakers are working under difficulties on account of the wet.—Fair catches of hake are made from Basin Head west. The quality is good. Moderate quantities of mackerel have been hooked on the old mackerel ground, the sandy bottom off West River and South Lake, but comparatively few men are engaged in this branch at present, as the results have been unsatisfactory for the last few years.—For the first time in the history of this section there is not a vessel in these waters looking for mackerel. Not many years ago hundreds of vessels ploughed the waters of the Gulf every summer. Nearly every harbor on the New England coast was represented from Eastport to Cape Cod. Nova Scotian sent many vessels, while schooners from Georgetown, Charlottetown and Rustico were found and the fleet, but the purse seine was invented, hundreds of barrel were taken at one mighty scoop, the fish were annihilated, the Nova Scotia and Island fleets dwindled to nothing and silence and gloom now brood over the waters.—Miss John Keefe of Boston is the guest of Mrs. Maynard Fraser.—Miss Stewart of Roseneath, late of Vancouver, who has been spending some time with Miss Edith McDonald has returned to Roseneath.—Wilfrid and Selden McLean have enlarged their premises, installed a gasoline engine, and are making every preparation to look after their rapidly increasing business.—New bridges have been completed at Scott's and North River, under the competent foremanship of Theodore Stewart.

SCHR. "DIANTHUS" is discharging a cargo of hard coal at Montague for McKinnon Bros.

ADVERTISERS and subscribers in Montague and vicinity are asked to hand all matters for The Guardian to Capt. W. A. Johnstone, the company's agent at that place.

A VERY interesting event took place on the evening of the 24th July, at the home of the bride's parents, when William Freeman Bowley, of St. Peter's Bay, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie May Morrow; the ceremony being performed by the Rev. G. Beaming, Baptist minister of Kingsboro Church, Lot 47. Miss Emma Bowley was maid of honor, the groom being ably supported by Allan Webster. The presents were both expensive and numerous amounting to one hundred and fifty pieces. The bridal party left North Lake early the following morning for St. Peter's Bay, the future home of the bride and groom, arriving there at 7.30 p.m., where about forty guests sat down to supper. The presents came in as if carried by a stream till over one hundred pieces adorned the tables; all indicating the popularity of both bride and bridegroom. A very enjoyable evening was spent, the blending of music and song adding to the joyous occasion.—Com.

ADVERTISING IS BROAD.

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is rather synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupied space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; nor can any funds expended to this end be adjudged extravagant.—American Medical Journ

The Guardian is in receipt of a copy of the King's County Exhibition Prize List for this year. The list is completely arranged and classified and liberal prizes are offered in the different classes. The exhibition is to be held at the Drill Shed and Exhibition Grounds, Georgetown, on October third.

Sgt. W. E. Edwards, Sgt. Wm. Stanway, Sgt. Geo Stanway, Sgt. Henry Nelson, Sgt. Weston Newberry, Sgt. Windsor Kennedy, Sgt. H. Fitzsimmons, all of this city, leave tomorrow morning for Halifax, N. S., for a three months course in the Medical Training School in connection with the Charlottetown Medical Corps.

Mrs. D. T. Fraser, of Kingston, P. E. Island, has been a very successful exhibitor and prize winner of hooked mats at the provincial exhibitions. She was advised by some lady friends to send the rug that was awarded first prize at the last exhibition to the exhibition held in Toronto by the Ladies Art Association of the Dominion. There it carried off the prize and was then purchased by them for a handsome sum to be sent to the World's Fair to be held in Australia. This is a very complimentary manner of showing Mrs. Fraser's cleverness in this line of work and it must be gratifying to all Prince Edward Islanders to know that a lady of this province excels in such a marked degree in this department of domestic industry.
