Poetry.

TO AN ABSENT FRIEND.

A soft breeze is lifting the curl from my brow—
A sweet voice is murm'ring all softly and low—
A warm lip is pressing a fond kiss on mine,
And soft starry eyes wear a radiance like thine.

The voice breathes sweet comfort, and peace to my heart
The eyes to my spirit a gladness impart,
Their soft, tranquil depths, fond affection reveal,
And the tones o' my heart's chords, like melody steal.

As a dream of his home to the exile afar—
As to the night's dreky hour, one bright beaming star—
As the moon's silvery smile to a tempest-tossd sea,
Is thy love, cherished one! in this dark world to me!

As the flower at eve from its chalice sends up
The perfume enshrined in its dew-laden cup;
As a bird's thrilling song, when from bondage set free,
My full soul would pour forth its blessings on thee.

I know 'tis a dream, and will soon fade away,
And leave me to mourn the sweet vision's decay;
I know that 'mid strangers, my footsteps now rove,
Afar from the home of my heart's deepest love.

But at night's silent hour, fond thoughts shall wing,
Our prayers sweetly blending among the stars in the skies!
And angels shall guide thee, our brightest and best,
Like the wandering dove to our sheltering nest!

HEART-WISDOM.

'Tis weak to pine for pleasures past, or scorn
To hard their leaves still green in memory.
Our happiest days, like the sweetest of the year, must die:
The winds that take the blossom, leave the thorn;
To some hard trouble all of us are born.
Blessed the day that's past without a sigh;
Blessed a day with sighs,—if we can dry
The tears of those who have more cause to mourn.

How many hate, who might each other love,
Did they but judge those living, as if dead,—
Stretched cold before them with dim stony eyes
Divine for them all the sense above
Is one forgiving word in kindness said,—
One loving look that in the memory lies.

This description of a handsome woman is by Mason:

"Where'er with soft serenity she smiled,
Or caught the orient blush of quick surprise,
How sweetly mutable, how brightly wild
The liquid lustre darted from her eyes!
Each look, each motion, marked a new-born grace,
That e'er her form its transient glory cast,
Some lovelier wonder soon usurped the place,
Chased by a charm still lovelier than the last."

Miscellaneous Varieties.

CHARACTER.

A mistep may destroy life. One sin may ruin your character. Did you ever reflect on the consequences of a single indulgence in vice? The best of men have fallen through the suggestion of another. How careful should you be, while in the freshness of your youth, lest a blight fall on your character and ruin you for ever. Abstain from the appearance of evil. If invited to places of resort, where it is difficult to decide, take the safe course, stay away, and save your reputation. This is a jewel of inestimable value—too precious to be put in jeopardy. No man ever regrets that he kept aloof from temptation, and to the close of life he expresses his joy that he was saved from the path of shame, by giving a decided negative, when the voice of pleasure beckoned him on. Be decided, and you will be safe. Yield and you may be lost. Watch with diligence, and guard every avenue through which sin may reach you. In no other way, will you be sure to overcome the evil of the world.

Faint-hearted men are found in business, in politics, in religion, and in all things. The faint-heart in business gives up at the first headlaw, and mopes about the street, a broken-hearted man the world was no world. In politics, the faint-heart has no faith in second hests. In religion, the faint-heart begets a misanthropic spirit, and forgets the "good time coming." In all other things, the faint-heart is worth nothing to advantage. It is dastardly, and begets dastardly. In time of prosperity, it is all enthusiasm, wild fanatic—insane. In lowery skies, it hides itself, as does the timid hen at the sight of a hawk.—The faint-heart never has redressed an abuse, righted a wrong, brought order out of "disorder and confusion," nor does a single good thing. The world owes it nothing and never will.

The Power of a Tear.—Miss Bremer says, "In the dreadful year of famine here (Dalecarlia), 1838, there came to me one day a Dalman, from another parish, and said to me, 'Sell me a few tons of straw.' The man was one of the great stalwart figures, which you can seldom see, except here; yet he had evidently suffered for want of food. He had drawn his hat with its broad rim deep over his face. 'I cannot sell the straw,' said I, at his entreaty: 'I have not more than I shall need for myself, and the poor of my own parish.' "Sell but one ton,' implored he. 'Not even that can I,' I replied: 'that which I have left I must carefully preserve for myself and my people. 'Half a ton then, persisted the Dalman, pressingly. 'It grieves me,' said I, 'but not a single half ton can I spare thee.' The huge fellow took a step nearer to me, said not a word, but lifted his hat above his head, and gazed fixedly upon me; he met me see that he wept. The sight of this anguish I could not sustain. 'Come with me,' said I, 'thou shalt have what thou wilt. He followed me, and got the straw that he wanted. 'If this were for myself,' he said, 'I should be not probably been here, for, if we men suffer and endure want, it is no more than our sins deserve, and we can and ought to bear it; but the poor animals—what can they have done amiss?'

The Language of Young Ladies.—The Rev. A Peabody, in an address before the Newburyport Female School which has been published, enlarged upon the use of exaggerated, extravagant forms of speech—saying splendid for pretty, magnificent for handsome, horrid or horrible for unpleasant, immense for large, thousands of myriads for any number more than two. "Were I," he says, "to write down, for one day, the conversation of some young ladies of my acquaintance, and then to interpret it literally, it would imply that, within the compass of twelve or fourteen hours, they had met with marvellous adventures and hair-breath escapes, had passed through more distressing experiments, had seen more imposing spectacles, had endured more fright, had enjoyed more rapture, than would suffice for a dozen common lives."

Real and Ideal.—Dow, Jr., in one of his discourses, in which he describes the contrast between semblance and reality, hits off a ball scene:

"A woman" says he, "may not be an angel, though she glides through the mazes of the dance like a spirit clothed with a rainbow, and studded with stars. The young man behold his admired object on the morrow in the light of reality, perchance emptying a wash tub in the gutter, with frock pinned up behind—her cheek pale for the want of paint—her hair massed and mossy, except what lies in the bureau; and her whole contour wearing the appearance of an angel rammed through a brush fence, into a world of wretchedness and woe."

In 1852 Russia will celebrate, throughout the vast expanse of her empire, the completion of five thousandth year of national existence; which will be kept with all the solemnity due to the importance of the event. The Russian empire was founded in 852—in which year the Russians or Rossians, probably of Scandinavian origin, made their appearance on the shores of the Bosphorus, as Warangians.

In Paris, the Government is making an effort to place duelling out of fashion, by strictly compelled the survivor in an affair of honor to be present at the post mortem examination of his victim, and witch the proceedings.

In the condition of men, it frequently happens that grief and anxiety lie hid under the golden robe of prosperity, and the gloom of calamity is cheered by secret ruditations of hope and comfort, as in the works of nature, the bog is sometimes covered with flowers, and the mine concealed in the barren crags.

Noses from the half from the ears of your horses. It is placed there to assure to protect the orifice and drum of the ear from insects, from sudden gaddings of the weather.

One pound of fish will go much more profit than two kept on the same fodder. This will also apply to other stock.

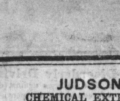
JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF



CHERRY AND LUNGWORT,

FOR THE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

Consumption can be and has been cured,

in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy.

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT, and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly

Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wonderful remedy, and are now as well and healthy as ever. It is a compound of medicinal roots which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates a harsh difficult cough, relieves the cough and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by expectoration, producing a delightful change in the breathing and cheat, and this, after the prescription of the very best medical men and the advice of kind and sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for inveterate lungs. It contains no deleterious drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent to us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, (we will show them to any person, calling at our office.) This medicine will speak for itself and through its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper round the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

To Owners of and Dealers in Horses.

CARLTON'S FOUNDER OINTMENT.

For the cure of Founder, Split Hoof, Hoof-bound Horses, and contracted and Sore Heels, Wounds, Bruises in the Flesh, Galled Backs, Cracked Heels, Scratches, Cuts, Kicks, &c., on horses.

CARLTON'S RING-BONE CURE.

For the cure of Ring-bone, Blood Spavin, Bone Spavin, Windgalls, and Splint—a certain remedy.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is at these changes they require a medicine to nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow water, Heaves, Worms, Boils, &c. All of which will be prevented by giving one of these powders, and will at any time, cure when any symptoms of disease appear, if used in time. They purify the blood, removeall inflammation and fever, loosen the skin, cleanse the water, and invigorate the whole body, enabling them to do more work with the same feed. The action of these powders is direct upon all the secretive glands, and therefore they do not have effect upon the Horse, the Ox, the Ass, and all Herbivorous animals—all diseases arising from or producing a bad state of the blood, are speedily cured by them.

Remember and ask for CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS, and take no others.

CARLTON'S NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT FOR HORSES, and for the cure of all diseases in man or beast that require external application, and for contracted cords and muscles, strengthens weak limbs, and is also used for sprains, bruises, saddle galls, swelled legs, sores of all kinds on horses.

Carlton's articles for Horses and Cattle are prepared from the receipe of a very celebrated English Farrier, and will cure in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred of any of the above complaints. They have been used by Farmers, livery-men, stage proprietors and others with the most marked and decided success.

Caution.—None can be genuine unless you find the name of J. Carlton Comstock, on the Wrapper of each article.

COMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

This is the most extraordinary remedy for Worms ever used; it effectually eradicates Worms from both Adults and Children. It cannot harm the most delicate infant or strongest Adult, and never fails to completely root out and destroy all kinds of Worms. The cost, 25 cents per bottle, puts it within reach of all, and all parents who are without it, are wantonly exposing the lives of their children to those fell destroyers of youth, "Worms." Look for the name of Comstock & Brother, proprietors, on the Wrapper of each bottle.

To the Old and Young!! Ho! ye Red Heads and Grey!!!

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY ! ! ! !

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest Red or Grey Hair to a Green, the second night to a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it, who is the celebrated Chemist, Dr. Comstock, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

Deafness.

Use Dr. Larrette's Acoustic Oil, for the cure of Deafness Also, all those disagreable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching deafness. Many persons who have been deaf for ten, fifteen or twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one or two bottles, thrown aside these trumpets, being made perfectly well. It has cured cases of ten, fifteen, and even thirty years standing of deafness.

HAY'S LINIMENT FOR THE PILES.

The worst attacks of the Piles are effectually and permanently cured in a short time by the use of the genuine Hay's Liniment. Hundreds of our first citizens throughout the country have used this liniment with complete success.

Caution—Never buy it unless you find the name of Comstock & Co., upon the wrapper, proprietors of the genuine article.

Caution—All of the abovenamed articles are sold only in New York, by Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John Street, five doors from Broadway.

Sold in Charlottetown, P. E. Island, by T. DESBRISAY, W R. WATSON, JAMES GILLIGAN, & M. W. SKINNER Druggists. In Pictou, at the Drug Stores; also by one Storekeeper in every Town on the Island. Enquire for Comstock's Almanac for 1851, which will be given to all gratis.

HEALTH WHERE 'TIS SOUGHT!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND STOMACH, WHEN IN A MOST HOPELESS STATE.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Matthew Harvey, of Chapel Hall Airdrie, Scotland, dated the 15th January, 1850.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Your valuable Pills have been the means, with God's blessing of restoring me to a state of perfect health, and at a time when I thought it was on the brink of the grave. I had consulted several eminent Doctors, who, after doing what they could for me, stated that they considered my case as hopeless. I ought to say that I had been suffering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing, which during the last two years got so much worse, that every one considered my condition as hopeless. I as a last resource got a Box of your Pills, which gave great relief, and by persevering in their use for some weeks, together with rubbing night and morning your Ointment over my chest and stomach and right side, I have by their means alone got completely cured, and to the astonishment of myself and every body who knows me.

(Signed) MATTHEW HARVEY.

CURE OF A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Smith, of No. 5, Little Thomas Street, Gibson Street, Lambeth, dated December 12, 1849.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for nearly 5 years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, suffering from extreme weakness and debility, with constant nervous headaches, giddiness and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of spirits. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of whom, after doing all that was in their power, pronounced me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of cure, together with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that they could be done no more. One day being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curiosity than with hope of being cured, however I persevered for four weeks taking them —and as I went on persevering in their use for six months, when, I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

(Signed) WILLIAM SMITH.

(frequently called EDWARD)

CURE OF ASTHMA OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. K. Heydon, 78 King Street, Sydney, dated 10th November, 1849.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I have the pleasure to inform you that many extraordinary cures of Asthma have been effected here by means of your Pills. One is that of a lady residing near the "Razorback," who after having for Twenty years been unable to make the slightest exertion, suffering very fearfully from shortness of breath, coughing and spitting, but is now, (to use her own expression) able to rend up to the top of that mountain. Another case is that of Mr. Lord, Tailor, Hutchinson's building, Clarence-street, who was so dreadfully bad that he was confined entirely to his bed-room or six months, prior to his commencing with your Pills, and attended regularly by his medical man, who pronounced him to be in a dying state, yet he, likewise, to my knowledge, has been restored to perfect health by the use of your Pills, and rubbing your Ointment night and morning into his chest.

(Signed) J. K. HEYDON.

THE EARL OF ALDBOROUGH CURED OF A LIVER AND STOMACH COMPLAINT.

Extract of a Letter from His Lordship, dated Villa Messina Leghorn, 21st February, 1846.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Various circumstances prevented the possibility of my thanking you before this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount and at the same time to add, that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent of the Faculty at home, and all over the Continent, had not been able to effect; so, rather than be without them, I should be ready to send to have another Box and a Pot of the Ointment, in case any of my family should ever require either. Your most obliged and obedient Servant,

(Signed) ALDBOROUGH.

The great Remedy!!

Bliss's Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy.

A NEW and effecial Remedy for Coughs, common Colds, Cold in the Head, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Asthma, Tickling in the Throat, Catarrh, Diseases of the Lungs and Bronchial Affections.

This favorite remedy is composed of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with other valuable ingredients, which completely disguise the nauseous taste of the Oil, without detracting from its medicinal virtues, presenting it in a form by which it can be administered to the most delicate invalid, without inconvenience. The medicinal influence of this Candy pursues the exact tract of the inflammatory action, ensuing cough. First, soothing the organs of the voice, its sedative influence, passes along the mucous lining of the windpipe into the bronchial ramifications, gently lubricating, giving ease and comfort to the chest, restoring the voice to its accustomed clearness and powers; Congested Phlegm, Acrimony in the Fluids, and Obstructions of the Glands, are gently and safely discharged by easy expectoration. It never disagrees with the stomach, a common cold yields to its benign influence in a few hours, and when resorted to, before the complaint is far advanced, all danger of Consumption is entirely prevented.

Sold Wholesale and Retail, at the Drug Store of M. W. SKINNER, Queen Street.
