

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

Do you know the difference between working and having the work done for you? Sunlight Soap actually makes the dirt drop out—saves you time and money—but injures neither hands nor clothes. That is the difference between Sunlight Soap and ordinary soaps.

Follow Directions

Over 20 schooners are in port of Montague at present for produce, hauling not very brisk owing to wet weather, and low price of potatoes.

The annual meeting of the King's County Temperance Alliance will be held in McKinnon's Hall, Montague, at 2 p. m. on Tuesday 9th of November. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. Magor of the Can. Bank of Commerce, Montague, strained his leg severely, Thanksgiving Day, while attempting to stop a runaway. He will be unable to attend to his duties for some time.

The many friends of Alexander Reynolds, formerly of Murray River, put how of Grand Falls, N. B., will be pleased to learn that he has completely recovered from severe injuries sustained while at work with the Willard Kitchen Co Ltd in whose employ he has proven a capable workman, for a number of years.

Mrs. Edward Jay, Mt. Stewart, is reported very ill.

W. A. Cumming and bride returned to Montague on Tuesday evening and were given a real old-fashioned welcome.

John T. Mellich, Montague, has returned home after spending six weeks in the Canadian West of which he formed a very favorable impression.

The branch office of the Charlottetown Guardian will be found in the store of A. J. McDonald & Co., Souris. A. J. McDonald is the agent. 6-30drft.

The Patriotic Capt. Wesley Farmer, came into port Saturday, from Souris, P. E. I., hauling for fifty-four barrels of lumber. North Star Herald.

SUSSEX HAS A SOCIETY WEDDING

SUSSEX, Oct. 27.—Sussex has another society wedding of much interest, and one that has been looked forward to for some time. The event took place in Chalmers' Presbyterian church at seven thirty o'clock this evening, when Miss Grace Winnifred, youngest daughter of W. B. and Mrs. McKay was united in marriage to Harry Brown Clarke, manager of the Charlottetown branch of the Bank of New Brunswick. The bride was accompanied by her father, who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Frank Daird, pastor of the church. The bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Sherwood, played the bridal march from "Lohengrin" as the bride entered the church, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The chorists sang "O Father, all creating" and "Mendelssohn's wedding march" as they left the church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the bride and groom stood under a floral arch. The bride was beautifully attired in ivory duchess satin with court train, pearl and crystal trimmings and real lace, bridal veil with crown of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Helen Ryder, of St. Stephen, and Miss Helen McKenzie of Chatham, who were both ling costume was of navy blue broad-cloth and hat, ashes of roses. The groom was supported by Eber H. Turnbull, of St. John. The ushers were Gordon McKay, brother of the bride; C. S. Tompkins and H. H. Smith of St. John. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home for the large number of guests. The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted ferns. The bride was the recipient of a host of beautiful and valuable presents, among them being a case of sterling spoons from the 'Younger Set Whist Club,' and a silver tea service from the staff of the Bank of New Brunswick, St. John. Mr and Mrs Clarke leave by C. P. R. tomorrow for a trip to New York. On returning they will, reside in St. John. The bride, who is a graduate of the Ladies' College, Halifax, is one of the most popular young ladies in Sussex, and a member of the choir of the Presbyterian church. Previous to her wedding she was the guest at a number of social functions held in her honor, including several wedding showers. Mr. Clarke, whose home is in Souris P. E. Island, is a popular young banker, and began his career in banking with The Merchants Bank of P. E. Island, Charlottetown. He moved to St. John and was employed as accountant in the Bank of New Brunswick. In 1906 he was transferred to Sussex, and in May 1907 was transferred back to St. John as manager of the Charlottetown street branch. While in Sussex Mr Clarke made many friends.

You can't get away from it—this W&A Coat Shirt is the easiest-fitting, most correctly tailored shirt you can buy to-day. We are all alive on this shirt question—we make shirts miles ahead of the ordinary kind. We make the right Collars too! Look for the W&A mark.

HYSLOP BICYCLES

Bicycles are rapidly coming back into popular favor, the demand this year being five times what it was five years ago. We have planned for it in two ways—by getting the very best English wheel we can for popular selling, and saving to our customers all intermediate profits by filling orders direct by mail instead of through agents. In this way we can offer and give better satisfaction all round. The quality of the wheels is all right—only the best materials used and only skilled mechanics employed in construction. The equipment is right up-to-date and the machines throughout are such as we can thoroughly recommend. We sell automobiles as well as bicycles and our plan is to make wheels serve as a good advertisement to the entire business. Send for illustrated folder.

$50 Wheels for $25

OBITUARY NOTICE
WALTER MELLETT.

It was The Guardian's sad duty a few days ago to announce the death of the late Walter Mallett, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Union Road. The deceased had been in poor health for some years but bore his affliction with a calm resignation to the Divine Will. Born in England in the year of 1832 he came to this country with his parents at the age of three years and has since resided on the property taken up by his parents at that time, clearing the primeval forest and building up one of the finest country homes in this province. In 1853 he married Caroline Elizabeth Rodd and of this union there were eleven children, seven sons and four daughters, John at York, Cephas and Alphonso at Union Road, David in Boston, Hammond in Alberta, Wallace in Boston and Ambrose on the homestead at Union Road. The daughters are Mrs J. Harrington in Boston, Mrs W. H. Lowe in Roland, Man., Mrs William Partridge at Union Rd, and Mrs W. E. Hardy, Little York. To the aged and sorrowing widow who has lost a loving husband and to the bereaved family who have lost a kind and affectionate father, The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.
