MONTREAL (CP) — An official of the Canadian Society for the Prevention to Cruelty to Animals says owners of pet turtles are in no danger of catching food poisoning from the animals if they take proper sanitary precautions.

Turtles were described Wednesday as a major source of food poisoning in North America by Dr. J. H. Steele of the U.S. department of public health.

Dr. Steele told a conference of the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association in Vancou-on contaminated waste from meat packaging plants and thus become sources of salmonella food poisoning.

But L. P. Poirier, executive secretary of the Canadian SPCA says anyone who washes his hands thoroughly after handling his pet turtle or its aquarium water is in little danger of catching the disease.

Mr. Poirier said he had received several calls following publication of Dr. Steele's speech from mothers in the Montreal area who were worried their children were in danger from pet turtles.

He said the turtles themselves do not contract the disease and if kept in chlorinated water will be free of its bacteria.

RECOMMENDS CHLORINE

Mr. Poirier quoted Dr. Roger Foley, an expert on epidemics in the federal health department, who has written that keeping a turtle for two or three weeks in water containing four to five parts of free chlorine per 1,000,000 parts of water will free their intestines of germs.

He said he believes there has been a few cases of salmonella in turtles reported in the Maritimes but that he knows of no cases in Quebec province.

TIGNISH

Rev. Arthur Murray was guest preacher at the United Church, Bedeque, on Sunday morning, July 17. He was heard with much acceptance by a large congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Sinclair, Bedeque, have returned from a trip to the mainland.

Billy Eldershaw, Tignish, is attending a week of training at Camp Abegweit.

LeRoy Arsenault returned to his home in the village of Tignish after being a patient at Western Hospital, Alberton.

Reta Smythe returned to her home in Tignish after being a patient at Western Hospital, Alberton.

CHICAGO (AP) — The public defender mapped an insanity defence Thursday for Richard Speck, accused of killing eight student nurses, and a dispute broke out over the defendant's physical condition.

Public Defender Gerald W. Getty, appointed by a court to defend Speck, told reporters he will plead that the 24-year-old roving seaman is not guilty of murder by reason of insanity.

Getty, who saw Speck for the first time Wednesday when he went to his room in the city jail hospital, said:

"In my opinion as a layman there is an outside chance we may lose him. When I visited him he appeared very weak."

But C. William Ruddell, superintendent of the city jail, issued a statement saying:

"No medical staff at the House of Correction have ever indicated that Richard Speck is gravely ill and not expected to live for the trial. This information is erroneous and without basis of authority."

Speck was carried into the Cook County Hospital emergency room early Sunday bleeding from self-inflicted slashes on his arms. After a doctor identified him from tattoo markings as the man sought in the slayings, he was removed to the city jail hospital.

He complained of chest pains Tuesday and after two electrocardiograms were taken, Dr. William N. Noren, city jail hospital physician, said there was a chance Speck had suffered a heart attack.

Judge Daniel Ryan of the felony division of circuit court appointed two heart specialists Thursday to determine the defendant's physical condition.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

SOUTH

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♠	Pass
3 NT	Pass	4 ♣	Pass
5 ♣	Pass	5 ♠	Pass

Opening lead—six of clubs.

They say that, comes the revolution, all suits will break reasonably and all finesses will succeed, but until then we'd better watch our P's and Q's and stay prepared to fight foul distribution.

Let's suppose you're in six spades and West leads a club. Certainly the contract looks easy enough to make, but when you win the club with the ace and play a spade to the ace, West shows out and you learn that East has two apparently certain trump tricks.

If you take the right approach in situations like this you start to think in terms of whether the slam can still be made, instead of concentrating on how unlucky you are to run into five trumps in one hand.

You say to yourself that if the rest of East's hand is favorably distributed, you can end-play him in trumps and make the hand, but you know that this will require a considerable amount of luck and thus far you haven't had even a small share of that commodity.

You can't lose anything by trying, so you cash the K-Q of clubs and ace of hearts, after which you take four diamond tricks, discarding two losing hearts. By this time the situation is:

North
♠ J 5
♥ Q 8

West
Immaterial

East
♠ Q 9 8 7

South
♠ K 10 4 2

When you lead a heart, East ruffs with the seven and you, out of the generosity of your heart, undertruff with the deuce. East now finds that regardless of what he returns, you have the rest of the tricks. East may not quite understand what caused one of his trump tricks to disappear, but if you want to keep him as a friend, don't bother to explain it to him.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

On letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
