
Maltby here strides on the [illegible] will hold the [illegible] again this evening when Nav [illegible] with the Air [illegible] will be the fifth [illegible] of the season [illegible] two squads, [illegible] have won two encounters.

• • •

All four previous games have been [illegible] all the way [illegible] with usually one team [illegible] through in the [illegible] chalk up the [illegible] And tonight's game promises to be just such another battle.

• • •

Baseball has come a long way this [illegible] and although the [illegible] affairs [illegible] have in the [illegible] a [illegible] season promises enthusiasm is [illegible] will be back once more on the same strong [illegible]

• • •

[illegible] by the time [illegible] around, [illegible] returned from [illegible] will have received their [illegible] and will be free to take up [illegible] I was felt by [illegible] many of them in [illegible] this [illegible] plus [illegible] when they [illegible] discharges, make this impossible.

So [illegible] all the outlook [illegible] the [illegible] have produced a [illegible] of the [illegible] and that the fans are [illegible] is well enough [illegible] than fair [illegible] have been turning out [illegible] six weeks or [illegible]

• • •

Leo Durocher, whose verbal blunders have earned him in and out of many arguments on the [illegible] in business office [illegible] is apparently sitting [illegible] of the world. Durocher [illegible] brought him [illegible] offers, but he would [illegible] a hard time trying to find a club to pay him more than his present set-up.

• • •

Last spring the experts contended the Brooklyn Dodgers to finish last. They claimed the Dodgers would be the worst club ever assembled in the National League. None could foresee better than a [illegible] down in fourth and dreary.

Branch Rickey, the big boss of the Brooklyn club, chose to leave [illegible] with Durocher. The Dodgers appeared to be in for a financial beating at the gate, so [illegible] offered Durocher a one-year contract on a bonus basis. His base salary was reduced from the previous year, but Rickey stipulated that when the attendance reached 500,000 Durocher was to get an extra $5,000.

• • •

From then on, whenever the attendance soared another 100,000, Durocher received another $5,000. With the attendance now past the 900,000-mark, Durocher has cashed in $25,000 in bonuses already and gets a double feature bonus of $10,000 when the turnstiles hit the million-mark.

• • •

Since his base pay was reportedly $20,000, he is almost certain to make a flat $55,000 for the year, which would make him the highest salaried manager of all time.

• • •

It was a great gamble for Durocher. With the team a flop he would have gone short. As it is Lippy Leo delivered, and his reward is commensurate to his success afield.

• • •

Robert Feller, who did his term in the American Navy in honorable fashion is back on the mound. Feller returned recently against Detroit. Feller has had a lot of pitching during his navy term as he often found himself on land and naturally seen on the nearest diamond.

• • •

Feller may take a week or two to get going in old time form but he has youth, great condition and the old desire as well. In baseball most of the returning players have come back well enough to indicate that when they all get back they will be nudging a lot of interlopers back into the minors.

• • •

The showing of these players is of interest to hockey people in general as well. Provided the hockeyists are in good condition and not too old they too will be taking back old spots usurped by pretenders to major league prominence.

• • •

In fact managers are now scanning their old lists very carefully and weighing prospects. For instance Frank Boucher expects the two Patrick's, Henry and Hextall back. It means for one thing he can reassemble the old line of Watson, Patrick and Hextall and whenever Frankie thinks of it he shakes another barrel of apples out of the trees on his farm and does a hornpipe around the tree.

• • •

Seventeen-year-old Tom Brown's first major league homer, the first hit into the upper deck of Brooklyn's left field stands this season didn't even net him the usual reward—a carton of cigarettes.

• • •

After Brown hit the homer against the Pirates recently and returned to the dugout he was presented with the cigarettes, given by the sponsors of a radio broadcast of the ball game.

• • •

Dodger Manager Leo Durocher promptly confiscated them. "Too young to smoke," he said.

Grimm Drills Cubs To Regain Batting Eyes

By CHARLES DUNKLEY

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 — (AP) — Manager Charley Grimm, irked by the sudden slump of his first-place Chicago Cubs under the stretch drive of the rampaging St. Louis Cardinals, today benched outfielder Bill Nicholson, 1944 home-run leader of the National League.

In yanking Nicholson from the line-up for the first time this season, Grimm announced first sacker Phil Cavaretta would switch to right field and ailing Heinz Becker would play first.

"We have to get some hitting," Grimm declared. "Becker's ankles have been bad, but he has rested for a while and says he's ready to try for a regular job again."

Nicholson's hitting has been a disappointment of the Cub season. The one-time slugger is batting .253 and has only 10 home runs, compared with 44 for 1944.

The shake-up came as the club posed for their world series group picture and drilled to regain their dulled batting eyes.

The only "birdie" the photographed Cubs had to smile at was the one abruptly handed them by the Cardinals when the Cards mowed them down three straight to shrink their vanishing lead in the National League pennant race to only 2 1-2 games. That crushing broadside certainly was nothing at which to smile.

Whether the traditional picture-making business was grossly premature depends on how well Charley Grimm's sagging athletes come out for the second round against the Cardinals at St. Louis this week-end.

Grimm's big worry was the crucial St. Louis invasion for night games Friday and Saturday and a Sunday doubleheader. The Cards have beaten the Cubs 10 of 13 times. The Cubs do not figure to have any advantage in playing night games against the Cards. They have engaged in seven games under the lights this season and blew all of them.

The Cubs and Cards meet five times after next Sunday — three night skirmishes at St. Louis Sept. 18-20 and two single games at Chicago Sept. 25 and 26. But this week-end's showdown probably will make or break the pennant chances of either club.

Dark Horse Heads Field In Mar. Senior Golf Meet

KENTVILLE, N.S., Aug. 27 — (CP) — Carding an easy 77, dark-horse James C. Garrett of Kentville went into the lead today as the 21st annual Maritime senior golf championships got underway at nerby Kenwo Golf Club course.

Garrett had a two-stroke lead over the defending champion, Dr. L. M. Morton of Yarmouth, N.S., and a margin of four over Sydney Powell of Chester, N.S., runner-up in last year's tournament.

Dr. J.H. Rice of Halifax and William Graham of the Algonquin Club in St. Andrew's, N.B., are tied in fourth position with scores of 83. J.T. Wade of Reserve Club Saint John, N.B. carried 86 to place sixth.

The defending champion, the "Singing Doctor" as links enthusiasts know him, is still rated as the most potent threat for the championship, however.

In the second division, J.W. Weed of Halifax took the lead with an 83, followed by D.B. Scott of Granville, East, N.S., with 87 and K.T. Creighton and N.B. Humphrey of the Riverside Club, tied with cards of 88. Another Riverside entrant, W.V. Gale, stroked an 89 to follow in fifth place in the second division.

Other first division scorers include Hurley, Riverside, 87; W.G. Stears, Riverside, 88; E.B. Harley, Riverside, 89; W.E. Cotton, Charlottetown, 93; L.A. Titus, Riverside, 95.

Second division cards included A. C. Burke, Riverside, 87; H.S. Morton, Riverside, 101; W.J. Georges, Riverside, 103.

F.M. Dayton of Moncton, N.B., led the third division with 90, followed by Dr. H.O. Harding of Yarmouth with 92. Other scorers: N. N. Stetson, Riverside, 94; E.A. Kennedy, Riverside, 95; Col. W.W. Alway, Riverside, 101; H.W. Frink, Riverside, 103.

F.G. Wilson of Riverside led the fourth division in 94, in a field that included K.I. Campbell, Riverside, 96; G.W. Berry, Riverside, 107; H. W. Rising Riverside, 109; Eustace Barnes, Riverside, 109; Dr. D.V. Davison, Riverside, 110; Dr. C.M. Pratt, Riverside, 120.

Titles Of Boxers Out Of Service Unfrozen In U. S.

PATTERSON, N. J., Aug. 27 — (AP) — The National Boxing Association today unfroze the titles of all its championship boxers out of service.

This action, president Abe J. Greene said, places all champions out of the service on a competitive basis. Soon after the United States entered the war the N. B. A. had frozen for the duration the titles of men in the service.

Greene named Freddie (Red) Cochrane, welterweight; Manuel Ortiz, bantamweight; Sal Bartola, featherweight; and Ike Williams, lightweight, as the champions immediately affected. The heavier weight champions, Tony Zale, middleweight; Gus Lesnevich, light-heavyweight, and Joe Louis, heavyweight, are still in uniform.

Notices that they must begin to arrange for title defences will be sent to the champions affected, Greene said.

All Stars And Navy Meet This Evening

Marking the fifth meeting between the squads this season and with each having come through with two victories apiece All Stars and Navy tangle again tonight at the Park diamond in an exhibition baseball encounter. And the game is almost certain to be another of those nip and tuck affairs that the teams have been staging right along.

There is little to choose between the pair of them. Both teams dish out plenty of smart baseball and tonight's encounter should be hard-fought all the way through the piece.

The game will get underway at 5:45 sharp. Players are asked to take note of the starting time and endeavor to be on time.

Toronto Boston Terrier Tops Dog Show At Moncton

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 27 — (CP) — Showman's Finale, a diminutive Boston Terrier, owned by Mrs. Edward G. Prost of Toronto and handled by Alfred Loveridge, was declared best of show at the close of the annual Moncton Kennel Club dog show held here today by judge George T. Kane of Saint John.

The winning Terrier topped its class of non-sporting dogs and was adjudged best over five other finalists which included English setter, a Borzois owned by F. Dekuyper of Toronto, Great Dane handled by Paddy Baugh of Toronto, a Kerry Blue owned by Mrs. T.H. McGuire, Hamilton, Ont., and Pug owned by Winnifred M. Steggall, Montreal.

One hundred and thirty dogs representing 112 recognized breeds were exhibited in the show. Tomorrow exhibitors will move on to Charlottetown, P.E.I., to continue the Maritime circuit.

Starter Is Complimented On Performance

Speaking of the first day's racing at St. Stephen last Wednesday R. M. (Bobby) Webber, well known authority on harness horse racing from Milltown, N.B., and who has acted here as starter, has the following to say in the South Croix Courier about the performance given by Dr. F. C. Dougan who was the starter in the three-day meet concluded last Friday:

"Starter Dr. F. C. Dougan of Charlottetown, did the best starting the writer has ever seen. He had the fields under control at all times and in the nine heats there were only seven false scores and those were unavoidable. The starts were all perfect."

Quite a compliment coming from one who has been following the game all his life and a tribute that we would say is quite deserved.

Race Horse Owners Strike At Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Aug. 27 —(CP) — Last week of horse racing for this season was scheduled to open in Vancouver today but Hastings Park race Track was deserted as owners refused to run their horses until the Vancouver Thoroughbred Association agreed to their demnad for an $800 purse.

The Association opened the entry wicket today and if enough entries are received there may be a card tomorrow.

Yesterday the horsemen turned down a compromise offer from the Association which promised three $700 purses daily. They said they wanted a minimum of $800 for each of the seven events. This season the minimum purses have been $700.
