IN MEMORIAM

RONALD J. O'HANLEY

The sudden death of Ronald J. O'Hanley which occurred at his home in Point De Roche on January 12th came as a great shock to his many relatives and friends as he had been about as usual and never complained of feeling unwell. His death was attributed to a heart attack which he had had for a number of years.

His jovial and kind disposition won for him a host of friends as was evidenced by the large number of Mass Cards which he received.

Those left to mourn his loss are his wife, six daughters and one son, namely,—Rueben serving with the Canadian Army Overseas; Lorena at home; Helen of Charlottetown; Winnifred, (Mrs. Joseph McDougall) at home; Mary, (Mrs. Jerry McDougall) of Blooming Point; Alice, (Mrs. John Feehan) of Point de Roche and Annie (Mrs. Ernest McEachern) of Mount Stewart; also one brother, Victor of Bangor, Maine. One son Hugh predeceased him fifteen years ago.

His funeral which was largely attended took place on Friday Morning, January 14th, to St Andrew's Church where a Requiem Mass was celebrated by his pastor, Rev. Terrence Campbell who also officiated at the grave. Pallbearers were:—Messrs. Milton Coffin, Elisha Doyle, Joseph MacKay, Percy Affleck, Raymond Doyle and Frank Feehan.

May his soul rest in peace.

Following are the Mass Cards received:

Mrs. Ronald O'Hanley and Lorena.

Mr. and Mrs. John Feehan and family, Point de Roche.

Mr. and Mrs Jerry McDougall and family, Blooming Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDougall (2)

School Improvements League Meeting

A meeting of the School Improvement League was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. H. Pierce. Mrs. Robert Holman gave an excellent review of part of the chapter on curricula from the report of the survey committee of Canada and Newfoundland Education Association and outlined the five different departments of a typical small City high school or a composite type which includes vocational as well as academic courses in its curricula.

The President, Mrs. Gordon McDonald, gave statistics showing some results of the inadequacy of Prince Edward Island's secondary school education as compared with that of the other provinces of Canada.

Mrs. Harry Cudmore, gave an interesting account of the facilities and varied curricula of a South Shore Academy.

Mrs. Scantlebury read a letter from Mr. Reginald Spencer of Moncton, N.B. Chairman of the Vocational and Curriculum Committee, in which he writes of Moncton's plans for re-vamping their high school course, in order that they may prepare their students for practical walks of life as well as the academic.

Mrs. J. P. Lantz reported for the Slogan Committee who are preparing the material to be submitted to the press shortly.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to League business and discussion, regarding the benefits to be derived from a composite high school, adapted to local needs.
