O., officiated at the organ. The Rev. J. T. Ibott, Rector of St. Paul's preached at both the morning and evening services.

Ideal summer weather with clear sunny skies brought out thousands yesterday morning to line the various streets through which the procession of the Blessed Sacrament passed on its way to Notre Dame Academy.

Observing the Feast of Corpus Christi, the congregations of St. Dunstan's Basilica and the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer joined in one huge throng which halted facing Hillsboro Square.

From a richly decorated altar on the veranda of the Academy, His Excellency the Most Reverend James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, gave the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The order of the proccession was as follows.

On Wednesday morning June 19th, the marriage took place in St Dunstan's Basilica of Marie Louise Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Blanchard of Charlottetown to Henry Joseph Conway, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Conway, also of Charlottetown.

Early summer flowers in standards decorated the Church with white candles and pink and white flowers on the altar.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a white lace gown fashioned on simple lines, the full skirt ending in a long train. A long veil of tulle was held by lilies of the valley and she carried a cascade bouquet of red American Beauty roses.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Edmond Arsenault who wore a floor-length gown of Wedgewood blue net, her head dress being of the same material and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Aileen Conway, sister of the groom wore a floor-length gown of melon pink with half halo hat of matching material and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Elmer Blanchard, the bride's brother was best man.

The ushers were Messrs. T.B. Creighton, Guy Sullivan, Reid McKenna, and Russell Kelly.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. P.D. McMahon D.D. who celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The St. Thomas Aquinas choir of which the bride is a member was under the direction of Professor Armand Auger of Montreal. Mr. Frank McIntyre sang "Just For Today" while Professor Auger sang "Panis Angelicus" the choir rendering the chorus. Mrs Joseph Dougan presided at the organ.

Mrs. Blanchard, the bride's mother wore a moss green crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage spray was yellow Talisman Roses.

J. A. McGowan. The choir sang "The Lord's My Shepherd" "Tell Me the Old, Old Story" and "Come Let Us Sing of A Wonderful Love". A solo "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" sang by Mr. Tyndale Semple. The pallbearers were Harry Bowness, Waldon Stewart, Wilbert Lawless, James Lawless, Daniel Gillis and Everett Glover.

VARIETY SHOWER— The home of Mrs. Harry Mellish, city, was the scence of a very pleasant occasion of Tuesday the fourth, when a variety shower was tendered Mrs. Hillson Proude. Upon her arrival the guest of honor, completey taken by surprise was conducted to the prettily decorated chair awaiting her, by Mrs. Mellish, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs V.M. Hudson. Then followed a treasure hunt, where the whereabouts of gifts was announced by a variety of alarm clocks, and where gleefully sought out by the bride. Accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Raymond McDonald. After Mrs. Proude had fittingly thanked her friends for their many beautiful gifts and kind thoughts, dainty refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening passed with intriging contests and pleasant conversation. All joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Proude many years of happy wedded life.

Dr. Manuel A. Tamargo, representing the Cuban Ministry of Agriculture, was a visitor to the Province over the week-end. The purpose of his visit was to confer with potato shippers interested in the Cuban trade, and with the Seed Potato Certification Service.

There passed away at the Prince County Hospital on Monday, June 17th, Mr. Montague Campbell at the advanced age of eighty-four years.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Campbell of Cape Traverse and spent his early manhood as a plasterer in his community. He later went to Boston for a few years and married Elizabeth Crawford of New Brunswick who lived only a year. He returned to Cape Traverse and three years later married Barbara McFarlane. He ran a lobster factory for fourteen years and gave this up to go farming which he continued until he retired to his residence at Carleton Siding where he lived until his wife died. Then he moved to Borden and for fourteen years he made his home with his only daughter, Mrs. Lulian Herring.

Carl Gallant, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gallant, Notre Dame Street, Summerside was instantly killed yesterday morning at about eleven o'clock when the wheels of a moving freight car passed over his body as he tried to pass underneath. The accident occurred on the Railway Wharf, Summerside in the presence of two brothers and another youngster of about the same age. A coroner's jury, later in the day, brought in a verdict to the above effect and exonerated the train crew.

The boy's family moved to Summerside about a year ago from Tignish. His father is a carpenter and there are two other brothers and five sisters. One of the boys, Francis, who was with his brother yesterday when the accident occurred, narrowly escaped death himself about two weeks ago when a prune stone entered his lung. He had to be rushed to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where it was removed by means of a bronchoscope.

The inquest was held in the Town Hall with Coroner T. D. Carruthers presiding.

Yesterday afternoon at the close of business in the Bank of Canada, the employees waited upon Mr. D. A. MacKinnon the retiring agent, and expressed sincere regret at the severance of their association after many years working together in the Bank, and previously in the Government Service. Mr. Curry and Miss Eleanor Bourke have been in the positions of accountant and clerk and stenographer under Mr. MacKinnon since the local branch of the Bank was inaugurated. The former now becomes agent and will be asisted by Mr. H. S. Treeby as accountant. As a token of regard and a memento of their long and happy associations they presented Mr. MacKinnon with a handsome gold mounted set of Waterman's fountain pen and pencil, accompanied with the best wishes for his future good health and happiness in retirement. Mr MacKinnon, taken by surprise, said how deeply he appreciated their kind words and gift, and joined with them in regret that their long association in the Bank was about to end but expressed the sincere hope that they would continue to enjoy the same measure of concord and success under the new setup as they had done in the past.

An exceptionally pretty June wedding took place in the United Church, Long River, at 2.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon June 5th when Rebecca MacGregor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Orr, French River, became the bride of Archibald Ellsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Long River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Ayers, Summerside former pastor of the bride.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father looked lovely as she entered the church in her floor length gown of white satin fashioned on princess lines with insets of lace, long tapering sleeves, sweetheart neckline buttoned down the back with tiny self covered buttons. Her trailing veil of white net was arranged in halo effect and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Her only attendant was her friend, Mrs. Elmer L. McLeod who wore a gown of pale blue sheer, shoulder length veil to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Joseph Harding of French River was groomsman.

IS COMMISSIONER — Orville B. Darrach has been appointed commissioner for taking affidavits in Prince, Queen's and King's made Tuesday morning in the Supreme Court by Mr. Justice Arsenault.

St. Augustine's Church, Vancouver, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Andrea Barrier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. Barrier of Winnipeg, and Capt. (Dr.) J. G. MacKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKenzie, of Prince George, were married at a nuptial Mass celebrated by Major Angle, assisted by Rev. Father Gilhooly, on Saturday, June 1st.

The charming young bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and wore a suit of ice-blue with matching accessories and corsage of gardenias and carnations. Her attendant, Miss Helen McKenzie, sister of the groom, wore a dove-blue suit with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations. George Bathlete, brother of the bride was best man. The ushers were Messrs. Allan A. McDonald and John McKay.

The second annual meeting of Bishop MacEachern General Assembly of the Knights of Columbus fourth degree was held last night in the Knights of Columbus Council Chambers, Charlottetown. Faithful Navigator William Moran presided over a large meeting of fourth degree Knights from over the Province.

Several projects were discussed and then deferred to the next meeting because of the election of officers. The results of the election were:
