PTE. MACKINNON RETURNS HOME

Among the passengers arriving on the Borden train Saturday night was Private A. L. MacKinnon, formerly of Canoe Cove.

As no intimation had been received that he was coming there was no official welcome, but that loss was repaid by the greeting of his friends at the depot. He was met at the station by his father, Mr. Duncan D. MacKinnon, one of the most highly respected and progressive farmers of the South Shore district.

Private MacKinnon went west in 1909 and enlisted in a British Columbia battalion over two years ago. He has seen considerable of the heavy fighting in the Somme and at Vimy. At the latter place last April he was wounded in the forehead by shrapnel splinters but after a short stay in Blighty went back to the line again. Last September he suffered a severe attack of pleurisy and it is from the effects of this that he has been invalided home.

Objects of Contest

1. To stimulate an interest in improved methods of potato culture, including treating seed and thorough spraying during the growing season.
2. To cultivate varieties as demanded on the open market.
3. As a means for the boys to conduct investigational work along the lines of improved varieties.
4. As a means for the formation of pure seed centres.
5. As a means of arriving at cost of production.

Rules of Contest

1. Contest shall be open to boys in attendance at the Prince of Wales College during 1917 and 1918, and ex-students who were members of Contest last year.
2. A membership fee of 25c shall be paid by each competitor.
3. Each competitor shall operate three plots of exactly 1-60 of an acre, using three varieties of potatoes, namely, Green Mountain, Cummings' Pride and Irish Cobbler seed, provided by the Experimental Farm, one variety to each plot.
4. Each competitor must do all work himself and keep careful records giving the following information: Dates of planting, kind of soil and manner of cultivation, treatment of seed, spraying, digging, grading and profit and loss account following the scale of wages, allowed herewith. Rent of land, $3.00 per acre; horse hire, 10 cents per hour, manure at $1.00 per ton, fertilizers and spraying material at actual cost; potatoes at market price per bushel; competitor's time valued at 20 cents per hour.
5. The plots to be inspected during the growing season and scored according to condition.
6. Digging and weighing must be supervised by some uninterested person.
7. An exhibit of one peck of each variety must be sent to a centre to be named later for competition.
8. Only one entry to be allowed to each person.
9. Each competitor shall write a short essay on his work, supplementary to his record in Sec. 4.
10. The prizes will be awarded on the following basis: (a) Report of Inspector on thoroughness of work, 100. (b) Certified report of yield as submitted by competitor, 100. (c) Award of judges on peck exhibited, 100. (d) Written report and essay as called for in Sec. 4 and 9, 100.
11. All entries must be in the hands of the Secretary before April 1.
12. All reports must be in the hands of the Secretary before October.

Quebec North Shore Short of Provisions

QUEBEC, March 27.—F.X. Bourret, a trading agent on the north shore of the gulf, arrived here today after a 300 mile trip in dog sleds, in canoes and on snowshoes. He is coming to meet a local delegation to go to Ottawa to ask the government to carry provisions to the population of the north shore.

The people there have not seen a steamer since last fall. Usually the Canadian government ice-breaker Montcalm makes a couple of trips every winter but the unusual ice conditions prevented them from going this winter.

Mr. Bourret says that at houses where he stopped the people have plenty of money, business is good, hunting is heavy and fishing is rich, but the people are short of certain classes of food, mainly flour and bread, potatoes, etc.
