The Market At A Glance

MONTREAL, April 11—(CP) — Papers staged a late rally today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market but other pivotal groups were down in the averages. Stronger spots in papers were Rolland preferred, at a new top, Abitibi 6 per cent preferred and Common, Donnacona and Fraser Companies. Price was a loser.

TORONTO, April 11 — (CP) — The Toronto Stock Market moved downward today, led by the golds. Aside from an index loss of .56 for the golds the declines were insignificant.

Labrador Mining and exploration Company Limited was listed today. After opening at 1.94 it sold back to 1.80 and closed at 1.85.

NEW YORK, April 11—(AP)— Rails enjoyed another excursion to the uplands in today's stock market while many industrial leaders failed to obtain travel priorities. The Associated Press 60-stock average was unchanged at 52.3 although the rail composite advanced .3. Transfers totalled 732,890 shares compared with 856,570 Monday.

CHICAGO, April 11—(AP)—Late nervousness developed in rye today after the grain pits had reacted only nominally to a government crop report. Rye led the way downward.

LONDON, April 11—(CP)—After disposing of orders accumulated over the easter holiday the Stock Market settled down to a quiet session today. There was little movement in industrials but home rails were firmer and oils neglected.
