TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — Speculation in two forms ruled the stock market today as prices rallied in late trading to pull the market to its second straight advance.

Speculative interest was strong among low-priced mines.

Heaviest-traded stock was Silver-Miller, up six cents to 71. Martin-McNeely gained ½ c. at 23 cents. Other active low-priced mines were Lomega, International Ranwick and Maralgo, all of which gained a few cents.

Refining oils and pipelines were strong.

Golds featured the mining list. Giant Yellowknife led the section wnth a 50-cent rise to $16.10 and a few other lower-priced stocks. mmetals were mixed to higher while coppers and uraniums show no definite trend.

Western oils managed to scrape up a gain of a few decimal points on their index but changes were extremely narrow and trading was light.

Index gains: golds .33 to 78.22; base metals .21 to 151.79; western oils .15 to 127.99.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market ended the first quarter of 1958 with a moderate decline Monday. It remained nicely ahead of the game for the entire three months.

Most Wall Street observers agreed that the market had reached a decisive milestone after its long rise in the face of discouraging reports about the economy.

The market was sluggish Monday with the big industrial stocks and rails heading downward gently. Some utilities, tobaccos and other selected issues bucked the trend.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 80 cents to $161.90 with the industrials off $1.40, the rails off $1 and the utilities unchanged.

Of 1,158 issues traded, 542 fell and 343 rose. New highs for 1958 totalled 65 and new lows 24.

Volume totalled 2,050,000 shares compared with 1,930,000 Friday.

Nine of the 15 most active stocks declined, five rose and one was unchanged, American Motors.

Among Canadian issues on the New York Stock Exchange, Brazilian Traction and Canadian Marconi each rose ⅛ while Preston East Dome and Molybdenite each rose 1-16. Sapphire petroleums dropped 1-16.

Probe Murder In Montreal

MONTREAL (CP) — Lieut.-detective Ubald Legault of the provincial homicide squad said Monday an autopsy on a headless, fingerless body found near Montebello, Que., indicated "every possibility of murder."

The body — that of a youth between 21 and 25 — was found at the edge of a deep ditch on a secondary road between Papineauville and Ripon, Que., about 45 miles east of Ottawa.

Lieut. Legault said head and fingers appeared to have been cut from the body with a small pen-knife or jack-knife. The head had been cut carefully at first, then torn from the body, leaving a long cord of nerves, he said.

"The cutting was too methodical to have been caused by a snowplough, and it was definitely not the work of a medical laboratory," Lieut. Legault said.

"Medical authorities think the man had been dead since the first part of February, taking into account the fact that snow slows decomposition."

Immigration From Sweden Benefits Both Countries

By MARGARET FRANCIS

STOCKHOLM CP) — A pretty blonde Swedish nurse apologized for her English, then asked timidly: "What is Canada really like?"

"I am engaged to an engineering student at university. We think we might want to go to Canada after we're married. Would there be opportunities—for us?"

This is typical of the questions asked on phone calls and personal visits by Swedish people who talk to Canadian Ambassador Jean Chapdelaine and his staff.

Most of the inquirers don't follow throuh.

100 A MONTH

Immigration to Canada from Sweden in 1957 averaged about 100 a month. In 1956 800 persons out of a population of 7,000,000 went to Canada from this country.

Canadians in Sweden agree that Swedes with their efficiency, high technical skills, their industry and excellent health would make ideal Canadian immigrants. The two countries have similar industries such as lumbering, fishing and mining as well as similar physical characterstics and climate.

The Swedish welfare state is the reason for their reluctance to emigrate. The generous family allowances, socialized medicine, security for older people, subsidized housing and state nurseries that enable wives to work, provide the average Swedish family with something they are afraid to leave.
