MARKET GOSSIP

(By Johnston and Ward's Special Wire)

MORNING MARKET LETTER

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 21—The market was quiet and irregular yesterday. The selling in the Utilities was an upsetting influence but of only minor proportions. Of the leading stocks there probably were as many higher on the day as lower. In both instances, however, the changes were nominal.

The resistance of the market to unfavorable developments recently is quite encouraging but with the next impetus for an upswing likely to come from seasonal factors next Spring a further period of irregularity seems likely.

Laidlaw and Company.

MINING

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, Dec 21—From a downward drift in the morning session, the mining section of the Toronto Exchange switched into a sizeable advance on a speeding up of volume this afternoon to close with gains dominating the board. Secondary golds again played the chief role, heavy trading in Little Long Lac on a strong advance stimulating action in the whole group. The big golds were quiet and mainly steady and base metal and silver shares generally firm.

Pioneer firmed 25 cents on fair volume and Wright Hargreaves added 5. Recessions were 60 cents for Lake Shore and 15 for Bralorne. Little Long Lac traded 20,000 shares and touched 7.40. The close was 7.25 up 35.
