The following list of eminent contributors—taken from among a hundred others—will indicate the remarkably high standerd that will be maintained by the COSMOPOLITAN 1906—FICTION : Sir Gilbert Parker, Alfred Henry Lewis, Booth Tarkington ART : Frederic Remington, Henri Lanos, Frank Verkeck, SPECIAL . Henry Watterson, Edwin Markham, Elbert Hubbard

No finder array of talent could possibly be offered than the list of world specialists named above.

"Home" magazine is the key note to the COSMOPOLITAN

In no sense is the COSMOPOLITAN a small, cheap, 16-page mail-order monthly

It is, to the contry, a great 240-page illustrated home magazine

Its editorial policy aims at every phase of clean, wholesome home life

An abundance of bright stories, full of fun, life and action, will interest every member of the family

Topics of the day are treated sanely, by experts of international repute—political reform, international affairs, economics, social problems,—and a hundred other timely topics of which every intelligent man or woman must be informed

The COSMOPOLITAN also affords unusual advantages for the refining and educative value of art,—Remington, Lanos, Fogarty, Terbeck, are only a few of the masters rspresented

The COSMOPOLITAN, furthermore has just begun one of the most remarkable exposés ever attempted by a contemporary magazine,—"The Treason of the Senate," by David Graham Philips

It will be strictly impossible, during this series, for us to insure newsstand purchasers a copy of the magazine, but,

We do guaranted that all readers who have, under this special offer, applied direct to the office for copies, will receive regularly the magazine during this brillant series of articles

Be sure to read this most scathing of all political exposures

We thoroughly believe that every intelligent reader will not only take but actually want the COSMOPOLITAN, should he once see the magazine itself.

And that's why we offer a three months' free trial at our expense We leave the decision entirely upon the merit of the monthly

If you don't like the three months received, you may stop the paper, and the copies received won't cost you a cent

WAITING FOR DEATH, BUT NOT WITHOUT HOPE

"There is a poor woman in this parish apparently just waiting for death to come through consumption. She has not the means to go to a Sanatorium, or she would probably be at one before this. She is still comparatively strong, walks about quite a lot—drives sometimes, too—but every day, of course, is growing worse. Would there be any possibility of her being taken into your Home for Consumptives? It would be a mercy if she could be permitted to enter it. I would much appreciate an early reply, as every day means so much."—REV. HAROLD SUTTON, Incumbent, Belmont, Ont.

LOST TWO DAUGHTERS

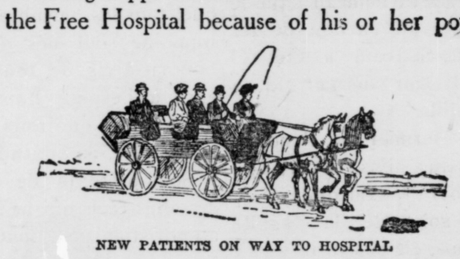
"I am advised by Dr. J. D. Wilson to write you concerning how soon I could get my wife admitted to Consumptive Hospital at Gravenhurst, also please send me pamphlet re terms while there. I have been told that it is free, so please let me hear from you soon as possible. I have lost two daughters, and my wife contracted the disease from our eldest one, who died ten months ago. I am a working man and not able to pay a high rate, but still anxious to do what I can."—A. CAMPBELL, London, Ont.

¶ The above are typical of scores, indeed hundreds, of appeals constantly coming before the trustees of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

¶ No effort is being spared to meet every call. . . .

¶ Not a single applicant has ever been refused admission to the Free Hospital because of his or her poverty,



NEW PATIENTS ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

and the anxiety of the trustees to keep none waiting is shown in the decision reached a few weeks ago to increase the accommodation by twenty-five beds.

—This increase in patients will add heavily to the burden of maintenance and can only be covered by increased generosity on the part of friends in all parts of Canada. Patients have been admitted from every Province in the Dominion, and it is with confidence in the response to our appeals, that the trustees believe will come from Canadians everywhere, that these additional burdens have been assumed.

¶ Where a cause more urgent? Where a greater call to help suffering Canadians? Where will your money do more good?

Few people have any idea of the value of old, rare, odd and obsolete coins. Did you know that a Boston shoemaker sold a collection of coins for TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS? Did you know that some rare American stamps are worth as high as SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS EACH? It is a fact that the rare 1827 quarter is worth $30.00, the 1823 quarter is worth $20.00, the 1804 silver dollar is worth $300.00, half cents made between 1840 and 1850 are worth $3.00 to $5.00 each, some large old style copper cents are worth as high as $6.00 each. Some issues of Continental and Confederate bills are rare and valuable, as well as certain pieces of fractional currency or "script." Besides these, many rarities in half cents, cents, three-cent pieces, half dimes, dimes, twenty-cent pieces, quarters, half dollars and dollars are worth a big premium over face value. The Reliable Coin and Stamp Guide gives accurate information, and you may depend upon it.

While a great many people collect old coins, there is more demand for rare postage and revenue stamps, and some comparatively recent stamps are now scarce. Collections of stamps often sell as high as A THOUSAND DOLLARS. Stamps from letters sent during the war, revenue stamps from patent medicine bottles, match wrappers, old documents, etc., are in great demand, some being worth $50.00 APIECE. Look over your old letters in the garret and elsewhere; perhaps you may find some rare things. This book gives all particulars, with prices, pictures, etc., and gives addresses of reliable firms who buy them for SPOT CASH. No matter if you handle but ten cents a day you should have this book. EVERYBODY NEEDS IT. Farmers, Storekeepers, Clerks, Mechanics, Agents, Postmasters, Doctors, Lawyers, in fact it will be found more than necessary. It is worth its weight in gold to any wide-awake person. Boys and girls should send for it and explore attics and cellars in search of old letters, which may contain rare stamps. Who knows? A small fortune may be in your very midst. Do not write for particulars; do not ask questions; do not send us the coins or stamps, but get the book. It tells all. Where you can sell them at prices given, what they are, what they look like, and why they are rare. This book gives reliable figures only; no fictitious dates or values whatever. It is issued under the supervision and authority of the greatest coin and stamp collector and dealer in North America. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
