only, for whose spiritual welfare you have so assiduously laboured, but also to all who have at any time been privileged with your friendship, or benefitted by your society.

We sincerely regret that circumstances now oblige you to leave us for a season, and in bidding you a hearty farewell, we express a fervent hope that the God whom you serve in the Gospel of his dear Son, may enable you, if not permitted to return, to be the more extensively useful in any new sphere of duty allotted to you, and that you may be privileged for many long years to manifest in your life the blessings of Temperance, and to advocate our principples of Love, Purity and Fidelity, before assembled thousands.

DAVID FITZGERALD, G. W. P.
JOHN ORLEBAR.
JOHN ARBUCKLE, P. G. W. P.
W. B. DAWSON.

REPLY:

To the Rev. David FitzGerald, G. W. P., Commander John Orlebar. R. N., Mr. John Arbuckle, and Mr. W. B. Dawson, Victoria Division, Sons of Temperance.

Brothers;

I have to thank you, and through you the Victoria Division of the Sons of Temperance, for the kind manner in which you have been pleased to express yourselves with regard to my efforts, however feeble, in behalf of that cause you have all so much at heart, as well as for your wishes, with regard to my future life.

It has been my happiness in being connected with the Order, to meet with those who advocate the cause of Temperance upon gospel principles, and believing that it will most flourish when placed upon this basis, I can cordially wish every success to the Order, and more especially to the Victoria Division with which I have been identified. It is a subject of sincere gratification to me to know that while brotherhood in temporal objects is maintained, the elder brother of the Christian is not forgotten; and remembering that he that loveth is born of God, that the pure in heart shall see God, and that without faith it is impossible to please God, I can express no higher wish; and breathe no more enlarged prayer for you than that these principles in which you glory may be more extensively diffused, and more deep seated in the heart; and that in your case they may grow and be grafted upon a heavenly root, that you may be all made brethren in Christ, that the love of God may be shed abroad in your hearts by the Holy Ghost given unto you, that you may be pure as Christ is pure, and possessed of that faith which is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen, that you may be Sons of God, and heirs with Christ of Eternal life.

In L. P. and F.
Your attached Brother,
ROBERT MACNAIR.

SPEECH.

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council;

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

The business of the Session having been brought to a close, I am happy to relieve you from your Legislative labours, and thank you for your regular attendance to your public duties during the last two months.

It has afforded me great satisfaction to find, that the anxious attention you have bestowed on the important question of Education, has terminated in your passing a measure, which, although not perhaps satisfactory to all classes of the community, (which no legislation will ever be), yet cannot fail to be productive of great good to the public at large. In framing it, you have borne in mind the injunction imposed on me by our most gracious Sovereign, an injunction confirmed by successive Colonial Secretaries of State, among others, by the distinguished Nobleman, the Earl of Derby, now Her Majesty's Prime Minister, namely, "You are to permit all persons inhabiting our Island Prince Edward, under your Government, to have full liberty of conscience, and free exercise of their respective modes of religious worship, provided they be contented with a quiet and peaceable enjoyment of the same, not giving offence or scandal to the Government."

Care will be required in carrying out the details of the measure; and experience, I trust, will enable the Government to render it efficient, and as little burthensome to the Tax-payer, as the unavoidable increased expense attendant on an improved and extended system must necessarily give rise to.

I am glad to observe, that a "Bill relating to the recovery of Small Debts, and to repeal certain Acts therein mentioned," has passed the Legislature.

At the opening of the present Session of the Imperial Parliament, I observe, that Her Majesty was pleased to say, "nothing tends more to the peace and prosperity of the country, than the speedy and impartial administration of justice;" and it will afford me great pleasure, at all times, to co-operate with you in promoting such measures as will secure to this Colony, the blessings which our gracious Queen contemplates from an impartial administration of justice, which I am sure it is Her Majesty's desire should extend to all her Dominions.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

I have to thank you for the Supplies voted for the Public Service; the respective grants which you have directed their application will be strictly attended to, and among others, I observe, with satisfaction, the appropriation of One Hundred Pounds, in addition to the legal Endowment, for the support of neglected insane persons. I saw the other day, several of that description in the Jail of Charlottetown, and I cannot help thinking, that the confinement of those unfortunates in a prison, is very undesirable, if it can be possibly avoided. The Lunatic Asylum has great capabilities of extension. Without a large expenditure it can be made subservient to the purposes contemplated by the Act which authorized its construction, viz.: "an Asylum for Insane persons, and other objects of charity"—such as aged and infirm paupers, who are unable to work; and may be extended also to those who can and ought to work, who at present prefer to beg. I am convinced, that such an Institution, properly conducted, will meet with your support and that of the public. I hope, with the concurrence of the Trustees of the Asylum, that some plan may be devised, which, while it will increase the comforts of the deserving poor, will, at the same time, decrease public expenditure.

Mr. President and Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I shall take care to forward the different Addresses which you have entrusted to me for presentation to Her Majesty; and, again thanking you for your assiduous attention to the public business, I sincerely wish you success in your various avocations.

NOTHING gives us more sincere gratification than making a record of such exhibitions of agricultural produce as the one witnessed in Saturday's Market, 20th ult., 25 carcasses of Pork weighing in all 6216 lbs. average 248¾ the carcase. By the politeness of Mr. Lewis, we are enabled to state the weight of some of the largest, which were respectively as follows:

487
400
397
395
351
336
309

There were three fed by the Hon. Geo. Coles, not so remarkable for size as for symmetry, of that breed—improved Berkshire we think—which is best adapted for domestic purposes. We wish we could have given an account of the respective ages, feeding &c., of the above. Might not the Royal Agricultural Society find it advantageous to award a premium for the heaviest animal brought into market during the year, to be decided by the Clerk!

TO THE EDITOR OF HAZZARD'S GAZETTE.

SIR;

It is remarkable that your correspondent, "A Subscriber," did not observe, that the Bed-pan and Sheding Packet is not required by the new law to come to Hurd's Point Wharf at all, as she was by the late Act; although she is now entitled to a free berth at any Wharf in the harbor, which was not heretofore the case. Had a certain person contemplated a chance of any other person getting a license, so important a clause, (important especially to this section of the Island,) would not have been omitted; but when providing it for his son, he must have more pay and less work. It has often been remarked, that such things are done in Prince Edward Island as are done no where else; but such a specimen of one-sided legislation has hardly before disgraced its annals. The late Packet Law had expired some two years ago, and was lately revived and amended, but the Grant is nearly trebled, when the person alluded to had provided his son with a vessel; yet, no doubt, when he pays us a visit on the next electioneering excursion, he will endeavor to persuade us, that he was actuated by motives of pure and disinterested patriotism.

Yours,
AN OBSERVER.
