Instantly Killed

OLIVER BABINEAU

The following letters of sympathy have been received by Mrs Myrtle Babineau, Georgetown:

Dear Mrs. Babineau,

May I express my deepest sympathy to you and your family in the sad loss of your beloved husband whom we buried in a little plot, looking towards England, that shall be forever Canada.

From what his pals and comrades tell me, he was truely a brave man, and an excellent soldier; one that we can ill afford to lose in the Days of Peace in Canada. Again we are reminded of the high price we pay for our Freedom and the privileges we enjoy in the land we love.

The service was a short one, but never-the less a deeply sincere one, as we called upon the Tender Shepherd, and gently we lowered his spent body, to the ground. We felt surely God has for the soul of righteous an eternal resting place and no one will ever be able to pluck them from His Hand.

The men have all been wonderfully brave and lion hearted in their courage, for theirs was a difficult task, but somehow, when they realized that they were instruments in the hands of God, it gave them added strength and determined purpose that this world shall be free, and of such a company was your own beloved.

Believe me, when I write, that I share very keenly in your sorrow, and the only solace I can offer is the Comfort and Love of Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, to His Tender Keeping I commend you.

Sincerely yours,
G. O. Cox, H-Capt.

Dear Mrs. Babineau:— Although you have had official notification about your husband I felt I should like to write and express my sincere sympathy in your loss.

Ollie has worked with me since last December and a great mutual friendship has sprung up during that time. His untimely end was the greatest shock I have experienced so far in this campaign because we have been through every battle since the 6th of June together.

It happened very suddenly and his best friend was with him when it happened. The trucks were moving up just prior to our attack on Vaucelle and came under heavy shell fire. They stopped the vehicle and got underneath it but a lonely piece of shrapnel hit him and his friend Dave assured me that Ollie did not suffer as his relief from this world was almost instantaneous.

I hope this bit of information may be of some comfort to you and the family. I know how deeply he loved you all and how much he looked forward to his return to you. His familiar saying was "well, we'll be home for Christmas" and you people were always foremost in his mind. He will be greatly missed not only by us but by the many friends he has made in the Battalion.

Again expressing my feeling for your loss and trust that you will always know your husband gave unselfishly to his country — all that any man could give.

Your sincerely
HAL CUNNINGHAM
