going to his father's house. I refused. He was regretting what he had done and was sorry he had killed Joe. He made the remark that he had killed one of the finest men in Miscouche. The only reason he ever gave me was that he got into a fit of passion. Don't know what would put him into that passion. He said different times he was sorry for what he had done. Don't think I said much going home I was so rattled. He was remarking that he broke his mother's heart and his sister's too, and that he supposed now he would have to swing for it. Cannot remember if he mentioned about Joe being at our house. It runs in my mind that he did not say anything about me going to Summerside with Joe. I do not remember of his finding any fault with me for going with Mr. McMillan. He came out to my aunt's home. It would be handy eleven o'clock, or perhaps after. We did not go anywhere else. My aunt was in bed I went in by the kitchen door; Dougherty went by the front door. I went to my aunt's room. She asked me why I got home so late. I told her a terrible thing had happened this night. She asked me what was it? I said "Poor Joe McMillan was killed this night." She asked me who killed him. I said it was Lon, and that he was at the door threatening to do away with himself. On the way home he said he was sorry for what he had done, and he could not stand the trial, and that he would do away with himself. I advised him not to. I said one tragedy was enough. I asked my aunt if I would let Lon in and she said yes. I let him in. He sat on her bedside. I sat on a chair. I think Aunt Kate spoke first and asked him what on earth came over him, or words to that effect, and I think he said "I don't know." She asked if Joe was dead. Lon said he was. I don't just remember what the conversation was but it was in reference to his doing away with himself. My aunt and I persuaded him to give up the revolver. He said "I'd rather not, don't ask me." He had the revolver. I felt it in the pocket of his coat. He had no other coat on. We kept asking for the revolver and after a while persuaded him to give it to us. He Handed it to me. It was loaded. He took the cartridge out for me. Do not know how many. Took some out of revolver and some out of his pocket. I do not think I asked him if it were loaded but he said himself to me, "be careful, it's loaded." I do not remember if I asked him for the other cartridges. I wrapped them in a piece of paper and put the revolver to one side. We were in the room a couple of hours before he gave up the revolver. He wanted to go home all the time he had the revolver, and we did not want him to go as we were afraid he would do away with himself. There was no conversation about McMillan except that he was sorry that he had killed one of the finest men in Miscouche. Do not remember of his saying anything to my aunt abont me walking to Summerside with Joe. There was nothing so far as I can remember said about Joe, while we were in the room, except what Lon said. Nothing about the foot ball game. After I got the revolver and cartridges. Lon went home. My aunt did not get up. I do not remember if I went to the door with Lon or not. We asked him before he left to come up early in the morning and we would go and report to Father Monaghan, and Lon consented to come. Do not remember of saying anything more to him or he to me before he left. I then went to bed. The first thing when he came in he asked me for the revolver. He said his father had sent up for it saying he did not want anything lying around. I gave it to him. Do not think he asked for anything else. Do not remember the conversation. We decided to go up to Father Monaghan and report to him. Three of us went up. Dougherty started first, my aunt and I followed. Do not know how many cartridges he gave me. I have them home yet. No one has seen them yet. I do not know if he gave me all the cartridges out of his pocket or not. Do not know how many he took out of revolver. We went to Father Monaghan's. We reached there together. I heard Father Monaghan's evidence, and what he said is correct, sa far as I heard it, and I do not know of anything else that was said at Father Monaghan's that he did not tell. My aunt and I went home. Father Monaghan advised us to try and get Dougherty to go down to our place and stay there for the forenoon at any rate. Dougherty consented to go, and went down with us to our place. Father Monaghan feared that Dougherty would do away with himself. Did not give revolver to Father Monaghag. Cannot remember of any conversation with Dougherty on the way home. He came down to our place and came into the house. He may have been there about three hours. Said he had broken his parents hearts, and wanted to go home and see his mother. I remember him asking me if I had seen him passing down the railroad Sunday afternoon. I told him "No, that I was not sitting near the window and did not see him." I think that during the forenoon of Monday I asked him why he had not been over to see me since the first of May. I think he said he thought he was not wanted. I do not know if I made any remark or not. He thought, I suppose, it was because I did not ask him to go with me to Church on the evening of the first of May. He did not say anything about Joe McMillan going to our house as far as I can remember. I did not think it strange that he did not call to see me between the first and the tenth of May. I never knew Lon to be bad tempered. Always found him to be allright. He often spoke of McMillan, but always spoke well of him. I never remember ever hearing Lon saying that he was jealous of McMillan. A few months ago Lon made a remark that he would part us—I suppose he meant McMillan and me. He gave the revolver to me again during the forenoon on Monday I gave it to Father Managhan before the inquest. I was not talking to Lon after the inquest. I saw him in the company of Constable Gough. This is about all I know of the matter.

CATHERINE GILLIS (sworn)—I reside in Miscouche—was born there. Stella McDonald is my niece and lives with me. I knew Dougaerty and McMillan for some time. Dougherty used to visit at my house. Stella and he would always be around with one another. I used to hear some of the boys tease him about her. Did not think there was anything but friendship. Had heard no talk of marriage from them. Dougherty had been here oftener than the others, I daresay. I did not make any remark about them going together. I remarked that he was of one religion and she of another, and that they should not be keeping company. Joe. McMillan was in to my place several times but not as often as Dougherty. Did not think Dougherty and Stella were engaged. The first I heard of the tragedy was when Stella came in on Sunday night. The balance of the evidence was corroboration of the evidence of Father Monaghan, Stella McDonald, nothing new being brought to light.

R. S. BOWNESS (sworn)—I live in Summerside I am a coroner for Prince County. I held an inquest on the body of the late Joseph McMillan Father Monaghan was at the inquest. I saw the revolver. It was given to me by John Rogers, J. P. (revolver produced). I do not know of what calibre. There were no cartridges in it when I received it. I also received from Mr. Rogers three cartridges (cartridges produced).

JOHN H. ROGERS (sworn)—I remember the inquest on the body of Joseph McMillan. I was present at that inquest. I identify revolver and cartridges as those given me by Father Monaghan before the inquest. I handed them to R. S. Bowness, coroner, at the inquest.

R. S. BOWNESS (recalled)—I received the clothes worn by the deceased, and taken off the body at the inquest (clothes produced). They consisted of one shirt, one linder, one vest. The clothes, revolver and cartridges have been in my possession since the inquest.

This finished the evidence.

The Magistrate asked the prisoner if he had anything to say.

The Prisoner: "I have nothing to say."

The Magistrate therefore sent the prisoner up to the Supreme Court for trial on the charge of murder. Supreme Court opens in Summerside on June ninth.

SEVERE PAINS IN THE GROIN.

Trying Experience of a Well Known Citizen in St. John, N. B.

The case of Mr. Chas. F. Olwe, for years foreman in the "Gazette" of St. John, N.B., is a striking evidence of the power of Ferrozone.

No remedy has such a record for restoring sufferers from acute stomach and kidney trouble; it invariably does cure.

"For several years" writes Mr. Olive, "I have had kidney trouble and until quite recently I suffered torture. A few months ago my condition assumed a very serious form. I consulted several city doctors, used different pills, but without the slightest benefit. I suffered from an intense pain in the groin; and the increasing seriousness of my trouble prompted me to try Ferrozone. It gave me quick relief; and a half-a-dozen boxes cured. Ferrozone I can recommend as a specific for disordered kidneys."

Won't you try Ferrozone too, 50c. per box at all dealers in medicine.

It Makes Pure Blood

We are often asked, Why does Hood's Sarsaparilla effect such wonderful cures of cases that seemed beyond the reach of medicine?

An examination of our well-known formula, from which Hood's Sarsaparilla is and always has been carefully and scientifically prepared, confirms the fact that it contains those well-known and valuable medicinal ingredients, which, when intelligently combined and properly administered, are sure to bring about good results.

It is the properly balanced proportion, combination and process in combining those ingredients known to have specific action upon the blood, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, which make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself and enable it to produce results unequaled by any similar medicine.

These ingredients are: for the blood, Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Yellow Dock; for the liver, Mandrake, Dandelion; for the kidneys, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, Pipsissewa; for the stomach, Gentian, Wild Cherry Bark, Bitter Orange Peel; for the bowels, Senna, Mandrake, Dandelion.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier and the results were entirely satisfactory. Several of my friends use or have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and all speak highly of it." MRS. RACHEL BRODRICK, 71 Murray St., Montreal, Que.

"After scarlet fever I was without strength, had defective hearing, running, watery eyes, twinges of pain and exhausting aches, and free perspiration upon the slightest exertion. A sore on my left limb laid me up. In this low condition Hood's Sarsaparilla helped me in a week and in 8 weeks I was in perfect health, my blood cleansed of impurities and the sore healed. My complexion is better now than ever. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for all blood humors and skin diseases." MRS. HENRIETTA EMORY, 34 Dean Street, Roxbury, Mass.
