Christmas Carols Through the Ages

GOD REST YOU, MERRY GENTLEMEN

"God rest you, merry gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay,
Remember Christ, our Saviour
Was born on Christmas Day. . . ."

This traditional English yule song is still sung by groups of carollers on the streets of London, as it has been for several hundred years.

St. Andrews Greetings

The following were among the messages received in connection with St. Andrew's celebration held by the Caledonian club in the Charlottetown Hotel last evening:

The club's message to sister clubs read:

"The Caledonia Club of the City of Charlottetown, P.E.I. on its One Hundred and Fifteenth Anniversary extends cordial greetings to our Sister Societies on this St. Andrew's Day, November Thirtieth, Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Nine.

'So through the ages is our story told:
The story of a people strong and bold,
Who never scorned to answer freedom's call,
Nor suffered Scotland's destiny to fall."

—T. M. McMillian, Secy, Neil McCannell, Chief.

KELPIES
Antigonish

"Antigonish Highland Society sends cordial greetings.
Where'er we be, whate'er our lot
Still will we plead and pray
That Scot rejoice wi brither Scot
Upon St. Andrew's Day."

—John MacIsaac, Pres.

Halifax

North British Society of Halifax, N.S., celebrated its One Hundred and Seventy-Second Anniversary sends greetings.

"Where'er we be, whate'er our lot,
Still will we plead and pray,
That Scot rejoice wi brither Scot
Upon St. Andrew's Day."

—George Farquhar
Pres.

Saint John, N. B.

St. Andrew's society, St. John, N.B., sends cordial greetings to all Sister Societies.

"May eckle feckle be the lot
Of each and every Brither Scot;
May high or lowly but-an'-ben
Haud weel-Content St. Andrew's Men
Where'er by chance or choice they bide;
Is wish o' these by Fundy's tide."

—J. H. Stevenson, Pres.

Fredericton, N. B.

The Fredericton Society of St. Andrew One Hundred and Fourteenth Anniversary.

"Tho far frae Mither Scotland's hearth,
Her bairns rejoice in meeting,
To put a girdle round the earth
Wi' kindly Scottish greeting.

Thocht taks our message o' guid luck
Swifter than wings o' linnets;
We hae nae need o' feelie puck,
Wha' wanted forty minutes."

—John M. F. MacKenzie, Pres.

Montreal.

St. Andrew's Society of Montreal, 104th Anniversary greeting.

"Once again from sordid slumbers
wou'd I wake my native lyre,
Tune its voice to braver numbers,
rouse to patriotic fire;
At the bugle call of duty who fail to sing of thee,
Home of valor, Love and Beauty—
Scotland, Land of Liberty."

—John H. Bonar, Pres.

Chatham, Ontario.

The St. Andrew's Society of Chatham, Ontario, sends fraternal greetings.

"Mang a' the days that Scotsmen loo,
Ne'ersday an' Hogmanay,
There's ane that shines amang them a',
Ancient St. Andrew's Day.

The gowans, faded in the field,
The heather on the brae,
The snaw shines frae the mountain tap,
Ere comes St. Andrew's Day.

But still our hearts are leal and true,
Come winter or what may,
We'll fill our glesses to the brim
An' pledge St. Andrew's Day."

—William A. Stewart, Pres.

Kingston, Ontario.

With fraternal greetings from the Saint Andrew's Society of Kingston, Ontario on this, its 99th Anniversary.

"If German steel be sharp and keen,
Is ours not strong and true?
There may be danger in the deed
But there is honor too.....

Again I see the tartans wave,
Again the trumpets ring!
Again I hear our leader's call—
"Upon them for the King!"

—J. M. Shaw, Pres.

Greetings to Brother Scots the World o'er from the St. Andrew's Benevolent Society, Hamilton, Ontario, on the 104th Celebration of St. Andrew's Day)

"We stand today where Wallace stood,
Where stood the heroes of our race,
When fierce, resisting unto blood,
They fought the tyrant face to face.

Now raise the banners, God beseech,
And sound the trumpets for the fight,
And to the throng a Crusade preach
For Freedom, Justice and the Right.

—J. C. Brown, Pres.

—Thomas Craik, President.

Vancouver.

St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society of Vancouver.

Patriotic greetings on this momentous Anniversary of St. Andrew's Day.

"Breathes there a man with soul, so dead,
Who never to himself has said,
This is my own, my native land;
Whose heart hath ne'er within him burned,
As home his footsteps he hath turned,
From wandering on a foreign strand;
If such there breathe, go mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell;
High though his titles, proud his name,
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim;
Despite those titles, power and pelf,
The wretch, concentred all in self,
Living shall forfeit fair renown,
And doubly dying, shall go down
To the vile dust, from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonoured and unsung.

—John, MacKay, President.

Boston, Mass.

Scots' Charitable Society of Boston, Mass. on its Two Hundred and Eighty-Second Anniversary, extends hearties greetings to our Sister Societies on this Saint Andrew's Day, Nov. 30th, 1939.

"It's monie a day since first we left
Auld Scotland's ragged hills—
Her heath'ry braes and gow'ny glens,
Her bonnie winding rills,
We lo'ed her in the bygane time,
When life and hope were young,
We lo'e her still, wi' right guid will,
And glory in her tongue."

—Andrew K. Roger, Pres.

New York

St. Andrew's Society Albany, New York, sends greetings.

"November bells are swinging
In Albany's fair town;
Auld Scotia's praise they're ringing
Amang our "bents sae brown;"
Our free-born hearts are singing
St. Andrew's high renown.

Aboon the tyrants' brawling
Advance the banner blue!
Still Liberty's enthralling
The arms of clansmen true.
"God speed the right!" we're calling,
Our doughty friends, to you.

—Robert L. McEwen, President.

Many See First Showing Of Pictures

Thousands of Charlottetown citizens last night pushed their way into the large Prince of Wales Auditorium to view the first public showing of the Confederation Celebration and Royal Visit Films taken in Charlottetown.

The picture was sponsored by the Provincial Council of the Girl Guides Association of Prince Edward Island. Girl Guides in uniform acted as ushers at the showing

Many familiar faces and scenes were flashed on the screen much to the delight of this Charlottetown audience, some of them seeing themselves in moving pictures for the first time. The whole production was in technicolor and the natural beauty of the City and Anne of Green Gables Golf Course was clearly depicted.

Parades of the different military units, especially the colorful Prince Edward Island Highlanders, as they marched along the streets, commanded the attention and admiration of the audience. The beautiful floats and costume parades of the Confederation Celebration were a feature of the film.

Loud applause greeted the first appearance on the screen of King George and Queen Elizabeth as they ascended the gang plank at the Marine Wharf here. The cheering was even louder when they were shown appearing on the balcony of the Provincial building. Ex-Governor Geo. D. DeBlois, Premier Campbell and Mayor Foster were shown welcoming their majesties. The arrival at Government House and the Garden Party were clearly shown in spite of the downpour of rain which took place at that time. Boy Scouts and Girl Guides as well as the Brownies and Cubs appeared numerous times in the show.

The production was under the capable direction of Craswell's Studio and cameramen Neil MacLean, Norman Anderson and Frank Andrew, all of Charlottetown. Appropriate music accompanied the showing of the different scenes in last night's entertainment.

Besides the Charlottetown pictures there was also a film of the Royal visit to other parts of Canada and United States. Two extra talking picture features rounded out the entertainment which lasted about one hour and a half. The first show was for the children at 6.30 p. m. and every available seat was occupied by the youngsters, the same thing was repeated at the 8 and 9.30 shows for the grown-ups.

MR. GEORGE TANTON PICKERING

The late George Tanton Pickering died suddenly at 5.05 p. m. Sunday, November 19th at his home, 19 Convent Street Summerside, P. E. I.

Several weeks prior to his death Mr. Pickering had been in poor health. However, early in the month he showed such signs of improvement that the family was much relieved and believed the worst had passed. On Sunday he attended to his church duties as usual and was in a very cheerful frame of mind. In the early afternoon he went on a motor trip with his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. George MacCallum and while at Borden viewed the remains of William Carruthers. Upon his return he attended to his horse and then proceeded to the cellar to regulate the furnace. After this was finished he went to rest in his favorite arm-chair —leaned over to warm his hands then fell back and died.

Mr. Pickering was 67 years of age, was born in Sherbrook where he spent the greater part of his life. He was a very successful farmer.

About seven years ago he decided to sell his farm and moved to Summerside. He is survived by his widow (nee Mildred E. Phillips) and four children, Marjorie, Mrs. Alfred Colwill, Northam; Ruth, Mrs. Nelson Compton, St. Eleanors; Jean and William who are at home, and his younger and only brother, Leonard J. of Sherbrooke.

There was a short service at the house after which the remains were taken to the Presbyterian Church, where the funeral service was held at 2 o'clock and very largely attended.

The Rev. William Verwolf conducted the services. The hymns sang at the church were as follows: The Lords My Shepherd, Forever With The Lord, —his favorite hymn Take Comfort Christians When Your Friends In Jesus Fall Asleep.

The pallbearers were: —Messrs. Reginald Compton, Major Townsend, Jarvis P. Tanton, James Morrison (Jr.), George Morrison, William "B" MacKay, Lloyd Small and Willard Philips.

There were many lovely floral tributes. Mr. Percy L. Bowness, funeral director.

New Glasgow And Vicinity

Mrs. Fred Campbell, Graham Road, was a recent visitor to New Glasgow and Charlottetown.

The young people of the Bible Study Class attended the service in the Christian Church here on Sunday morning last, and took part in the service. Mr. Ross White the president presided and Scripture readings were given by the different members present. Miss Jean Cavender rendered the beautiful solo, "O! Master Let Me Walk With Thee," very effectively. While the offering was being received the young peole's choir sang, "Purer in Heart Oh God." The pastor, Rev. T. Cavender, delivered the morning message. The usual morning communion brought the service to a close.

Mrs. Ray McLeod, Graham Road, spent the weekend here the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Revel Dickieson.

The condition of Mr. John Clark, South Rustico, who has been quite ill is showing signs of improvement. Friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Edgar McLeod, Medicine Hat Alta., is visiting relatives on the Island. He was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Albert Stewart, on Sunday last also her sister, Mrs. John McGougan, Kensington.

Miss Enid Clark, South Rustico was a visitor to Charlottetown Monday.

The Male Chorus of Charlottetown were welcomed here on Thursday evening of last week. Their performance was of high order, and greatly enjoyed by the audience. After the entertainment the visitors were treated to refreshments by the Womens' Institute.

Miss Jean Stetson, student at Prince of Wales College, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ling.

Mr. Johnston Mann, Kensington, was a visitor here on Monday. —G

Gets Share Of Grey Owl Estate

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Nov 29 —(CP)—Angle Belaney, an Indian woman of Temagami, Ont., was awarded a one-third share of the estate of Grey Owl, author-naturalist, who died in Prince Albert in April 1938.

Mr. Justice P. M. Anderson of Regina in a judgement today allowed her costs of her action out of the estate and directed that Toronto General Trusts Company, present executors, administer her share of the estate and pay her monthly sums for her maintenance.

Grey Owl's daughter, Shirley Dawn, and Yvonne Perrier, with whom the naturalist went through a marriage ceremony Dec. 5, at Montreal, were to have divided the estate equally according to the will and codicil.

Judgment provides they will divide the balance of the estate after the one-third provision for Angle Belaney, which means they will receive one-third each.

Angle Belaney married Grey Owl, known as Archibald Belaney and sometimes as Archie McNeil, at Bear Island, Ont., in 1910, when the latter was a guide and trapper.

Estate was valued at about $14,600 when it was probated about a year ago.
