HIS MAJESTY THE KING
H. R. H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT
CHIEF SCOUT LORD BADEN-POWELL
Send Messages to Scouts

H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, President of the Boy Scouts Association, sent a message to the annual general meeting of the Council of the Association, which was held at Imperial Headquarters, 25, Buckingham Palace Road, on Friday, Lord Somers presided over the meeting in the absence of Lord Baden-Powell.

The Duke of Connaught said that he was very glad to be able again to send to all Rovers, Scouts, and Cubs his best wishes for this New Year, which he prayed may bring peace to all those countries in which the Scout movement flourished.

The Duke of Connaught added that the King had told him of the services rendered by the Scouts of Canada during his visit there last year, and how pleased he was to see for himself the strength of the organization both in Canada and the United States. Last, but by no means least, he wished to emphasize the great importance of keeping Scout training going during the war, and he declared that the Scouts ideal of unselfishness, good fellowship, and mutual understanding would do more to bring about a lasting peace for all civilization than almost anything else.

Lord Baden-Powell sent the following message from Kenya:—"Congratulate headquarters on good reports Scouts' war work from all quarters. Shows movement despite war difficulties stands successfully this highest test of vitality and efficiency."—The Times, London.
