TRUCKS IN COLLISION—An Irving Oil truck proceeding towards Summerside about 11:30 (Daylight Saving Time) last night was in collision with a parked gravel truck about a mile and a half on the eastern side of the Western Capital. The rear tank of the oil truck was torn completely off the vehicle as well as the gasoline tank taps. About three or four hundred gallons of gasoline were spilled on the road as a result. The other vehicle was also damaged. Nobody was hurt in the accident.

The home of Mrs. Mamie Adams was the scene of a large and happy gathering on Friday evening when the neighbors and friends gathered to tender a shower to her daughter Amy previous to her approaching marriage. The gifts were many and after the bride to be had been escorted to a seat of honor, the many and varied parcels were brought in and opened by Mrs. Ralph Connick. The accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Hiram Harrington and Miss Margaret Stormier arranged them on the table. Miss Adams expressed her thanks to all for their kindness on this occasion and all joined in singing For She's A Jolly Good Fellow. The gifts consisted of silver, china, and glassware, aluminum and many other housekeeping necessities. The ladies served a bountiful lunch and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, splendid music was furnished by Alonzo Holmes accompanied by Edie Matthews.

A sad fatality occurred on Saturday morning about 10.30 at the farm of Harry Walker, New Annan, when a loaded gun discharged accidentally and killed Mr. Walker instantly. Mr. Walker had gone out to his fox ranch to kill a skunk which had been about the place, carrying his gun loaded. No one was with him, but from the circumstances, it would appear that Mr. Walker had leaned the gun by the door of the ranch, and in opening it the gun had gone off, and the full discharge of shot entered his head. Besides his grief-stricken wife, formerly Hattie Clark, daughter of the late Charles Clark, of Wilmot Valley, one daughter Jean is left to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father. Also one brother David, on the homestead, and one sister, Mrs. Thomas D. Carruthers, Summerside, are left to mourn The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family in their sad loss.

Miss Laura Stetson, Highfield, suffered a broken leg in the car accident which occurred on the top of St. Dunstan's Hill, three miles from the City Friday night. —DEATH OF MRS. JOHN MACINNIS — Mr. W. P. Callaghan of Summerside received word yesterday of the death of his sister, Mrs. John MacInnis at her home at Waterford, P.E.I., on Tuesday. Mrs. MacInnis was 69 years of age and was formerly Anna Jane Callaghan. She had suffered a stroke three years ago and another one just two weeks ago, from which she did not rally. She was most highly esteemed in the district for her many splendid qualities of heart and mind. She was a member of the Palmer Road Catholic Church, and was attended by her pastor during her last illness. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, the following sons and daughters:—John and Roland and daughter Ella in Boston; Emmett, Raymond, Wilfred, Harold and Gerald and another daughter Alice, Mrs. Howard Gaudet on P.E.I., to all of whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral notice will appear later. —S.

A VISITOR GETS THREE YOKED EGG — An interesting visitor to the province at present is Mr. Charles H. Rodd, retired building contractor, of Belmont, Mass., who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Coles, North Milton. Mr. Rodd is a native born son of Charlottetown which he left fifty-five years ago, at the age of seventeen, to make his way in the world, beginning at the very bottom of the ladder in Boston. Through his natural ability and by perseverence and determination, he rose to the top rung as a successful contractor, having erected many fine and costly residences in and around Boston. Mr. Rodd is the third Charles in direct succession, and as a son and grandson are also named Charles, there is now a Charles Rodd V in direct succession with the prospect soon of a Charles Rodd VI. So far as health is concerned, Mr. Rodd is in the pink of condition, evidenced by the fact that since coming here he has cut 25 acres of heavy hay on the Coles homestead. He loves the Island, and has made not infrequent visits here where he has many friends. On one occasion he crossed from Moncton by airplane, taking 40 minutes. Alas, returning by rail and car ferry, the same journey occupied nine hours; He is a widower with four of a family, two of whom fought in the last Great War. Mr. Rodd had an interesting if not unique experienced on his present visit. His hostess served him one morning with two eggs at breakfast, both of which contained three yokes. Two are not uncommon but

The marriage is taking place at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, at 8:15 this morning of Miss Mildred Bishop, Kensington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bishop, Western Bay, Newfoundland, and Professor James Harold Lynch, son of Mrs. John P. The sudden passing of Mrs. George Eden Meggison (nee Miss Eleanor C. Meggison) at her home "Point Brilliant Farm", Cascumpeque Saturday evening, June 1st, 1940, came as a great shock to her many friends. Although in failing health for a number of years, she was up and about as usual until 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon when she suddenly became ill. A doctor was called immediately and her condition was not regarded serious, but a few hours later she quietly and peacefully passed away.

ENJOYED HOLIDAY.—Mrs. John Sullivan, nee Dorothy Barnes, of Lynn, Mass., formerly of this city, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bertha May Van Tresco, arrived in Charlottetown by motor on a short visit to Mrs. Sullivan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Campbell, 99 Pownal Street. This is Mrs. Van Tresco's first visit to P. E. Island. She was loud in her praises of the beautiful scenery and marvellous weather. In saying goodbye, she said she hoped to come next year and stay for a longer time. Their many friends will be glad to welcome them back.

His many friends will regret to hear that Mr. Fred MacLeod who for the past three weeks has been hauling gravel from the Hope River pit to the St. Eleanors airport on Sunday when repairing a tire, was severely injured in the face, when a piece of lumber that was being used in some unknown manner, flew up striking him on the face, cutting him badly just above the left eye. He was immediately rushed to Dr. W. P. McBride's office where several stitches were required to close te nastly wound. After receiving medical aid he left immediately for his home in French River, and latest reports are that he is resting quite comfortably. All join in wishing him an early recovery.

— WOODSIDE - CRAIG NUPTIALS — A pretty July wedding of much interest to their many friends throughout the province was solemnized in the Knox Presbyterian Church, Toronto, Ont., at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening July 10th, 1940, when Miss Carrie Maude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodside, of Malpeque, P.E.I., was united in marriage to Mr. Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Craig of Baltic, P.E.I., the ceremony being performed by their former pastor at Malpeque, Rev. Frederick Williamson, now of Stratford, Ont. The happy bride was charmingly attired in a suit of black, with white accessories to match and carried a bouquet of roses, and was attended by Miss Wanita Walmsley and the groom was assisted by Mr. Cecil Steele. Immediately after the ceremony and signing of the register and a bountiful reception tendered them by their many friends in Alliston, Ont., the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and other important centres in Ontario. On their return they will reside in Alliston, Ont., where Mr. Craig is a successful fox rancher. Sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life is extended to the happy couple from their many friends in their former home here in P. E. Island.—H.

The couple, happily married for fifty years, leave this week by motor car to return to Charlottetown.

A very pretty wedding took place in the Baptist Parsonage, Bedeque, on Saturday, July 13, at 7 p.m., when Rev. Mr. Fraser united in marriage Miss Blanche Irene Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reeves, Freetown, and Clifford W. Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Francis, South Freetown. The bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of white satin, made in princess style with cap-effect veil, which fell gracefully from a wreath of orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Roma Curley, who was dressed in a slipper-length gown of dust-rose taffeta made on princess lines with hat and accessories to match. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Lorne Francis. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents, where a wedding supper was served to a number of relatives. The house was beautifully decorated with summer flowers. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, surmounted with a miniature bride and groom.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Francis left on a short motor trip. For travelling the bride wore a blue tailored suit with white hat and accessories to match.

Prior to her marriage a miscellaneous shower was tendered the bride at her home where many beautiful gifts were received, including a dinner and tea set of dishes and a lovely set of silver.

The happy young couple will make their home in Freetown, at-

The unit, numbering 26 officers and 357 men will undergo a three weeks training course to fit them to operate as a mechanized cavalry unit, handling armored cars and light tanks. There are three squadrons—Capt. F. W. Hyndman, Charlottetown, will be in command of "A" Squadron, Capt. O. W. Campbell, Winsloe of "B" Squadron and Capt. John Mustard, Cardigan of "C" Squadron. Capt. D. S. Montgomery, Port Hill, is permanent adjutant of the unit; Capt. N. W. Lowther is quartermaster, and Lieut. D. E. Gallant, paymaster. This unit is a member of the non-permanent active militia.

WEDDING BELLS — A pretty wedding took place at St. Michael's Church, Corran Bann, on Tuesday morning, July 9th, when Miss Catheryn Jean Macaulay, daughter of Mrs. Macaulay and the late J. D. Macaulay, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Dunn of the Royal Canadian Navy, son of Mrs. Dunn and the late Peter Dunn. Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. K. MacPherson in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The youthful bride was becomingly attired in pale blue sheer wearing a white hat and other accessories. The bridesmaid Miss Nellie Macaulay, sister of the bride also wore blue with white accessories. Mr. Leo Malone acted as groomsman. After the marriage a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother. Later the bridal party left by motor to visit points of interest on Prince Edward Island. Their many friends wish them every

FRIDAY

It has been suggested that the Corps supply volunteers for the National Registration which will be held in the City this month. Two hundred and seventy men will be needed for this registration in Charlottetown. The membership of the Corps is not large enough at present to handle this important work and for this reason the drive for new members will take place.

Mr. P. W. Turner, Vice President of the Publicity Committee, occupied the chair.

—FAMILY REUNION—The family of Mrs. Cicily MacLellan and the late John A. MacLellan (known to his friends as "Johnnie at the shore") are all home together for the first time in years. Dr. Camillus and his wife,, Margaret and Bernadette came from Boston, Eileen came from Edmonton, Alta., Rita, a Sister of Service came from Ontario, Bernard, Gerard and Augusta live with their mother at Indian River. It is nice to see a large family united in their old home and their many friends hope they may have many such reunions in years to come.—K.

—FUNERAL AT WATERFORD— The funeral services at Waterford, Prince County, for Mrs. John MacInnis were held on Thursday morning from her late residence to the Roman Catholic Church at Palmer Road. Rev. Fr. Sullivan celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass. The funeral was very largely attended by residents from the surrounding districts. Six grandsons of the deceased acted as pall bearers. Among those attending the services were Mr. W. P. Callaghan of Summerside, a brother of the deceased. Mr. Callaghan was accompanied by his wife and step-son, Mr. James Woods. S.

—PIT PROP EXPERT—Mr. J. G. Harris of St. Stephen, N. B., in company with J. G. McLean of Lot 16 gave a demonstration of pit prop cutting at a wood-lot on a Kensington farm on Monday morning. Mr. Harris is a graduate in forestry of the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, who knows wood craft in practice as well as theory. A number of people interested in pit prop cutting attended. Mr. Harris spoke favorably of the suitability of our Island second growth wood. He stressed the importance of having the proposed shipment high grade.—K.

..*FUNERAL SERVICES — The funeral of the late Mrs. William Stewart, Montague, was held in the Baptist Church on Monday at 2 o'clock. Her pastor, Rev. Mr. Duncan conducted the service which was very largely attended. The hymns were "Abide With Me", and "Asleep In Jesus". A special number, a solo by Mrs. Duncan "God Understands" was a lovely and fitting tribute to the late Mrs. Stewart. The pallbearers were Messrs. L. B. Mellish, Arthur MacNeill, M. F. MacDonald, Guy Nelson, Robert Stewart and Claud MacKay. The members of Acme Rebecca Lodge were in attendance and took charge of the service at the grave. Mrs. Stewart was a life long member of this order. She was laid to rest in the Montague Park Cemetery. —L.

—ACCEPT CALL — The Rev. J. B. Wilson, Pastor of the Summerside Baptist Church, has accepted a call to take the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Middleton, N. S. His father, Rev. Dr. W. Wilson, now head of the Industrial School at Halifax, was pastor some years ago. Consequently the Rev. Mr. Wilson is well known to the congregation at Middleton. The congregation at Summerside learn with regret of Mr. Wilson's departure as he had accomplished much good work for the church, particularly among the younger people. He was a good athlete and took a great interest in sport. Rev. Mr. Wilson left this week to spend a vacation at Truro, N. S., and will return the latter end of August. He will continue his work at Summerside until the end of September. Rev. L. W. Armstrong is the present pastor at Middleton and it is understood he is taking up war work in the Y.M.C.A. S.

JEWERS-HICKS —A pretty wedding of interest to relatives and friends on Friday was that of Miss Muriel Mae Hicks, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hicks, Middle Sackville, and Charles Stanley Jewers, youngest son of Mrs. Rose Jewers, Sackville. Rev. J. A. Vincent, pastor of the Main Street Baptist Church, Sackville, performed the ceremony at the parsonage. The bride was attired in heavenly blue with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses, tied with white ribbons and streamers finished with rose buds at the ends. Mrs. A. H. MacLennan, Sackville, attended the bride and Corporal Elijah D. Hicks was groomsman. Following the ceremony Mrs. A. H. MacLennan held a reception for the couple, when relatives from Amherst, Prince Edward Island and Port Elgin were guests. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with roses and a wedding cake. Later Mr. and Mrs. Jewers left by motor for a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Sackville.—Saint John Telegraph Journal.

BUOTE - DOIRON NUPTIALS— The beautiful one hundred and two year old church of St. Augustin, Rustico, was the scene of a solemn event on Sunday night, at eight thirty, July 14th when Mr. Cyril Buote of Rustico parish was united with Miss Lucie Doiron, also of Rustico parish, in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Father C. Pitre, D. D., officiated. The bride who was charmingly dressed in white satin, with veil, was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Mary and the groom was ably supported by the bride's brother, John. On coming out of church the wedners were met by many relatives and friends who all wished them a long life of happiness and success. They then returned to the bride's home. After assisting at mass the following morning the happy couple with their uncles and aunts and a few close friends repaired to the groom's home where they were served a sumptuous breakfast by Mrs. Eusebius Doucet. Among the guests were Rev. C. Pitre, D. D., and Rev.
