The first King's County Seed Fair was opened in Georgetown yesterday morning by Lieutenant Governor McKinnon. The attendance was good and the exhibits were excellent. J. Moore Seed Inspector for the Maritime Provinces, R. Robertson, Superintendent of the Nappan Experimental Farm and Mr Innis of Tobique, N. S., were among the prominent agriculturists present.

On Tuesday evening Feby 8th the Angel of Death visited Hampton and claimed as its victim an aged and respected resident in the person of Michael McIver, Kinkora. About three weeks previously Mr McIver was taken ill with heart disease but with medical skill and loving care he improved, but the end came suddenly on Tuesday evening. During his illness Mr McIver was attended by his pastor, Rev Dr Curran of Kelly's Cross, who administered the last rites of the Catholic Church of which Mr McIver was a consistent and faithful member. Mr McIver was 73 years of age, and was an intelligent and successful farmer, a loving and devoted husband and father and will be much missed in the community in which he lived. His funeral which was largely attended took place on Friday, Feby 12th to Kinkora Cemetery where he was buried beside his wife who predeceased him last July. The funeral services were conducted by Rev J. J. McDonald. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing family of six daughters and three sons:— Mrs C C. Clark, San Francisco, Cal; Mrs M. E. O'Regan and Michael in Maine Lauretta and Charles in Dorchester, Mass, Margaret, Josie, Cecelie and Eugine an the homestead. All of whom have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

The Hampton, N. B., correspondent to the St John Telegraph says that Mrs George Howard and her daughters of Hampton Station Baptist parsonage, were in St John last Friday attending the evangelistic campaign meetings.—The Rev George Howard and Mrs Howard went to Havelock on Saturday and remained over until this mid-week, also that R. A. and Mrs March spent Friday and Saturday in St John.—The above parties are all well known here.

The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held last evening. The teachers' reports showed the enrolment for the past month to be 1,074, the average attendance 983, the percentage 91.9, number of cases of tardiness 204, truants 1, visits to parents 83, notices to parents 63, corporal punishment 21, below average in grading 58. The question of cleanliness, sanitation, etc., in the schools was discussed and the following resolution was agreed to: "that three committees of two members each be appointed to visit the City Schools in rotation so that all the schools be visited and reported on each month. The estimates for the current year were allowed to stand over for a special meeting to be called by the chairman this month. The question of the removal of the sewerage in the Queen Square School to the basement was discussed and it was agreed that action would be taken in the matter when the estimates were being considered. After passing some bills the meeting adjourned.

A fairly large and representative meeting of the members of the congregations of the First Methodist and Grace Methodist Churches was held in the basement of the first named church last evening. John F. Whear occupied the chair. Very eloquent addresses were delivered by Rev. E. W. Morgan, a returned missionary from China, Rev George J. Bond and Rev. T. Marshall. The following resolution was moved by W. C. Turner and seconded by Dr. J. H. Ayers: The laymen representing the two Methodist Churches of Charlottetown, together with those of Cornwall, York, Pownal and Winsloe Churches, desire to convey to the Missionary deputation their very grateful appreciation of the valuable services rendered by them to the cause of Christian Missions during their visit. We assure them that the principles and aims of the Laymen's Movement for Missions commands our heartiest approval and we are confident that their timely and most inspiring addresses of Sabbath and this evening will not fail to advance the welfare of the enterprise in which the Christian churches are so deeply interested at present. At the conclusion of the proceedings refreshments were served by the Ladies Aid Society of both churches.
